scientific system of portraiture through color matched to each personality a portrait that reveals a blueprint toward a radiant better life But he has a problem His portraits are terrible Nobody wants them He marries Barbara a fellow art student with the understanding she will help him develop his system They will have no children He wants her to join him every step of the way painting only with his scientific mixtures Unfortunately Barbara prefers her free spirited messy way of painting Her portraits sell but she cheats on his system Volume 2 opens when they leave Florida for Atlanta GA They buy 14 acres on a hilltop Albert is thrilled with the view all the way to Atlanta beyond the trees Barbara is appalled at the crappy old house no hot water and a bathroom outside on the porch They are both city people with romantic ideas They want to live off the land milk goats and grow vegetables They have no farming experience whatsoever They make hilarious mistakes suffer emotional traumas over crops and animals endure periods of starvation moments of euphoria and violent arguments over ways to paint It is also the time of Civil Rights the 1950s Their landlord visits them at Christmas with a K K Klan buddy The preacher politicians neighbors and customers oppose any change in the racial customs and treatment of Negro people Albert confronts them with his humanitarian philosophy All people have a unique and wonderful radiance of living color he tells them His system will prove it if only Barbara will use it So goes the story of their different personalities where each of them came from and how their backgrounds inspire damage and diverge throughout their lives together The Biography Book Daniel S. Valentin Serov Valentin Serov,Dmitri V. Sarabianov,2012-01-17 Among the young peredvizhniki who joined the World of Art group the most brilliant portraitist was Valentin Serov Like many of his contemporaries he delighted in painting out of doors and some of his most appealing portraits such as Girl with Peaches Girl in Sunlight and In Summer owe their naturalness to their setting or to the interplay of sunlight and shadows Indeed Serov regarded them as studies rather than portraits giving them descriptive titles that omitted the sitter's name The subject of Girl with Peaches painted when Serov was only twenty two was in fact Mamontov's daughter Vera The model for In Summer was Serov's wife When only six years old Serov began to display signs of artistic talent At nine years old Repin acted as his teacher and mentor giving him lessons in his studio in Paris then let Serov work with him in Moscow almost like an apprentice Eventually Repin sent him to study with Pavel Chistiakov the teacher of many of the World of Art painters including Nesterov and Vrubel Chistiakov was to become a close friend Because Serov's career spanned such a long period his style and subject matter vary considerably ranging from voluptuous society portraits the later ones notable for their grand style and sumptuous dresses to sensitive studies of children Utterly different from any of these is the famous nude study of the dancer Ida Rubinstein in tempera and charcoal on canvas which he painted towards the end of his life Although Serov's early style has much in common with the French Impressionists he did not become acquainted with their work until after he had painted pictures such as Girl with Peaches Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine ,1887 Kazimir Malevich and the Art of Geometry John Milner,1996-01-01
