 consistently defined or employed either in religious traditions or in academic discourse The essays in this volume offer ways of defining what mysticism is as well as methods for grappling with its complexity in a classroom This volume addresses the diverse literature surrounding mysticism in four interrelated parts The first part includes essays on the tradition and context of mysticism devoted to drawing out and examining the mystical element in many religious traditions The second part engages traditions and religious cultural strands in which mysticism is linked to other terms such as shamanism esotericism and Gnosticism The volume's third part focuses on methodological strategies for defining mysticism with respect to varying social spaces The final essays show how contemporary social issues and movements have impacted the meaning study and pedagogy of mysticism Teaching Mysticism presents pedagogical reflections on how best to communicate mysticism from a and methods that have been used to understand it and provides critical insight into the resulting controversies Ibn 'Arabi's Mystical Poetics Denis E. McAuley,2012-08-23 Muhyi D n Ibn Arab 1165 1240 was a hugely influential figure in the development of Sufism yet although interest in his work continues to grow his poetry has received very little attention This book is the first full length monograph devoted to his D w n collected poems It begins by attempting to define Ibn Arab's poetic style and his understanding of poetics which is closely intertwined with his metaphysics the rhythms of poetry echo those of creation and meaning combines with form just as the spirit descends on matter Drawing on a pre Islamic theme he insists that his poetry was revealed to him word for word by a spirit At the same time however his attitude to the function of poetry and its relation to scripture is closer to mainstream medieval Islamic Jewish and Christian theology than has usually been thought Denis E McAuley focuses on close readings of books in unusual verse forms including poetic responses to chapters of the Qur'an imitations of earlier poets poems that use only one rhyme word and a cycle of poems modelled on the letters of the alphabet In so doing he makes frequent comparisons with other Islamic and European poets from the sixth century to the dawn of the twentieth many of them virtually unstudied Ibn Arab emerges as a highly original poet whose
