Rhymers Club Poets Of The Tragic Generation:

The Rhymers' Club Norman Alford, 1994 The Rhymers' Club Norman Alford, 1980 The Rhymers' Club W B Yeats | Ernest Dowson | Richard Le Gallienne, W B Yeats, Ernest Dowson, 2020-06-18

In 1890 W B Yeats and Ernest Rhys founded a poetry club Based mainly at Fleet Street s immortal Ye Olde Cheshire Cheese pub with occasional appearances at the Domino room in the Caf Royal poets gathered together to dine and drink Whilst it was based on a core of poets many others attended on an ad hoc basis including Oscar Wilde Francis Thompson Lord Alfred Douglas The camaraderie banter and poetry that played out in their dreams ambitions and for many their difficult lives led Yeats to call them the tragic generation As well as their enthusiastic social forays they printed two anthologies of verse The first in 1892 and the second in 1894 For all the talent it could call upon the print runs were only in their hundreds Part of a poet s obligation is to move the boundaries of society to write what others shun And whilst that is certainly the case with our group in terms of writing in one glaring respect they were very Victorian The members of the club were only men Arthur Ransome sums up their existence as the Rhymer s Club used to meet to drink from tankards smoke clay pipes and recite their own poetry Whilst their initial aims were food drink camaraderie and bragging the reality is that their poetry gives us so much more The Fin-de-siècle Poem Joseph Bristow, 2005

Featuring innovative research by emergent and established scholars The Fin de Siecle Poem throws new light on the remarkable diversity of poetry produced at the close of the nineteenth century in England Opening with a detailed preface that shows why literary historians have frequently underrated fin de siecle poetry the collection explains how a strikingly rich body of lyrical and narrative poems anticipated many of the developments traditionally attributed to Modernism Each chapter in turn provides insights into the ways in which late nineteenth century poets represented their experiences of the city their attitudes toward sexuality their responses to empire and their interest in religious belief The eleven essays presented by editor Joseph Bristow pay renewed attention to the achievements of such legendary writers as Oscar Wilde John Davidson Ernest Dowson Lionel Johnson and W B Yeats whose careers have always been associated with the 1890s This book also explores the lesser known but equally significant advances made by notable women poets including Michael Field Amy Levy Charlotte Mew Alice Meynell A Mary F Robinson and Graham R Tomson The Fin de Siecle Poem brings together innovative research on poetry that has been typecast as the attenuated Victorianism that was rejected by Modernism The contributors underscore the remarkable innovations made in English poetry of the 1880s and 1890s and show how woman poets stood shoulder to shoulder with their better known male contemporaries Joseph Bristow is professor of English at the University of California Los Angeles where he edits the journal Nineteenth Century Literature His recent books include The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Poetry Oscar Wilde Contextual Conditions and the variorum edition of Oscar Wilde s The Picture of Dorian Gray Extraordinary Aesthetes Joseph Bristow, 2023-04-14

The fin de si cle not only designated the end of the Victorian epoch but also marked a significant turn towards modernism Extraordinary

Aesthetes critically examines literary and visual artists from England Ireland and Scotland whose careers in poetry fiction and illustration flourished during the concluding years of the nineteenth century This collection draws special attention to the exceptional contributions that artists poets and novelists made to the cultural world of the late 1880s and 1890s The essays illuminate a range of established increasingly acknowledged and lesser known figures whose contributions to this brief but remarkably intense cultural period warrant close attention Such figures include the critically neglected Mabel Dearmer whose stunning illustrations appear in Evelyn Sharp's radical fairy tales for children Equally noteworthy is the uncompromising short fiction of Ella D Arcy who played a pivotal role in editing the most famous journal of the 1890s The Yellow Book The discussion extends to a range of legendary writers including Max Beerbohm Oscar Wilde and W B Yeats whose works are placed in dialogue with authors who gained prominence during this period Bringing women's writing to the fore Extraordinary Aesthetes rebalances the achievements of artists and writers during the rapidly transforming cultural world of the fin de siècle

The Rhymers' Club Bruce Gardiner,1988 Women Poets and Urban Aestheticism A. Vadillo,2005-09-08 This book re-examines cultural social geographical and philosophical representations of Victorian London by looking at the transformations in urban life produced by the rise and development of urban mass transport It also radically re-addresses the questions of epistemology and gender in the Victorian metropolis by mapping the epistemology of the passenger Vadillo focuses on the lyric urban writings of Amy Levy Alice Meynell Graham R Tomson Rosamund Marriott Watson and Michael Field Katherine Bradley and Edith Cooper Shortlisted for the ESSE Book Prize

The Oxford Handbook of W. B. Yeats Lauren Arrington,Matthew Campbell,2023 A Handbook devoted to the poet W B Yeats 1865 1939 that examines how his work as a poet playwright critic and public figure in the late 19th through the mid 20th century continues to influence writing in English Irish and worldwide Anglophone literatures

The Poetry of Derek Mahon Hugh Haughton,2010-10-21 Derek Mahon is one of the leading poets of his time both in Ireland and beyond famously offering a perspective that is displaced from as much as grounded in his native country From prodigious beginnings to prolific maturity he has been through thick and thin through troubled times and other a writer profoundly committed to the art of poetry and the craft of making verse He has also been no less a committed reviser of his work believing the poem to be more than a record in verse but a work of art never finished This virtuoso study by Hugh Haughton provides the most comprehensive account imaginable of Mahon's oeuvre Haughton's brilliant writing always serves and illuminates the poetry yielding extraordinary insights on almost every page The poetry its revisions and reception are the subject here but so thorough is the approach that what is offered also amounts indirectly to an intellectual biography of the poet and with it an account of Northern Irish poetry vital to our understanding of the times

Masking the Text Nicholas Frankel,2009

Pre-Raphaelites Re-viewed Marcia R. Pointon,1989 The Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood formed in 1848 by the young Millais Holman Hunt and Rossetti has long been recognised as a high point in Victorian artistic production But whilst we know much of the private lives of Pre Raphaelite artists and writers and their best known paintings are very familiar their work and particularly their visual imagery has attracted limited attention from art historians and critical theorists This collection redresses the situation with a series of detailed critical and historical studies of individual issues and productions artistic and literary relative to Pre Raphaelitism Using rigorous new critical analysis the book throws new light on the ways in which the Pre Raphaelites addressed philosophical religious political and social questions It will be essential reading for all students of Victorian art literature and ideas Back cover James Joyce in Context John McCourt, 2009-02-12 This collection charts the vital contextual backgrounds to James Joyce's life and writing The essays collectively show how Joyce was rooted in his times how he is both a product and a critic of his multiple contexts and how important he remains to the world of literature criticism and culture

Pater to Forster, 1873-1924 Ruth Robbins, 2017-03-08 Was the late nineteenth century Victorian or modern Why did the New Woman disappear from literary history Where did T S Eliot's poetics of the city come from In this essential guide Ruth Robbins explores an era often named an age of transition which exists uneasily between the apparent certainties of the Victorians and the advent of a Modernist aesthetics of instability Robbins considers some of the central literary categories and themes of the period decadence realism nostalgia New Woman writing degeneration imperialism and early modernism in writings by both major and minor writers thereby creating a complex picture of transitions continuities and breaks with the past By examining this tumultuous era as an age in its own right Pater to Forster 1873 1924 offers the reader a rather different history of the late Victorians and Modernists and retells that history from a new perspective

Spectrum of Decadence (Routledge Revivals) Murray Pittock, 2014-08-01 The 1890s the Naughty Nineties was an exciting and flamboyant time in British life and literature First published in 1993 this title traces the genesis of the literary culture of the 1890s through some of the popular novels and literary texts of the period By examining works by such writers as Oscar Wilde Bram Stoker W B Yeats and Walter Pater Murray Pittock analyses the nature of the Decadent era and the artistic theories of Symbolism and Aestheticism Significantly he provides a full assessment of the lasting impact that the thought of the period has had on our own understanding of our cultural past Spectrum of Decadence explores the confrontations between art and science sex and mortality desire and virtue which the author argues are as much a part of modern society's fin de siècle as they were of the nineteenth century's This reissue bridges the gap between literary texts historical context and contemporary critical theory Modernism, Space and the City Andrew Thacker, 2019-01-22 This innovative text examines the development of modernist writing in four European cities London Paris Berlin and Vienna

Translating Culture Issac Yu (俞白), 2015-05-25 The idea of translation is traditionally understood as a binary phenomenon a process which reinterprets and re-presents an original text in one language for a different audience in another language The aim of Translating Culture: Late Victorian Literature into Chinese is to look at how the notion of culture convolutes this predominantly language-based practice and considers its implication on a text's untranslatability By focusing on literature of the late Victorian period grouping them into different themes and genres and considering the way these texts have been translated into Chinese an argument will be made that the idea of culture and the practice of translation are much more closely correlated than has been commonly assumed In doing so this book contributes to recent scholarship on translatology and cultural studies by examining the exactitude to which the process of translation must account for the concept of culture as well as with how the former could help enhance our understanding of the latter Arthur Symonds, Critic Among Critics Jay Fox, Carol Simpson Stern, Robert S. Means, 2007 Southern Review, 1985 A Companion to Victorian Poetry Ciaran Cronin, 2008-04-15 This Companion brings together specially commissioned essays by distinguished international scholars that reflect both the diversity of Victorian poetry and the variety of critical approaches that illuminate it Approaches Victorian poetry by way of genre production and cultural context rather than through individual poets or poems Demonstrates how a particular poet or poem emerges from a number of overlapping cultural contexts Explores the relationships between work by different poets Recalls attention to a considerable body of poetry that has fallen into neglect Essays are informed by recent developments in textual and cultural theory Considers Victorian women poets in every chapter
