Seven Doors To Islam Spirituality The Religious Life Of Muslims:

Seven Doors to Islam John Renard, 1996-07-17 A comprehensive tour of the exuberant landscape of Muslim religious life past and present With an impressive array of textual and visual works Renard's kaleidoscopic survey sounds the death toll to the longstanding misconception that Islam is a dry and mechanistic religion devoid of spirituality This is the best introductory book on Islam currently available Ahmet T Karamustafa Washington University Comprehensive and accessible this book is a richly textured and wide ranging introduction to Islamic spirituality and a refreshing change from the obsession with current politics that characterizes most approaches of Islam Carl W Ernst University of North Carolina Chapel Hill Seven Doors to Islam John Renard, 2023-11-15 Seven Doors to Islam reveals the religious worldview and spiritual tradition of the world's one billion Muslims Spanning the breadth of Islamic civilization from Morocco to Indonesia this book demonstrates how Muslims have used the literary and visual arts in all their richness and diversity to communicate religious values Each of the seven chapters opens a door that leads progressively closer to the very heart of Islam from the foundational revelation in the Qur'an to the transcendent experience of the Sufi mystics However unlike most studies of Islam which see spirituality as the concern of a minority of mystical seekers Seven Doors demonstrates its central role in every aspect of the Islamic tradition Seven Doors to Islam reveals the religious worldview and spiritual tradition of the world's one billion Muslims Spanning the breadth of Islamic civilization from Morocco to Indonesia this book demonstrates how Muslims have used the literary and v

Christian Martyrdom and Political Violence Rubén Rosario Rodríguez, 2017-07-13 In recent years martyrdom and political violence have been conflated in the public imagination Rubén Rosario Rodríguez argues that martyr narratives deserve consideration as resources for resisting political violence in contemporary theological reflection Underlying the three Abrahamic monotheistic traditions is a shared belief that God requires liberation for the oppressed justice for the victims and most demanding of all love for the political enemy Christian Jewish and Muslim martyr narratives that condone political violence whether terrorist or state sponsored are examined alongside each religion's canon in order to evaluate how central or marginalized these discourses are within their respective traditions Primarily a work of Christian theology in conversation with Judaism and Islam this book aims to model religious pluralism and cooperation by retrieving distinctly Christian sources that nurture tolerance and facilitate coexistence while respecting religious difference Becoming Muslim in Imperial Russia Agnès Nilüfer Kefeli, 2014-12-18 In the nineteenth century the Russian Empire's Middle Volga region today's Tatarstan was the site of a prolonged struggle between Russian Orthodoxy and Islam each of which sought to solidify its influence among the frontier's mix of Turkic Finno-Ugric and Slavic peoples The immediate catalyst of the events that Agnès Nilüfer Kefeli chronicles in Becoming Muslim in Imperial Russia was the collective turn to Islam by many of the region's Krashens the Muslim and animist Tatars who converted to Russian Orthodoxy between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries The traditional view holds that the apostates had really been Muslim all along or that their conversions had been forced by the state or undertaken voluntarily as a matter of convenience In Kefeli's view this argument vastly oversimplifies the complexity of a region where many participated in the religious cultures of both Islam and Orthodox Christianity and where a vibrant Krashen community has survived to the present By analyzing Russian Eurasian and Central Asian ethnographic administrative literary and missionary sources Kefeli shows how traditional education with Sufi mystical components helped to Islamize Finno Ugric and Turkic peoples in the Kama Volga countryside and set the stage for the development of modernist Islam in Russia Of particular interest is Kefeli's emphasis on the role that Tatar women both Krashen and Muslim played as holders and transmitters of Sufi knowledge Today she notes intellectuals and mullahs in Tatarstan seek to revive both Sufi and modernist traditions to counteract new expressions of Islam and promote a purely Tatar Islam aware of its specificity in a post Christian and secular environment Islam and Cultural Change in Papua New Guinea Scott Flower, 2016-08-12 Scholars of religion and policy makers may be surprised at the changes occurring on the second largest island of the world that straddles one of the most Christianised and least Christianised areas of the world This book provides an accurate and deeper understanding of the nature of Islam in Papua New Guinea and determines the causes and processes of recent growth in the country's Muslim population Combining ethnographic sociological and historical approaches to understanding Islam's growth in Papua New Guinea the book uses extensive fieldwork interviews and archival records to look at the establishment institutionalization and growth of Islam in a country that is predominantly Christian It analyses the causes and processes of conversion and presents a new analytical approach that could be used as a basis for analysing Islamic conversions in other parts of the world Presenting an interdisciplinary approach to the study of Islamic conversion thorough the examination of the causes and process of Islamic conversion in Papua New Guinea the book is of interest to students and scholars of Asian Religion Islamic Studies and Cultural Studies Muslim Networks from Hajj to Hip Hop miriam cooke, Bruce B. Lawrence, 2006-03-08 Crucial to understanding Islam is a recognition of the role of Muslim networks The earliest networks were Mediterranean trade routes that quickly expanded into transregional paths for pilgrimage scholarship and conversion each network complementing and reinforcing the others This volume selects major moments and key players from the seventh century to the twenty first that have defined Muslim networks as the building blocks for Islamic identity and social cohesion Although neglected in scholarship Muslim networks have been invoked in the media to portray post 9 11 terrorist groups Here thirteen essays provide a long view of Muslim networks correcting both scholarly omission and political sloganeering New faces and forces appear raising questions never before asked What does the fourteenth century North African traveler Ibn Battuta have in common with the American hip hopper Mos Def What values and practices link Muslim women meeting in Cairo Amsterdam and Atlanta How has technology raised expectations about new transnational pathways that will reshape the perception of faith politics and gender in Islamic civilization This book invokes the past not only to understand the present but also to reimagine the future through the prism of Muslim

Islamic tradition as a distinctive intellectual paradigm Islam as Education Aaron J. Ghiloni, 2019-08-01 Motivated by the intellectual historian Shahab Ahmed's observation that the history of Islamic paideia has yet to be written Islam as Education explores multiple forms that the search for knowledge and the transmission of wisdom have taken in Islam focusing on the classical period 800-1500 CE Ghiloni draws on a wide range of Islamic primary source material ranging from sacred texts and parables to neglected pedagogical literature and paintings He depicts three Islamic religious practices pilgrimage prophecy and jihad as modes of pedagogy embodied ways of defining defusing and defending sacred knowledge Islam as Education's educational heuristic not only aids in understanding Islam but also provides guidance for intercultural and interreligious relations Ghiloni argues that Islam's grand knowledge tradition serves as a bridge between Muslims and non-Muslims and compares it with the educational theory of John Dewey the celebrated American pragmatist Based on this discussion a final chapter develops practical tools for learning from cultural and religious difference The Harvard Sampler Jennifer M. Shephard, Stephen M. Kosslyn, Evelyn M. Hammonds, 2011-10-15 From Harvard University comes essays sampling topics at the forefront of academia in the twenty-first century Eminent faculty members invite readers to explore subjects as diverse as religious literacy cyberspace security epidemiology questions in evolution the dark side of the American Revolution and the biology of the human mind Stories of Joseph Marc S. Bernstein, 2009-02-05 Bernstein's rich analysis focuses on the nineteenth-century Judeo-Arabic manuscript The Story of Our Master Joseph a Jewish text taking its form from an Islamic prototype itself largely based on midrashic Hellenistic and Near Eastern material extending back to the earliest human stories of parental favoritism sibling rivalry separatism from loved ones sexual mores and the struggles for a continued communal existence outside the homeland The Cambridge Companion to Classical Islamic Theology Tim Winter, 2008-05-22 This series of critical reflections on the evolution and major themes of pre-modern Muslim theology begins with the revelation of the Koran and extends to the beginnings of modernity in the eighteenth century The significance of Islamic theology reflects the immense importance of Islam in the history of monotheism to which it has brought a unique approach and style and a range of solutions which are of abiding interest Devoting especial attention to questions of rationality scriptural fidelity and the construction of orthodoxy this volume introduces key Muslim theories of revelation creation ethics scriptural interpretation law mysticism and eschatology Throughout the treatment is firmly set in the historical social and political context in which Islam's distinctive understanding of God evolved Despite its importance Islamic theology has been neglected in recent scholarship and this book provides a unique scholarly but accessible introduction Muslims and Others in Sacred Space Margaret Cormack, 2013-01-10 This collection of seven essays offers wide-ranging and in-depth studies of locations sacred to Muslims of the histories of these sites real or imagined and of the ways in which Muslims and members of other religions have interacted peaceably in sacred times and spaces The volume begins with a discussion by David Damrel of the official hostile Muslim attitude toward practices at shrines in South Asia

Lance Laird then presents a case study of a shrine holy to Palestinian Christians who identify its patron as St George as well as to Palestinian Muslims who believe that its patron is al Khadr Ethel Sara Wolper illustrates how al Khadr s patronage was used also to show Muslim connections to Christian sites in Anatolia and JoAnn Gross s essay explores oral and written traditions linking shrines in Tajikistan to traditional Muslim locations and figures A chapter by the late Thomas Sizgorich examines how Christian and Muslim authors used monastic settings to reimagine the relationship between the two religions and Alexandra Cuffel offers a study of attitudes towards the mixing of religious groups in religious festivals in eleventh to sixteenth century Egypt Finally Eric Ross shows how the Layenne Sufi order incorporates a singular combination of Christian and Muslim figures and festivals in its history and practices Muslims and Others in Sacred Space will be an invaluable resource to anyone interested in the complex meanings of sacred sites in Muslim history

Religion and the Domestication of Dissent Russell T. McCutcheon, 2025-06-27 In its first edition Religion and the Domestication of Dissent focused on the representations of Islam that circulated in the wake of the 9 11 attacks representations that scholars pundits and politicians alike used either to essentialize and demonize it or instead to isolate specific aspects as apolitical and thus tolerable faith This little book s larger thesis therefore argued for how the classifications that we routinely use to identify and thereby negotiate our social worlds notably such categories as religion or faith are explicitly political This new edition which updates the first and adds a new closing chapter continues to be relevant today a time when assertions concerning supposedly authentic and homogenous identities whether shared by us or them continue to animate a variety of public debates where the stakes remain high Thinking back on how Islam was often portrayed in scholarship and popular media in western Europe and North America offers lessons for how debates today unfold on such topics as Christian nationalism a designation now prominent among pundits intent on identifying the proper and improper ways in which religion intersects with modern political life But it is this very distinction between religion and politics that ought to be attracting our attention if we are interested not in which way of being religious is right or reasonable but instead in determining why some social groups are known as religious in the first place Seeing the latter question as linked to studying how socially formative categories function in liberal democracies Religion and the Domestication of Dissent offers an anthropology of the present when the longstanding mechanisms of liberal governance seem to be under threat
