B. Moreno, 2016-05-26 Can a Leopard change his spots or can a heartless killer give his life over to serving the Lord and winning souls for Christ In the natural no But with the Lord all things are possible When the worst tragedy strikes and a man becomes obsessed with hate and turns into a cold blooded killer it would seem that there is no hope for him but to be a tool for the devil The path of life that he is drawn into leaves a certainty that he is beyond redemption Living as though he has a death wish chasing danger and pulling crazy stunts all while going into the depths of a criminal organization Gary refined his natural abilities to be the best of the worst His abilities brought him to the attention of those who would exploit his talents to satisfy their own dark intentions The deeper he went into the dark world of the mob it seemed there would be no way out Gaining recognition across all boundaries as one of the best sharpshooters that ever worked for the mob he was destined to be used by all who wanted his services even the CIA When it would seem there is no hope for salvation and the man who is dedicated to having no mercy finds that though he gave no mercy there is still the possibility of a miracle Love and mercy can reach the darkest soul and forgiveness can change a man forever When there is no hope for a man then that is when the Lord can go to work and prove that only he can take a soul from spiritual death unto a new and glorious life This story is based on the real life of a person whose name is Gary A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Film Noir John Grant, 2023-09-21 Featuring rumpled PIs shyster lawyers corrupt politicians double crossers femmes fatales

John McCarty, 2025-05-01 The gangster like the gunslinger is a classic American character and the gangster movie like the Western is one of the American cinema s enduring film genres From Scarface to White Heat from The Godfather to The Usual Suspects from Once Upon a Time in America to Road to Perdition gangland on the screen remains as popular as ever In Bullets over Hollywood film scholar John McCarty traces the history of mob flicks and reveals why the films are so beloved by Americans As McCarty demonstrates the themes characters landscapes stories the overall iconography of the gangster genre have proven resilient enough to be updated reshaped and expanded upon to connect with even today s young audiences Packed with fascinating behind the scenes anecdotes and information about real life hoods and their cinematic alter egos insightful analysis and a solid historical perspective Bullets over Hollywood will be the definitive book on the gangster movie for years to come Public Enemies James Mottram, 1998 James Mottram traces the history of the gangster film genre providing background information on key actors directors and crew whilst discussing and examining a range of films from the 1930s through to films like Pulp Fiction and Goodfellas A Death Retold in Truth and Rumour Grace A. Musila, 2015 Re examines this unresolved murder in Kenya and the underlying role of rumour the media and inter state relations on how the death has been reported and investigated Julie Ann Ward was a British tourist and wildlife photographer who went missing in Kenya s Maasai Mara Game Reserve in 1988 and was eventually found to have been murdered Her death and the protracted search for her killers still at large were hotly contested in the media Many theories emerged as to how and why she died generating three trials several true crime books and much speculation and rumour At the core of Musila s study are the following questions why would this young woman s death be the subject of such strong contestations of ideas and multiple truths And what does this reveal about cultural productions of truth and knowledge in Kenya and Britain particularly in the light of the responses to her disappearance of the Kenyan police the British Foreign Office and the British High Commission in Nairobi Building on existing scholarship on African history narrative gender and postcolonial studies the author reveals how the Julie Ward murder and its attendant discourses offer insights into the journeys of ideas and how these traverse the porous boundaries of the relationship between Kenya and Britain and by extension Africa and the Global North Grace A Musila is a lecturer in the English Department of Stellenbosch University South Africa The A to Z of African American

Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venise T. Berry, 2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson's victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history The Psychotronic Video Guide To Film Michael Weldon, 1996 The bible of B movies is back and better than ever From Abby to Zontar this book covers more than 9 000 amazing movies from the turn of the century right up to today's Golden Age of Video all described with Michael Weldon's dry wit More than 450 rare and wonderful illustrations round out this treasure trove of cinematic lore an essential reference for every bad film fan Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide, 1996 Biographical and Portrait Cyclopedia of Chautauqua County, New York Obed Edson, 1891 Portrait and Biographical Album of St. Joseph County, Michigan ... Together with Portraits and Biographies of All the Governors of the State and the Presidents of the United States, 1889 The Encyclopedia of Film Composers Thomas S. Hischak, 2015-04-16 For more than a century original music has been composed for the cinema From the early days when live music accompanied silent films to the present in which a composer can draw upon a full orchestra or a lone synthesizer to embody a composition music has been an integral element of most films By the late 1930s movie studios had established music departments and some of the greatest names in film music emerged during Hollywood's Golden Age including Alfred Newman Max Steiner Dimitri Tiomkin and Bernard Herrmann Over the decades other creators of screen music offered additional memorable scores and some composers such as Henry Mancini Randy Newman and John Williams have become household names The Encyclopedia of Film Composers features entries on more than 250 movie composers from around the world It not only provides facts about these artists but also explains what makes each composer notable and discusses his or her music in detail Each entry includes Biographical material Important dates Career highlights Analysis of the composer's musical style Complete list of movie credits This book brings recognition to the many men and women who have written music for movies over the past one hundred years In addition to composers from the United States and Great Britain artists from dozens of other countries are also represented A rich resource of movie music history The Encyclopedia of Film Composers will be of interest to fans of cinema in general as well as those who want to learn more about the many talented individuals who have created memorable scores Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide 1993 Leonard Maltin,1992-11 Widely acclaimed as the biggest best most authoritative book in its field this guide has been updated for 1993 and now includes a new feature a symbol to designate movies available on increasingly popular laser discs Features 300 new movie summaries plus expanded coverage of films available on video for home viewing

Blake's 7: A Critical Guide to Series 1-4 Rodney Marshall,2015-04-19 Political satire comic strip action adventure science fiction space opera Orwellian dystopia costume drama Western Drawing on a range of genres Terry Nation s Blake s 7 resists categorisation or labelling a ground breaking piece of television drama Presenting itself as easy viewing early evening entertainment for a largely teenage audience which on one level it was it tackles state surveillance propaganda corruption genocide revolution and terrorism Avengers expert Rodney Marshall turns his attention to Blake s 7 offering unauthorised entertaining thought provoking critical guides to all fifty two episodes in Series 1 4 Horizon the official Blake s 7 fan club moderator Alex Pinfold has added a Foreword to this third edition while television historian Matthew Lee has penned an essay on Terry Nation and Blake s 7 Combining dark humour surrealism shiny surfaces and dramatic depth Blake s 7 blurs the boundary between hero villain Leonard Maltin's Movie and Video Guide 1995 Leonard Maltin,1994-10 This blockbuster 25th anniversary edition of the movie bible is bigger better and more authoritative than ever with some 300 new entries for a grand total of more than 19 000 Includes laserdisc indicator symbols expanded indices of stars and directors and an updated resource list Simultaneously published as an interactive software product Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry,Venise T. Berry,2015-05-07 As early as 1909 African Americans were utilizing the new medium of cinema to catalogue the world around them using the film camera as a device to capture their lives and their history The daunting subject of race and ethnicity permeated life in America at the turn of the twentieth century and due to the effect of certain early films specific television images and an often biased news media it still plagues us today As new technologies bring the power of the moving image to the masses African Americans will shoot and edit on laptop computers and share their stories with a global audience via the World Wide Web These independently produced visions will add to the diverse cache of African American images being displayed on an ever expanding silver screen This wide range of stories topics views and genres will finally give the world a glimpse of African American life that has long been ignored and has yet to be seen This second edition of Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1400 cross referenced entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about African American cinema
