(Haverfordwest), Graham Sutherland, 1984* Graham Sutherland Graham Vivian Sutherland, Martin Hammer, 2005 This important book revisits a major figure from a now somewhat neglected generation who dominated the British art scene in the 1930s and 1940s Focusing on the period from the mid 1930s when Sutherland established his identity as a modern painter to the 1950s when his influence began to wane it portrays the types of work that gave rise to a widespread consensus amongst fellow artists and critics that Sutherland was the most exciting and compelling voice in contemporary British painting Two particular strands of his imagery are discussed the landscapes of Pembrokeshire and the South of France before and after the Second World War and the scenes of devastation produced for the War Artists scheme run by Sutherland s great friend Kenneth Clark The dramatic colour and lighting and the metamorphosis of observed form in his pictures of bombed buildings tin mines and factory interiors struck a powerful emotional chord in such traumatic times The book also includes sections on the early 1920s etchings which introduced certain fundamentals of his art and on the initial emergence of his portraiture with the creation of Somerset Maugham in 1949 There are also carefully selected works by other artists past and present in whom Sutherland took an interest such as Blake Palmer Nash and Masson Published to accompany the major exhibition at Dulwich Picture Gallery in June 2005 this long overdue and much requested book there has not been a substantial Sutherland show in London since 1982 comprises eighty oils and works on paper drawn from public and private collections throughout the UK and offers a selective interpretation of his painting rather than the usual career retrospective The exhibition opens at Dulwich Picture Gallery on 16th June to 25th September 2005 and will travel to the Djanogly Gallery in Nottingham in the autumn 904009490X Graham Sutherland Hanover Gallery, Graham Vivian Sutherland, 1951* The Face of Britain Simon Schama, 2016-08-16 Author of a number of celebrated works including the bestselling The Story of the Jews and Citizens A Chronicle of the French Revolution Simon Schama's latest book fuses history and art to create a tour de force of narrative sweep and illuminating insight Using images from works paintings photographs lithographs etchings sketches found in London's National Portrait Gallery The Face of Britain weaves together an account of their composition framed by their particular moment of creation and in the process unveils a collective portrait of nation and its history Portraits Schama writes have always been made with an eye to posterity Commissioned to paint Winston Churchill in 1954 Graham Sutherland struggled with how to capture the savior of Great Britain honestly and humanely Schama calls the portrait initially damned the most powerful image of a Great Briton ever executed Annie Leibovitz's photograph of a nude John Lennon kissing Yoko Ono taken five hours before his murder bears a weight of poignancy she could not possibly have anticipated Hans Holbein's preparatory sketch for a portrait of Henry VIII depicts an unstoppable engine of dynastic generation Here are expressions from across the centuries of normalcy and heroism beauty and disfigurement aristocracy and deprivation the familiar and the obscure the faces of courtesans warriors workers activists playwrights the high and mighty as well as pub crawlers Linking them is Schama's vibrant exploration of how their connective power emerges from the dynamic between subject and artist work and viewer time and place Schama's compelling analysis and impassioned evocation of these works create an unforgettable verbal mosaic that at once reveals and transforms the images he places before us Lavishly illustrated and written with the storytelling brio that is Schama's trademark The Face of Britain invites us to look at a nation's visual legacies and find its reflection Catalogue of the Harvard University Fine Arts Library, the Fogg Art Museum Harvard University.
