Sing The Songs Of Frank Loesser :

The Broadway Song Mark Ross Clark, 2015 The Broadway Song is a practical repertoire guide based on 100 classic songs from the Great White Way. It gives performers a way into their characters through the formal song characteristics as well as larger contextual materials about the source from background to the musical information about the character singing and synoptic narrative information for the song.

Sing and Change the World! David Edward Dayton, 2002 Sing and Change The World combines chicken soup inspiration with Mozart effect musical power to demonstrate the impact of singing on ordinary life. Thematic chapters present historic characters, celebrities, and everyday people who changed themselves and their world with a well-timed tune. Included are personal testimonies from Robert Goulet, Yoko Ono, and others.

Hit Songs, 1900-1955 Don Tyler, 2007-04-16 This is a chronology of the most famous songs from the years before rock n roll. The top hits for each year are described, including vital information such as song origin, artist, and chart information. For many songs, the author includes any web or library holdings of sheet music, covers, musical scores, and free audio files. An extensive collection of biographical sketches follows, providing performing credits, relevant professional awards, and brief biographies for hundreds of the era's most popular performers, lyricists, and composers. Includes an alphabetical song index and bibliography.

From Studio to Stage Barbara M. Doscher, 2002 The late Doscher was a singing teacher at the U of Colorado Boulder. This volume compiles the note cards on songs and arias that she composed in order to aid her teaching. The entries are broadly organized by type of piece, with notes on difficulty, author keys, available ranges, tessitura, voice types, and other comments included. Five indexes allow readers to find compositions by composer, lyricist, title, range, and difficulty level.
