Securing The Harvest Biotechnology Breeding And Seed Systems For African Crops:

Securing the Harvest Joseph DeVries, Gary H. Toenniessen, 2001 Improved food security led by increased productivity among Africa's many small scale farmers has been the aim of significant national and international effort in recent decades. It has proved to be one of the most critical challenges facing humankind. This book grew out of a two year exploration conducted by the food security theme of The Rockefeller Foundation focusing on the potential for crop genetic improvement to contribute to food security among rural populations in Africa. It provides a critical assessment of the ways in which recent breakthroughs in biotechnology, participatory plant breeding and seed systems can be broadly employed in developing and delivering more productive crop varieties in Africa's diverse agricultural environments. It also presents an analysis of current plant breeding and biotechnology strategies for the key crops in Africa including maize, sorghum, cowpea, rice and cassava. The book will appeal to plant breeders, biotechnologists and seed distributors as well as policy makers in the area of agricultural development.

Seed Provision and Dryland Crops in the Semiarid Regions of Eastern Kenya Latha Nagarajan, Patrick Audi, Richard Jones, and Melinda Smale, Objective Seed Science and Technology 2nd Ed. K. Vanangamudi, S. Kavitha, K. Raja, 2020-05-20 Objective Seed Science and Technology is prepared based on the ICAR UG syllabus of Seed Science and Technology. This book is the compilation of Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) in Seed Science and Technology which will be highly useful in writing competitive examinations like ASRB, NET, JRF, SRF, Ph.D. entrance, Bank, UPSC, Agricultural, Horticultural and Seed Certification Officers. The 2nd revised Edition comprises two sections namely 1. Seed Science and Technology Principles and Practices and 2. Advances in Seed Physiology and Biochemistry. The section 1 consists of eight units such as floral and seed biology, seed production including breeding methods, seed processing, seed quality control, seed storage, seed health, seed industry and marketing and protection of plant varieties including DUS. The section 2 consists of three units namely seed development and maturation, seed dormancy and germination and seed deterioration. Each chapter includes Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs), fill in the blanks, true or false, match the following, answer the incorrect statement, arrange in order and differentiate between the following. Abbreviations, National and International journals and books, International STLs, Seed Scientists and their inventions and glossaries are also compiled and presented in this book.

Climate Change and Multi-Dimensional Sustainability in African Agriculture Rattan Lal, David Kraybill, David O. Hansen, Bal Ram Singh, Theodosy Mosogoya, Lars Olav Eik, 2016-11-23 This 35 chapter book is based on several oral and poster presentations including both invited and contributory chapters. The book is thematically based on four pillars of sustainability with focus on sub-Saharan Africa: SSA Environment, Economic, Social and Institutional. The environmental sustainability which determines economic and social institutional sustainability refers to the rate of use of natural resources: soil, water, landscape, vegetation which can be continued indefinitely without degrading their quality, productivity and ecosystem services for different ecoregions of SSA. This book will help achieve the Sustainable Development Goals of the U.N.

in SSA Therefore the book is of interest to agriculturalists economists social scientists policy makers extension agents and development bilateral organizations Basic principles explained in the book can be pertinent to all development organizations

Breeding Major Food Staples Manjit Kang,P. M. Priyadarshan,2008-04-15 As the world s population increases the need to produce greater quantities of major staple crops such as wheat rice maize potato cassava soybean sweet potato barley and banana in order to sufficiently feed the people of the world continues to grow Breeding Major Food Staples covers improving yields and quality of these crops through breeding and the use of molecular biology tools such as gene transfer genome mapping biofortification and bioinformatics This book will be an important reference for anyone working in crop breeding

Virus and Virus-like Diseases of Major Crops in Developing Countries Gad Loebenstein,George Thottappilly,2013-12-18 It appears that a comprehensive and up to date book on the impact of virus diseases on the major crops in developing countries is now much needed especially as there have been rapid advances in the biological and molecular characterization and detection of the pathogens and possible approaches for their control On the other hand the economic losses caused by many of these diseases are tremendous and much of the accumulated knowledge to diminish the crop losses has not filtered through or cannot be applied This book is focused on the important crops Each chapter on a specific crop will include inter alia geographical distribution the viruses symptoms damage detection a brief description of the viruses concerned and present and future ways for their control Experts from India Nigeria UK USA France Germany Peru Japan Australia Netherlands Venezuela Kazakhstan and Israel many of them from the International Research Institutions have contributed chapters to this book

The New Famines Stephen Devereux,2006-11-22 The recent occurrences of famine in Ethiopia and Southern Africa have propelled this key issue back into the public arena for the first time since 1984 as once again it becomes a priority not only for lesser developed countries but also for the international community Exploring the paradox that is the persistence of famine in the contemporary world this book looks at the way the nature of famine is changing in the face of globalization and shifting geo political forces The book challenges perceived wisdom about the causes of famine and analyzes the worst cases of recent years including close analysis of food scarcity in North Korea Ethiopia Sudan and Malawi and less well known cases in Madagascar Iraq and Bosnia With fresh conceptual frameworks and analytical tools major theoretical constructs which have previously been applied to analyze famines such as the democracy ends famine argument Sen s entitlement approach and the complex political emergency framework are confronted This volume assembles an international team of contributors including Marcus Noland Alex de Waal and Dan Maxwell an impressive roster which helps make this book an important resource for those in the fields of development studies and political economics

Seed Value Chains for Sorghum and Millet in Mali: A State-Based System in Transition Lamissa Diakit , Amadou Sidib , Melinda Smale, and Mikkel Grum, The Potato Crop Hugo Campos,Oscar Ortiz,2019-12-03 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license This book provides a fresh updated and science based

perspective on the current status and prospects of the diverse array of topics related to the potato and was written by distinguished scientists with hands on global experience in research aspects related to potato The potato is the third most important global food crop in terms of consumption Being the only vegetatively propagated species among the world s main five staple crops creates both issues and opportunities for the potato on the one hand this constrains the speed of its geographic expansion and its options for international commercialization and distribution when compared with commodity crops such as maize wheat or rice On the other it provides an effective insulation against speculation and unforeseen spikes in commodity prices since the potato does not represent a good traded on global markets These two factors highlight the underappreciated and underrated role of the potato as a dependable nutrition security crop one that can mitigate turmoil in world food supply and demand and political instability in some developing countries Increasingly the global role of the potato has expanded from a profitable crop in developing countries to a crop providing income and nutrition security in developing ones This book will appeal to academics and students of crop sciences but also policy makers and other stakeholders involved in the potato and its contribution to humankind s food security

Environmental Impact of Genetically Modified Crops

Natalie Ferry, A. M. R. Gatehouse, 2009 The genetic modification of crops continues to be the subject of intense debate and opinions are often strongly polarised Environmental Impact of Genetically Modified Crops addresses the major concerns of scientists policy makers environmental lobby groups and the general public regarding this controversial issue from an editorially neutral standpoint Included is a chapter by Bruce Tabashnik on the recent discovery of the first documented case of field evolved resistance to a crop genetically modified to carry the gene for the Bacillus thuringiensis toxin While the main focus is on environmental impact food safety issues for both humans and animals are also considered The book concludes with a discussion on the future of agricultural biotechnology in the context of sustainability natural resource management and future global population and food supply
