New Physiognomy Samuel Roberts Wells, 1871 Portrait and Biographical Album of Clinton County, Iowa, 1886 From Islands to Portraits Sergio Perosa, 2000

Throughout the long course of literature, islands have accumulated uncanny connotations of death together with peculiarities of linguistic definition and expression. Since the age of discovery, after the Caribbean Islands, America itself and later the archipelagos and atolls in the Pacific became known to travellers and conquistadores, islands have been sought, searched, explored and physically possessed as women. Cultural recognition takes the form of sexual and physical possession. Venus was born from the sea and is identified with an island. These are the themes of the first two variations discussed in this book.

Here 24 short essays locate the histories of women from Pocahontas to Betty Friedan and men together by period and provide a sense of their continuities through the whole gallery of the American past.
