Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service , Poetics of the Literary Self-Portrait Michel Beaujour,1992-10-01 A serious and independent contribution to the literature of autobiography John SturrockFrench StudiesClearly a landmark study It seems certain to provoke a great deal of productive debate among those concerned with any of the many issues it raises Comparative Literature The literary self portrait often considered to be an ill formed autobiography is receiving more attention as a result of the current obsession with personal narrative but little progress has been made toward an understanding of its specific features With Poetics of the Literary Self Portrait Michel Beaujour reveals the hidden ambitions of this genre From St Augustine to Montaigne from Nietzsche to Malraux Leiris and Barthes individual self portraits are analyzed jointly with the enduring cultural matrix from which self portrayal derives its disconcerting non narrative structure and many of its recurrent topics Monthly Bulletin of Books Added to the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1905 Contemporary German-Chinese Cultures in Dialogue Haina Jin,Anna Stecher,Rebecca Ehrenwirth,2023-05-16 This book provides a unique perspective on contemporary German and Chinese cultural encounters Moving away from highlighting exchanges between the two countries in terms of colonial connections religious influences and philosophical impacts the book instead focuses on the vast array of modern cultural dialogues that have influenced both countries especially in literature theatre and film The book discusses issues of translation adaptation and reception to reveal a unique cultural relationship The editors and contributors examine the existing programs and strategies for cultural interchange and analyse how these shape or have shaped intercultural dialogue and what kind of intercultural exchange is encouraged This book is of interest to students and researchers of film and media studies Sinophone studies transnational studies cultural studies and social and cultural anthropology Gentile Bellini's Portrait of Sultan Mehmed II Elizabeth Rodini,2020-08-20 In 1479 the Venetian painter Gentile Bellini arrived at the Ottoman court in Istanbul where he produced his celebrated portrait of Sultan Mehmed II An important moment of cultural diplomacy this was the first of many intriguing episodes in the picture s history Elizabeth Rodini traces Gentile s portrait from Mehmed s court to the Venetian lagoon from the railway stations of war torn Europe to the walls of London s National Gallery exploring its life as a painting and its afterlife as a famous often puzzling image Rediscovered by the archaeologist Austen Henry Layard at the height of Orientalist outlooks in Britain the picture was also the subject of a lawsuit over what defines a portrait it was claimed by Italians seeking to hold onto national patrimony around 1900 and it starred in a solo exhibition in Istanbul in 1999 Rodini s focused inquiry also ranges broadly considering the nature of historical evidence the shifting status of authenticity and verisimilitude and the contemporary political resonance of Old Master paintings Told as an object biography and imagined as an exploration of art historical methodologies this book situates Gentile's portrait in evolving dialogues between East and West uncovering the many and varied ways that objects construct meaning

The Modern Portrait Poem Frances Dickey, 2012-06-29 In The Modern Portrait Poem Frances Dickey recovers the portrait as a poetic genre from the 1860s through the 1920s Combining literary and art history she examines the ways Dante Gabriel Rossetti Algernon Swinburne and J M Whistler transformed the genre of portraiture in both painting and poetry She then shows how their new ways of looking at and thinking about the portrait subject migrated across the Atlantic to influence Ezra Pound T S Eliot William Carlos Williams Amy Lowell E E Cummings and other poets These poets creatively exposed the Victorian portrait to new influences ranging from Manet's realism to modern dance Futurism and American avant garde art They also condensed expanded and combined the genre with other literary modes including epitaph pastoral and Bildungsroman Dickey challenges the tendency to view Modernism as a break with the past and as a transition from aural to visual orientation She argues that the Victorian poets and painters inspired the new generation of Modernists to test their vision of Aestheticism against their perception of modernity and the relationship between image and text In bridging historical periods national boundaries and disciplinary distinctions Dickey makes a case for the continuity of this genre over the Victorian Modernist divide and from Britain to the United States in a time of rapid change in the arts

Encyclopedic Dictionary of Semiotics, Media, and Communication Marcel Danesi, 2000-08-01 Semiotics Media Studies and Communication Studies are three closely interlinked fields Briefly stated Semiotics the science of signs looks at how humans search for and construct meaning Communication Studies is concerned with how meaning is conveyed and Media Studies considers the ways in which messages are transmitted and received This dictionary is designed to help students and general readers unlock the significance of the terminology and jargon commonly used in these fields Being interdisciplinary in nature Semiotics Media and Communication Studies are cluttered with notions derived from other disciplines Hence this dictionary also encompasses basic concepts from the fields of anthropology archaeology psychology psychoanalysis linguistics philosophy artificial intelligence computer science and biology Collected here are the terms concepts personages schools of thought and historical movements that appear frequently in the relevant literature The basis of each entry is a simple definition which often includes the term's origin Illustrations are provided where necessary along with historical sketches of movements or schools of thought The commentary on personages consists of brief statements about their contribution and relevance Thus the dictionary not only defines what a term means but often goes into its history applications and broad implications Terms are cross referenced and their etymology is given where possible This is a compact practical research manual that will relieve much tension for students in semiotics and related fields Because of its interdisciplinary approach it will also provide a range of scholars with a handy reference to disciplines distinct from but related to their own
