phenomenologists like Husserl and Sartre and continues to shape debates in the philosophy of mind Brentano made intentionality a central topic in the philosophy of mind by proposing that directedness is the distinctive feature of the mental The first part of the book investigates Brentano's intentionalism as well as attempts to improve or develop it Textor argues that there is no plausible version of this doctrine and rejects it in favour of a mark of the mental proposed by Brentano's student Husserl mental phenomena have no appearances The second part of the book develops and defends Brentano's view about the structure of perceptual awareness Awareness of a mental activity and this mental activity are not distinct mental acts the first representing the second They are one and the same activity that has several objects Textor shows that Brentano held that intentionality is plural directedness is directedness on some objects and shows how the plural conception solves thorny problems The third part of the book is devoted to Brentano's view of pleasure and pain Textor draws out parallels between enjoying an activity and awareness of it and argues that enjoying an activity and the activity enjoyed are not distinct The final part of the book extends the plural view to the conscious mental life of a thinker at a time the unity of synchronic consciousness it is one mental act with many objects

Love @ First Sight Arun Arora, 2012-05 Every love story has a childhood in it We all have fallen in love during our adolescent years That tender love sometimes vanishes as we grow older into the realities of this practical world and sometimes grows along with us inside our hearts rooted deep within our thoughts growing into a much stronger bond with each passing moment This is the story of one such beautiful love bond that sprouted when a young boy of 13 years of age saw the most beautiful face of his life Love First Sight recounts how the attraction felt by this young boy went on to grow into the deepest of feelings of love selflessness and dedication The boy knew from all his heart that he was in love with the girl and desired her throughout his school life But he couldn't tell her anything as he couldn't find ways to express his feelings He couldn't talk to her during the whole five years of their schooling together it's another thing that she was his classmate The love remained one-sided at least the boy thought it to be so Love has the power to change How love brought in the most amazing and rewarding changes in his life to make it a positively better one to live is something you will love too So go on and enjoy what love can do to your life to your living to you Happy Living Happy Loving
