Portrait Of A Decade The 1930s:

Portrait of a Decade, 1930-1940 David Alfaro Siqueiros, 1997 This book is a catalog of an exhibition held at the Museo Nacional de Arte Mexico City Nov 28 1996 Feb 16 1997 the Santa Barbara Museum of Art Mar 8 May 11 1997 and the Museum of Fine Arts Houston June 1 July 22 1997 A Decade of American Painting, 1930-1940 Worcester Art Museum, 1942 Portrait of a Decade, 1910-1919 Trevor Fisher, 1991 A year by year account of the headlines and chief topics of conversation in world news sports and the arts and in science and technology PORTRAIT OF A DECADE 1930 - 1940, 1997 Vida Americana - Mexican Muralists Remake American Art, 1925-1945 Barbara Haskell, Mark A. Castro, 2020-01-01 An in depth look at the transformative influence of Mexican artists on their U S counterparts during a period of social change The first half of the 20th century saw prolific cultural exchange between the United States and Mexico as artists and intellectuals traversed the countries shared border in both directions For U S artists Mexico s monumental public murals portraying social and political subject matter offered an alternative aesthetic at a time when artists were seeking to connect with a public deeply affected by the Great Depression The Mexican influence grew as the artists Jos Clemente Orozco Diego Rivera and David Alfaro Siqueiros traveled to the United States to exhibit sell their work and make large scale murals working side by side with local artists who often served as their assistants and teaching them the fresco technique Vida Americana examines the impact of their work on more than 70 artists including Marion Greenwood Philip Guston Isamu Noguchi Jackson Pollock and Charles White It provides a new understanding of art history one that acknowledges the wide ranging and profound influence the Mexican muralists had on the style subject matter and ideology of art in the United States between 1925 and 1945 Royal Portraits in Hollywood Elizabeth Ford, 2009-06-26 In the history of cinema many film genres have gained and lost popularity with the changing times but one has maintained its supreme reign the royal biopic In Royal Portraits in Hollywood Filming the Lives of Queens authors Elizabeth A Ford and Deborah C Mitchell follow the lives of historical queens as depicted on film from the 1930s to the present Women as diverse as Catherine the Great Cleopatra Mary Stuart and Marie Antoinette have been represented on the silver screen dominating the masculine world of politics while maintaining their femininity During the golden age of American film these roles gave Hollywood a means of portraying powerful women without threatening the patriarchal social order Depictions of the lives of queens have progressed from idealized and romanticized portraits to the more personal complex portrayals of modern Hollywood By walking the line between fact and fiction these royal portraits of queens reveal just as much our society as they do about the historical periods they represent Audiences are drawn to the theaters year after year because the lives of queens promise good drama and attract some of the most talented actresses The success of Hollywood s leading ladies in playing queens further solidifies the link between Hollywood royalty and authentic royalty Actresses such as Bette Davis Judy Dench Helen Mirren Elizabeth Taylor and Greta Garbo have done more than influence the way we imagine historical queens they also have changed how we perceive women in powerful positions today Royal Portraits in Hollywood analyzes seventy five years of films about queens as well as the lives of the actresses who starred in them Combining biographical sketches and excerpts from letters and journals Ford and Mitchell show how filmmaking and our society s perceptions of gender have changed The authors compare Hollywood s on screen portrayals to the historical records often drawing connections to the actresses careers and personal lives This comprehensive analysis provides a more complete picture of the lives that take place behind the thrones both real and fictional The spectacle of a woman dressed in the full regalia of power remains a compelling image in our society Hollywood actresses and the queens they portray are women who wield power and by examining the lives of these women the authors reveal not only society s perceptions about female power but also how those perceptions continue to evolve Portrait of a Decade, 1930-1940 (June 1-July 22, 1997). Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, Museo Nacional de Arte (Mexico), Santa Barbara Museum of Art, Art in California (World of Art) Jenni Sorkin, 2021-10-05 A fully illustrated history of modern and contemporary art in California from the early twentieth century to the present day This introduction to the art of California focuses on the distinctive role the state played in the history of American art from early twentieth century photography and Chicana mural painting to the fiber art movement and beyond Shaped by a compelling network of geopolitical influences including waves of migration and exchange from the Pacific Rim and Mexico the influx of African Americans immediately after World War II and global immigration after quotas were lifted in the 1960s California is a center of artistic activity whose influence extends far beyond its physical boundaries Including work by artists Yun Gee Helen Lundeberg Henry Taylor Richard Diebenkorn Albert Bierstadt Chiura Obata and Judith Baca among many others art historian Jenni Sorkin tells California s story as a place at the forefront of radical developments in artistic culture Organized chronologically and thematically with full color illustrations throughout this attractive study stands as an important chronicle of California s contribution to modern and contemporary art in the United States and globally In one stunning volume Art in California addresses the vast appetite for knowledge on contemporary art in California Mexican muralist, international Marxist Curtis Swope, 2024-10-29 David Alfaro Siqueiros was perhaps the most important communist painter of the twentieth century This book the first sustained engagement with Siqueiros s work in the English language focuses on the artist s late murals which are both aesthetically innovative and politically provocative It places Siqueiros in an international context revealing that the dogmatism he has been charged with was in reality a complex phenomenon It provided a foundation for rather than an obstacle to his efforts to create an art embedded in the day to day concerns and theoretical debates of the world wide mass movement he saw himself as a part of George Orwell and the Radical Eccentrics K. Bluemel, 2016-04-30 George Orwell and the Radical Eccentrics celebrates the lives literature and politics of a group of four radical eccentrics the Tory anarchist poet Stevie Smith the Marxist Indian nationalist Mulk Raj Anand and the glamour girl turned socialist Inez Holden who formed a friendly circle around the famously radical and eccentric George

Orwell Demonstrating that Smith Anand and Holden matter for literary history just as they mattered for Orwell George Orwell and the Radical Eccentrics gives name and shape to a neglected movement within interwar and wartime English writing It focuses on the lives and texts of Smith Anand and Holden in order to argue that these three writers throw into question limiting assumptions about art and politics about standard relations between literary form and sex gender race class and empire in ways that their group s most influential radical Orwell cannot Embarking upon a kind of biographical political cultural literary criticism this book brings the radical eccentrics vital potentially transformative conversation to the attention of scholars of English literature for the first time suggesting fascinating new approaches to the study of literary London during the thirties and forties Motion Picture Biographies John Cones,2015-04-01 Hollywood movies are famous for promoting negative stereotypes of all kinds especially against minorities women Southerners and Christians To what extent are biographical films selected for production according to certain biases conscious or unconscious among the Hollywood elite An expert on the U S film industry gives readers brief synopses of Hollywood biopics produced and or released from 1912 through 1994 This survey provides the basis for discussion and analysis Tracking these one sided depictions over a longer period of time the patterns of bias and the source of the problem become more clear The problem appears to be that most of the people who have green light authority in the U S film industry for either the production and or distribution of a motion picture share a common ethnic religious cultural background Thus the stories of their own cohort and those of all other ethnic religious and or cultural groups whose members seldom achieve positions of power in Hollywood are being filtered through the cultural sensibilities of a single group John Cones suggests that the solution could lie in increasing diversity at the highest levels in the U S film industry In Focus National Geographic,2010-09 A collection of nearly three hundred photographs from National Geographic representing the work of more than one hundred fifty acclaimed photographers captures portrait images of people from around the world Photography Books Index III Martha Kreisel,2006 While the Internet is an important source for locating photographic images there still are hundreds of photography books published each year for whose contents there is no external access This second supplement to Photography Books Index addresses this need by analyzing important photographic anthologies that have been published since 1985 Accessing more than fifty photographic anthologies that are widely held in libraries across the country along with images from two critical annual compilations Best of Photojournalism and Graphis Annual this book identifies photographs that record the history of our times This reference guide provides an important index to contemporary as well as historical photographers including those for whom full monographs have not been published Photographs of important individuals as well as photographic records of cataclysmic events can be located through this index Extensive descriptions of the individual photographs from the commonplace to the extraordinary are identified in this volume Organized into three sections Photographers Subjects of Photographs and Portraits of Named Individuals these descriptions provide the researcher with important information on each photograph An essential volume for all public special and academic libraries this index will be an invaluable resource for reporters historians academics students and anyone wishing to research photographs and photographers

House Paints, 1900-1960 Harriet A. L. Standeven, 2011 The versatility of modern commercial house paints has ensured their use in a broad range of applications including the protection and decoration of historic buildings the coating of toys and furniture and the creation of works of art Historically house paints were based on naturally occurring oils gums resins and proteins but in the early twentieth century the introduction of synthetic resins revolutionized the industry Good quality ready mixed products became available and were used by artists worldwide While the ubiquity of commercial paints means that conservators are increasingly called upon to preserve them such paints pose unique challenges including establishing exactly which materials are present This book traces the history of the household paint industry in the United States and United Kingdom over the first half of the twentieth century It includes chapters on the artistic use of commercial paints and the development of ready mixed paints and synthetic resins oil paints oleoresinous gloss and enamel paints water paints nitrocellulose lacquers oil modified alkyds and emulsion paints and the conservation implications of these materials The book will be of interest to conservators and conservation scientists working on a broad range of painted surfaces as well as curators art historians and historians of architectural paint

The Nobel Prize and the Formation of Contemporary World Literature Paul Tenngart, 2023-10-05 An exploration of the history ambitions and impact of the Nobel Prize in literature as it gained a central position in 20th century global literary culture Few scholars would deny that the Nobel Prize is the most prestigious literary award in the world But what mechanisms made it possible for 18 Swedish intellectuals to become the world's most influential literary critics Paul Tenngart argues that the Nobel Prize in literature has become a special kind of international canonization exerted from a non central semi peripheral position the award sometimes confirms and reinforces hierarchical relations between literary languages and cultures and sometimes disturbs established patterns of dominance and dependence Drawing from a wide range of contemporary theories and methods this multifaceted history of the Nobel Prize questions how the Swedish Academy has managed to keep the prize's global status through all the violent international crises of the last 120 years how the selection of laureates shaped the idea of universal literary values and defined literary quality across languages and cultures and what impact the prize has had on the distribution and significance of particular works literatures and languages The Nobel Prize and the Formation of Contemporary World Literature explores the history and impact of the Nobel Prize in literature from the first award in 1901 through recent controversies involving Bob Dylan and MeToo arguing that the prize is a unique performative act that has been and still is central in our continual and collective construction of world literature

Portraits Edward Shils, 1997-06-09 In these vivid portraits of prominent twentieth century intellectuals Edward Shils couples the sensitivity of a biographer with the profound knowledge of a highly respected scholar Ranging as widely across various disciplines as Shils himself did the essays gathered here share a distaste for faddists who run with the intellectual mob and a deep respect for intellectuals who maintain their integrity under great pressure Highlights include an affectionate treatment of Leo Szilard the physicist whose involvement with the development of the atomic bomb led him to work ceaselessly to address its social consequences a discussion of the educational philosophy of Robert Maynard Hutchins the University of Chicago s fifth and most controversial president an appreciative account of the Polish emigr Leopold Labedz s well informed and outspoken resistance to Communism and an essay about the extraordinary Indian writer Nirad Chaudhuri Many of these essays have appeared in The American Scholar edited by Joseph Epstein who introduces this volume with his own portrait of Edward Shils Though professionally a sociologist Edward Shils was a man of wide cosmopolitan culture and experience greatly concerned with the public problems of his time in particular with those created by the rise of new and dangerous ideologies the frightening possibilities of science and the apparent abrogation of public responsibility by many Western intellectuals Hugh Trevor Roper The late Edward Shils was a member of the University of Chicago s Committee on Social Thought for forty five years and a fellow of Peterhouse Cambridge University His many books include The Calling of Sociology and The Intellectuals and the Powers both published by the University of Chicago Press
