For Entertainment Purposes Only? Reba L. Chaisson, 2000-01-01 Film has had a contentious and important relationship with the cultural signification of racial identity Eminent thinkers such as bell hooks and Cornel West have opened up new and important avenues of debate on the subject however Chaisson argues that they are mostly focused on the pedagogical effect of film on our conception of racial identity As an important adjunct to this lens of cultural criticism Chaisson brings together the voices of minority filmmakers and executives from major studios who are engaged in the industry on a daily level For Entertainment Purposes Only makes a significant contribution to the literature on this subject by moving the discussion away from the ways in which cultural representations act as sources of knowledge to an examination of the role of power and mediation in the production of cultural representation

World Literature and Its Place in General Culture Richard Green Moulton, 1911 Facing Each Other (2 Volumes) Anthony Pagden, 2017-09-08 The perception of Europeans of the world and of the peoples beyond Europe has become in recent years the subject of intense scholarly interest and heated debate both in and outside the academy So too has the concern with how it was that those peoples who were variously discovered and then as often as not colonised understood the strangers in their midst This volume attempts to cover both these topics as well as to provide a number of crucial articles on the difficulties faced by modern historians in understanding the complex relationship between them and us Inevitably such relationships not only changed over time they also varied greatly from culture to culture The articles therefore cover most of the areas with which the European world came into contact from the earliest Portuguese incursions into Africa in the mid fifteenth century until the explorations of Cook and Bougainville in the Pacific in the late eighteenth It ranges too from Brazil to Russia from Tahiti to China United States Educational, Scientific and Cultural Motion Pictures and Filmstrips Suitable and Available for Use Abroad U.S. National Commission for UNESCO.
