A Souvenir Book Jeffrey Hirsch, 1998 Seeing the Getty Center Getty Center for Education in the Arts, Getty Center (Los Angeles, Calif.), 1998 American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse J. Donald Ragsdale, 2009-01-14 In American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse Professor Ragsdale assesses American museums as means of visual persuasion He demonstrates that museums their contents and their manners of display are as capable of influencing visitors as speeches or advertisements and that an awareness of their social influence provides an insight into the cultural roles of museums The book considers a diverse array of museums ranging from such national cultural icons as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Art Institute to such city museums as the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Los Angeles Country Museum of Art and includes separate chapters on museums devoted to modern and contemporary art and to the specialized collections of individual connoisseurs In addition to these primarily art museums Professor Ragsdale assesses museums devoted to collections such as the National Air and Space Museum and to commemoration and remembrance such as the National World War II Museum and the US Holocaust Memorial Museum American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse makes an important contribution to the theory of persuasion and to visual communication art history and museology It utilizes a theory of visual signs based on the semiotic theory of C S Peirce In so doing it demonstrates that museum buildings the art and other objects contained within them and the spaces used for display may all be thought of in terms of means of social influence The J. Paul Getty Museum Journal The J. Paul Getty Museum, 1994-03-24 The J Paul Getty Museum Journal has been published annually since 1974 It contains scholarly articles and shorter notes pertaining to objects in the Museum s seven curatorial departments Antiquities Manuscripts Paintings Drawings Decorative Arts Sculpture and Works of Art and Photographs The Journal includes an illustrated checklist of the Museum s acquisitions for the previous year a staff listing and a statement by the Museum s director outlining the year s most important activities Volume 21 of the J Paul Getty Museum Journal includes articles by John Walsh Barbara C Anderson Ariel Herrmann Jill Finsten Lynn F Jacobs And Peter J Holliday Slaves and Other Objects Page duBois, 2008-03-15 Page duBois a classicist known for her daring and originality turns in this new book to one of the most troubling subjects in the study of antiquity the indispensability of slaves in ancient Greece DuBois argues that every object and text in the world of ancient Greece bears the marks of slavery and the need to reiterate the distinction between slave and free And yet the ubiquity of slaves in ancient societies has been overlooked by scholars who idealize antiquity misconstrued by those who view slavery through the lens of race and obscured by the split between historical and philological approaches to the classics DuBois begins her study by exploring the material culture of slavery including how most museum exhibits erase the presence of slaves in the classical world Shifting her focus to literature she considers the place of slaves in Plato's Meno Aristotle's Politics Aesop's Fables Aristophanes Wasps and Euripides Orestes She contends throughout that portraying the difference between slave and free as natural was pivotal to Greek concepts of selfhood and political freedom and that scholars who idealize such concepts too often fail to recognize the role that slavery played in their articulation Opening new lines of inquiry into ancient culture Slaves and Other Objects will enlighten classicists and historians alike

European Glass in the J. Paul Getty Museum Catherine Hess, Timothy Husband, 1998-02-19 The Getty Museum's collection of postclassical European glass represents a well defined chapter within the history of the medium These objects which range in date from the late Middle Ages to the late seventeenth century originated in important Italian German Bohemian Netherlandish Silesian and Austrian centers of production The sixty eight pieces presented in this catalogue include vessels made to resemble rock crystal or chalcedony glass blown into unusually large or remarkably refined shapes and glass decorated with ornament that is intricately applied elegantly enameled or gilded Each object is described in detail including provenance bibliography and relevant comparative examples An introductory essay traces the history of European glass from classical times to the present
