Globalization and the Seduction of Africa's Ruling Class K. Martial Frindéthié, 2014-01-10 Assessing development thinking from a multidisciplinary perspective this work argues that Africa is undeveloped not in spite of globalization but precisely because of globalization's saintly mission of unbridled liberalization and Euro American teleology which has reduced the African governing class to a body of abandonment neurotics co-conspirators in the First World's human and economic genocides The work suggests subsequently that provided Africans remain impervious to the anti-Asian agitation which is sweeping the Euro American world today they have invaluable lessons in standpoint development to learn from India's and China's experiences with liberalism as well as constructive alliances to establish with these emerging transitional nations

Semiotics and Visual Communication II Evripides Zantides, 2018-04-18 The chapters in this book consist of selected papers that were presented at the 2nd International Conference and Poster Exhibition on Semiotics and Visual Communication at the Cyprus University of Technology in October 2015 They investigate the theme of the Conference Culture of Seduction the seduction of culture and look at Seduction as in deception not sexual enticement but as a mechanism of attraction and appeal which has often been the case in many communication strategies and approaches used by mass and popular culture Seduction has historic and increasing agency in visual communication the urgency to entice viewers is ever more powerful in difficult economic times in an increasingly hyper-real world and designers are led to become exceedingly complicit in its strategies The contributions here cover a range of approaches from theoretical aspects of seduction in verbal and nonverbal communication public spaces design and meaning seductive strategies and advertising design as well as fashion representations and packaging design

Loot Sharon Waxman, 2003-01-18 A journey across four continents to the heart of the conflict over who should own the great works of ancient art Why are the Elgin Marbles in London and not on the Acropolis Why do there seem to be as many mummies in France as there are in Egypt Why are so many Etruscan masterworks in America For the past two centuries the West has been plundering the treasures of the ancient world to fill its great museums but in recent years the countries where ancient civilizations originated have begun to push back taking museums to court prosecuting curators and threatening to force the return of these priceless objects Where do these treasures rightly belong Sharon Waxman a former culture reporter for The New York Times and a longtime foreign correspondent brings us inside this high stakes conflict examining the implications for the preservation of the objects themselves and for how we understand our shared cultural heritage Her journey takes readers from the great cities of Europe and America to Egypt Turkey Greece and Italy as these countries face down the Louvre the Metropolitan Museum the British Museum and the J Paul Getty Museum She also introduces a cast of determined and implacable characters whose battles may strip these museums of some of their most cherished treasures For readers who are fascinated by antiquity who love to frequent museums and who believe in the value of cultural exchange Loot opens a new window on an enduring conflict
