Port Townsends Victorian Homes:

Port Townsend's Victorian Homes James W. Niebauer,1984 Port Townsend Jefferson County Historical Society,2008 On Washington's Olympic Peninsula at the entrance to Puget Sound the Port Townsend of the 1850s was perfectly situated for sailing vessels By 1880 thousands of ships from all over the world were passing through Optimistic investors sought fortunes in shipping logging lumber mills and land speculation While commerce flourished at sea level citizens built fine homes churches schools clubs a respectable shopping district and parks uptown on the bluff The settlers of this lovely seaport enjoyed rich cultural and social lives Port Townsend went bust after the anticipated railroad failed to arrive It remained largely frozen in time without economic motivation to tear down and replace its fine Victorian architecture It wasn't until the 1970s that the beautiful setting and buildings were discovered by artists hippies preservationists and later tourists and retirees The town is now a thriving arts and cultural community still beautiful still small and remote Port
