American Painting in the Twentieth Century Henry Geldzahler, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1965

Portraits of Resistance Jennifer Van Horn, 2022-01-01 A highly original history of American portraiture that places the experiences of enslaved people at its center This timely and eloquent book tells a new history of American art how enslaved people mobilized portraiture for acts of defiance Revisiting the origins of portrait painting in the United States Jennifer Van Horn reveals how mythologies of whiteness and of nation building erased the aesthetic production of enslaved Americans of African descent and obscured the portrait's importance as a site of resistance Moving from the wharves of colonial Rhode Island to antebellum Louisiana plantations to South Carolina townhouses during the Civil War the book illuminates how enslaved people's relationships with portraits also shaped the trajectory of African American art post emancipation Van Horn asserts that Black creativity subjecthood viewership and iconoclasm constituted instances of everyday rebellion against systemic oppression Portraits of Resistance is not only a significant intervention in the fields of American art and history but also an important contribution to the reexamination of racial constructs on which American culture was built

Portraits of Women in the American West Dee Garceau-Hagen, 2013-04-15 Men are usually the heroes of Western stories but women also played a crucial role in developing the American frontier and their stories have rarely been told This anthology of biographical essays on women promises new insight into gender in the 19C American West The women featured include Asian Americans African Americans and Native American women as well as their white counterparts The original essays offer observations about gender and sexual violence the subordinate status of women of color their perseverance and influence in changing that status a look at the gendered religious legacy that shaped Western Catholicism and women in the urban and rural industrial and agricultural West
