Commercial Law Aspects of Residential Mortgage Securitisation in Australia Pelma Rajapakse,Shanuka Senarath,2019-04-11 This book evaluates key commercial law aspects of the relevant law and legislation governing residential mortgage backed securities RMBSs in Australia from a legal perspective Within the context of a public benefit test framework the book seeks to critically evaluate the impact and effectiveness of current law and regulation governing RMBSs There is a dearth of both academic and practical literature on the legal and regulatory issues surrounding RMBSs in Australia The book aims to make a contribution to the formulation of law and public policy by suggesting a number of reforms to the current law and practice surrounding RMBSs in Australia In part these suggested reforms will be based on the lessons learned from the experiences of overseas jurisdictions such as Canada the U K and the United States

Securitization Law and Practice Jan Job de Vries Robbé, 2008-01-01 Securitization once a fairly straightforward means of offering collateral for investment has mushroomed into a massively complex area of financial practice The central role occupied by such risk distributing products as collateral debt obligations CDOs credit default swaps CDSs collateral loan obligations CLOs and credit derivatives has given rise to one of the most crucial inquiries of our era Is the financial collapse that threatens the world financial system due merely to rogue traders Or is there something in the derivative idea itself that spells inevitable disaster Most important can we isolate the truly productive aspects of securitization and learn to recognise pitfalls in advance As always in such ideational minefields it is the legal practitioners who are expected to provide guidance to distressed investors and asset dealers Hence this vital new book Written from a distinctly practical point of view by Jan Job de Vries Robb with contributions from Paul Ali and Tim Coyne all three leading authorities with extensive experience as counsel both in house and in private practice in addition to sterling academic credentials the book sheds clear light on every aspect of today s securitization techniques including welcome guidance on the following keeping track of exposure to the CDO market and evaluating such emerging asset classes as commodity risk microfinance and project finance risk In the course of the analysis the book proceeds from the relevant framework and guiding legal principles through key risks and building blocks in securitization transactions to the various product classes and sub classes and their differences and common denominators Non credit risk and niche products such as fund and insurance securitization are also covered The final chapters are devoted to the applicable rules as laid down in Basel II and International Financial Reporting Standards
