Cultural Transfers in Dispute Bee Yun, 2011-08-08 Our conception of cultures and cultural change has altered dramatically in recent decades no longer do we understand cultures as isolated units rather we see them as hybrid formations constantly engaged in a multidirectional process of exchange and influence with other cultures Yet the very process by which we represent these cultural transfers is itself subject to cultural political and ideological conditions that affect our understanding acknowledgment and representation of them Built around concrete examples of controversial representations of cultural transfer from Asia the Arab world and Europe Cultural Transfers in Dispute presents a critical self reflection on the scholarly practices that underpin our attempts to study and describe other cultures The British National Film Catalogue ,1982 Films and Video for Arts and Communications Corinne H.
