Portraits Challenge:

Challenge for Change Thomas Waugh, Michael Brendan Baker, Ezra Winton, 2010-02-01 Pioneering participatory social change oriented media the program had a national and international impact on documentary film making yet this is the first comprehensive history and analysis of its work The volume s contributors study dozens of films produced by the program their themes aesthetics and politics and evaluate their legacy and the program s place in Canadian Qu b cois and world cinema An informative and nuanced look at a cinematic movement Challenge for Change reemphasizes not just the importance of the NFB and its programs but also the role documentaries can play in improving the world How to Read

Portraits Kathryn Calley Galitz, 2024-04-29 Portraiture goes far beyond capturing a likeness This intimate genre sheds light on the subjects and makers politics relationships aspirations and insecurities Featuring more than fifty works across time and cultures from the lifelike Faiyum funerary masks of ancient Roman Egypt to Pablo Picasso s and Marsden Hartley s abstractions to likenesses imagined by contemporary artists this publication probes the notion of what constitutes a portrait beyond mere verisimilitude Bestselling author Kathryn Calley Galitz illuminates how artists through the ages have exploited the genre to reveal character and convey power and status how artists as varied as Rembrandt and Cindy Sherman embraced artifice and roleplaying to explore identity and how the term portraiture encompasses a wider variety of works than typically thought This reexamination of a deceptively familiar genre provides fascinating ideas about what these images can tell us about the sitter the artist the culture in which they lived and ourselves

Gauguin's Challenge Norma Broude, 2018-03-08 Several decades have now passed since postcolonial and feminist critiques presented the art historical world with a demythologized Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 a much diminished image of the artist hero who had once been universally admired as the father of modernist primitivism In this volume both long established and more recent Gauguin scholars offer a provocative picture of the evolution of Gauguin scholarship in the recent postmodern era as they confront and consider how the dismantling of the longstanding Gauguin myth positions us now in the 21st century to deal with and assess the life work and legacy of this still perennially popular artist To reassess the challenges that Gauguin faced in his own day as well as those that he continues to present to current and future scholarship they explore the multiple contexts that influenced Gauguin s thought and behavior as well as his art and incorporate a variety of interdisciplinary approaches from anthropology philosophy and the history of science to gender studies and the study of Pacific cultural history Dealing with a wide range of Gauguin s production they challenge conventional art historical thinking highlight transnational perspectives and offer clues to the direction of future scholarship as audiences worldwide seek to make multicultural peace with Gauguin and his art Broude has raised the bar of Gauguin scholarship ever higher in this groundbreaking volume which will be necessary reading for students and scholars of art history late 19th century French and Pacific culture gender studies and beyond Michael Freeman's Photo School: Portrait Michael Freeman, 2013-01-28 At some point all photographers are the screen and from avant garde experiments to mass culture Despite their diversity of object and approach the essays in Relational Designs coalesce around the argument that representations are defined by relations and dynamics rather than intrinsic features This rationale is supported by the discourses and methodologies favoured by the book s contributors their approaches offer a cross section of the intellectual and critical environment of our time The book illustrates the critical possibilities that derive from the broad range of modes of inquiry poststructuralist criticism gender studies postcolonial studies new historicism that the book s four sections bring to bear on a wealth of intermedial practices But Relational Designs compounds such critical emphases with the voice of the practitioner the book is rounded off by an interview in which a contemporary novelist discusses her attraction to the other arts in terms that extend the book s insights and bridge the gap between academic discourse and artistic practice

Cultural Contact and the Making of European Art since the Age of Exploration Mary D. Sheriff, 2010-06-21 Art historians have long been accustomed to thinking about art and artists in terms of national traditions This volume takes a different approach suggesting instead that a history of art based on national divisions often obscures the processes of cultural appropriation and global exchange that shaped the visual arts of Europe in fundamental ways between 1492 and the early twentieth century Essays here analyze distinct zones of contact between various European states between Asia and Europe or between Europe and so called primitive cultures in Africa the Americas and the South Pacific focusing mainly but not exclusively on painting drawing or the decorative arts Each case foregrounds the centrality of international borrowings or colonial appropriations and counters conceptions of European art as a pure tradition uninfluenced by the artistic forms of other cultures The contributors analyze the social cultural commercial and political conditions of cultural contact including tourism colonialism religious pilgrimage trade missions and scientific voyages that enabled these exchanges well before the modern age of globalization Contributors Claire Farago University of Colorado at Boulder Elisabeth A Fraser University of South Florida Julie Hochstrasser University of Iowa Christopher Johns Vanderbilt University Carol Mavor University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Mary D Sheriff University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Lyneise E Williams University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Painting in Italy, 1500-1600 Sydney Joseph Freedberg, 1993-01-01 Art declared Vasari in Lives of the Artists has been reborn and reached perfection in our time Indeed the roster of great names in painting of the Cinquecento which only begins with those of Leonardo Michelangelo and Raphael appears to justify this grand claim Professor Freedberg here discusses the individual painters and analyses the hallmarks of their work He traces the classical style of the High Renaissance the Mannerism that succeeded it and the events in North Italy especially that resist stylistic categories He has given order to this diversity but at the same time has preserved the intense individuality of the works of art

Frida Kahlo: The Artistic Rebel Nicky Huys, 2023-12-09 Frida Kahlo The Artistic Rebel delves into the life and work of the iconic Mexican artist known for her striking self portraits and bold surrealist style Through vivid descriptions and insightful analysis this book explores Kahlo s tumultuous personal life her unapologetic embrace of her physical and emotional pain and the profound influence of Mexican culture on her art From her passionate relationship with fellow artist Diego Rivera to her unyielding political activism this book offers a comprehensive look at Kahlo's enduring legacy as a feminist icon and a trailblazing artistic rebel With a deep appreciation for Kahlo's unique vision and uncompromising spirit this book celebrates the enduring power of her art to inspire and provoke Portrait and Place Giulia Paoletti, 2024-03-05 A richly illustrated history of photography in one of the epicenters of African modernity When the daguerreotype first arrived in sub-Saharan Africa in the early nineteenth century local kingdoms still held power in Senegal and the French presence was limited to trading outposts along the coast The pioneers of photography in Senegal worked within across and beyond the borders of colonial empire expanding the medium's possibilities and contributing to a global visual language Portrait and Place explores these unique encounters providing an in-depth and nuanced look at the images made at the intersection of Black Atlantic Islamic and African cultures Giulia Paoletti takes readers on a visual journey from the 1840s when the oldest surviving daguerreotype from West Africa was made to the 1960s when photography became the most popular medium as Senegal achieved its independence She discusses some of Africa's most celebrated modernists such as Mama Casset and also offers insights into lesser-known photographers like Oumar Ka and once anonymous figures such as Macky Kane Paoletti examines both professional and amateur artists in genres ranging from portraiture to landscape and across media such as glass painting and lithography Featuring a wealth of breathtaking images published here for the first time Portrait and Place brings to life the important histories of photography on the African continent
