Red Air Fighter:

Red Air Sanu Kainikara, 2007-10 The Russian Air Force carries the mantle of the erstwhile Red Air Force of the Soviet Union and has a long and illustrious history backed by grand traditions and customs The Russian Air Force is still coming to grips with its changed circumstances after the collapse of the Soviet Union and is perhaps in the best shape of the three armed forces to be able to lend credence to the Russian Federation's claim to international influence and power projection capabilities Doctrine is the reflection of a nation's character and air power doctrine is influenced by the strategic culture of a nation Nowhere else is this more apparent than in the case of the Russian Air Force The Red Air Force has been directly influenced by the political upheavals in the Soviet Union and now Russia but has displayed exemplary resilience in continuing to provide adequate support for government policies The impact of political ideology on the development of doctrine and air power has not been greater in any other air force around the world This book is an extension of a doctoral thesis produced in 2005 and is essential reading for anyone trying to come to grips with the intricate relationship that exists between national security imperatives political ideology and the development of military doctrine Back cover

King of Airfighters Ira Jones, 2020-01-10 A penetrating study of Britain's top World War I fighter ace written by fellow pilot Ira Jones the author of An Air Fighter's Scrapbook Ira Jones biography of Britain's top scoring ace of the First World War has become the subject of some controversy over the last few years most notably it claims seventy three kills for

Mannock making him the number one scoring Allied ace of the war Later research has thrown serious doubt on this assertion and indeed Mannock himself only claimed fifty one kills Jones biography is nevertheless an important account especially when seen in the context of the time in which it was first written In particular the biography delves into the mind of Mannock portraying the singular nature of his character and the true stress that these pioneer air fighters experienced in the last few months of the war Originally published in 1934 by Ivor Nicholson and Watson in London the book has been reprinted most recently in the 1990s by Greenhill Books as part of its Vintage Aviation Library and reproduced from the original 1930s version of the book Not a word has been changed in this Casemate edition but the original very dated type and page layout have been reworked as has been the format in which the book is presented to give a beautiful new treatment to this classic of aviation literature aviation in peace and war f.h. sykes,1922 Eyes All Over the Sky James Streckfuss,2016-05-19 The impact of the unsung heroes of WWI a must for any aviation enthusiast to further complement work on aerial reconnaissance in modern warfare Roads to the Great War Beyond the heroic deeds of the fighter pilots and bombers of World War I the real value of military aviation lay elsewhere aerial reconnaissance observation and photography impacted the fighting in many ways but little has been written about it Balloons and airplanes regulated artillery fire infantry liaison aircraft followed attacking troops and the retreats of defenders aerial photographers aided operational planners and provided the data for perpetually updated maps and naval airplanes airships and balloons acted as aerial sentinels in a complex anti submarine warfare organization Reconnaissance crews at the Battles of the Marne and Tannenberg averted disaster Eyes All Over the Sky fully explores all the aspects of aerial reconnaissance and its previously under appreciated significance Also included are the individual experiences of British American and German airmen true pioneers of aviation warfare With an interesting selection of photos the book is not only an excellent reference it is historically important Classic Wings This well researched history belongs on the shelf of anyone with a serious interest in the air war or the ground war of 1914 1918 Steve Suddaby former president of the World War One Historical Association Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1952
