Portrait Of Leroi Jones:

The Autobiography of LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka, 2012-04-01 The complete autobiography of a literary legend Mutual Reflections Milly Heyd, 1999 This text examines the mutual relationship between Jews and African Americans through visual art It investigates how artists of both backgrounds have viewed each other in the past how visual languages and thematic concerns have changed to reflect different issues of concern to each group Imamu Amiri Baraka (Leroi Jones) Kimberly W. Benston, 1978 Poetics Journal Digital Archive Lyn Hejinian, Barrett Watten, 2015-02-25 The highly influential Poetics Journal whose ten issues were published between 1982 and 1998 contributed to the surge of interest in the practice of poetics Edited by internationally recognized poet critics Lyn Hejinian and Barrett Watten the journal presents major conversations and debates and invites readers to expand on the critical and creative engagements they represent This archive re presents virtually all the articles originally published in Poetics Journal organized alphabetically by author and in searchable form It features indexes by contributors keywords and volume The writing that appeared in Poetics Journal reflects the development of a range of creative and critical approaches in avant garde poetry and art over two decades In making this content newly available the editors hope to preserve the generative enthusiasm for innovative writing and art it represents while encouraging new uses and contexts A Guide to Poetics Journal is also available see <http://www.upne.com/0819571205.html> for more information The Hearing Eye Graham Lock, David Murray, 2009 The widespread presence of jazz and blues in African American visual art has long been overlooked The Hearing Eye makes the case for recognizing the music's importance both as formal template and as explicit subject matter Moving on from the use of iconic musical figures and motifs in Harlem Renaissance art this groundbreaking collection explores the more allusive and elusive references to jazz and blues in a wide range of mostly contemporary visual artists There are scholarly essays on the painters Rose Piper Graham Lock Norman Lewis Sara Wood Bob Thompson Richard H King Romare Bearden Robert G O Meally Johannes V lz and Jean Michel Basquiat Robert Farris Thompson as well an account of early blues advertising art Paul Oliver and a discussion of the photographs of Roy DeCarava Richard Ings These essays are interspersed with a series of in depth interviews by Graham Lock who talks to quilter Michael Cummings and painters Sam Middleton Wadsworth Jarrell Joe Overstreet and Ellen Banks about their musical inspirations and also looks at art's reciprocal effect on music in conversation with saxophonists Marty Ehrlich and Jane Ira Bloom With numerous illustrations both in the book and on its companion website The Hearing Eye reaffirms the significance of a fascinating and dynamic aspect of African American visual art that has been too long neglected Great Spirits: Portraits of Life Changing World Music Artists Randall Grass, 2009 Bob Thompson Thelma Golden, Judith Wilson, Whitney Museum of American Art, 1998-01-01 Bob Thompson 1937 1966 was a figurative expressionist painter active in literary musical and artistic circles in New York and Europe from the late 1950s until his death in 1966 In the first book devoted solely to Thompson the life and work of this pivotal figure in modern

American art history and African American culture receive the attention they deserve Judith Wilson situates Bob Thompson within the context of both contemporary artistic production and cultural trends of the fifties and sixties She uses interviews Thompson s diary entries and letters to his family and his work to give a thoughtful and thorough interpretation of his art and persona She traces Thompson s development psychologically socially and artistically effectively portraying his first encounters with art and bohemian culture and his intensely active period in Europe shortly before his death in Rome at the age of 29 Bob Thompson s life intersects several important currents in recent American culture and his work reveals an unfinished quest for communal identity says Wilson His use of postmodern techniques of appropriation and pastiche embraced both the Western tradition and cultural resources specific to the African American experience The publication of Bob Thompson recognizes the important role of the artist in the vanguard of twentieth century American art Bob Thompson 1937 1966 was a figurative expressionist painter active in literary musical and artistic circles in New York and Europe from the late 1950s until his death in 1966 In the first book devoted solely to Thompson the life and work of this pivotal figure in modern American art history and African American culture receive the attention they deserve Judith Wilson situates Bob Thompson within the context of both contemporary artistic production and cultural trends of the fifties and sixties She uses interviews Thompson s diary entries and letters to his family and his work to give a thoughtful and thorough interpretation of his art and persona She traces Thompson s development psychologically socially and artistically effectively portraying his first encounters with art and bohemian culture and his intensely active period in Europe shortly before his death in Rome at the age of 29 Bob Thompson s life intersects several important currents in recent American culture and his work reveals an unfinished quest for communal identity says Wilson His use of postmodern techniques of appropriation and pastiche embraced both the Western tradition and cultural resources specific to the African American experience The publication of Bob Thompson recognizes the important role of the artist in the vanguard of twentieth century American art
