Ernest Edwards (photographer.), 1863 Museum and Gallery Publishing Sarah Hughes, 2019-06-20 Museum and Gallery Publishing examines the theory and practice of general and scholarly publishing associated with museum and art gallery collections Focusing on the production and reception of these texts the book explains the relevance of publishing to the cultural commercial and social contexts of collections and their institutions Combining theory with case studies from around the world Sarah Anne Hughes explores how why and to what effect museums and galleries publish books Covering a broad range of publishing formats and organisations including heritage sites libraries and temporary exhibitions the book argues that the production and consumption of printed media within the context of collecting institutions occupies a unique and privileged role in the creation and communication of knowledge Acknowledging that books offer functions beyond communication Hughes argues that this places books published by museums in a unique relationship to institutions with staff acting as producers and visitors as consumers The logistical and ethical dimensions of museum and gallery publishing are also examined in depth including consideration of issues such as production the impact of digital technologies funding and sponsorship marketing co publishing rights and curators and artists agency Focusing on an important but hitherto neglected topic Museum and Gallery Publishing is key reading for researchers in the fields of museum heritage art and publishing studies It will also be of interest to curators and other practitioners working in museums heritage and science centres and art galleries

Proceedings of the ... Annual Meeting of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin State Historical Society of Wisconsin,1890 From Face to Face Marina Prusac,2016-08-29 This book is based on an investigation of more than 2000 portraits of which around 500 have proven to be recarved It provides thorough analyses of the different recarving methods some of which can be attributed to geographically localized workshops establishing classifiable categories and an analytical text with special regard to the cultural historical changes in Late Antiquity The investigation underpins a hypothesis on the late antique portraits style as a consequence of the many recarved portraits at the time which relied on a syncretism of politics religion and ideology The conclusion gives a new understanding of how broad scoped culturally and politically encoded and comprehensive the practice of recarving was Guide to the MSS. & Printed Books Exhibited in Celebration of the Tercentenary of the First Folio Shakespeare ... British Museum.
