Begin Again, Believe Again Sharon A. Hersh,2010-10-19 Our hearts as women were made by God for relationships Why is it then that the thing we most deeply desire relationships becomes the source of so much pain Difficult marriages the loneliness of being single problem children abusive employers fractured friendships life s realities are often very different from the dreams we dreamed for ourselves as girls How do we live with this beautiful ache for relationships in a world that doesn't always work When we've been betrayed how do we trust again When we've been disappointed how do we hope again When we've been terribly hurt how do we love again In this honest intimate and transformative book counselor Sharon Hersh helps you gain a new truly biblical perspective on relationships that can help you endure the heartaches and still come up living wholeheartedly loving with abandon and daring to hope and believe The stories of the women in this book including that of the author are signposts that point you beyond the sometimes devastating problems of life to the deep rich reason and root of all relationships both good and bad God's desire for relationship with you In Sharon's words Relationships are not the destination they are the path to something more

Mother of Invention: How Our Mothers Influenced Us as Feminist Academics and Activists Vanessa

Reimer,2013-06-01 Mother of Invention How Our Mothers Influenced Us As Feminist Academics and Activists is an interdisciplinary collection that combines feminist theory with life writing to explore the diverse ways that mothers whether or not they themselves identify as feminist inspire feminist consciousness in their daughters and sons It features creative and scholarly contributions from feminist academics activists writers and artists from different educational backgrounds places and walks of life While not an exclusive celebration of maternal relations this collection provides an antidote to matrophobia and mother blaming by critically exploring and affirming the myriad of challenges and complexities that constitute motherwork It explores how the mothering of feminist daughters and sons intersects with issues of gender sexuality disability ethnicity racialization citizenship religion economic class education and socio historical location Collectively these essays explore the centrality of intergenerational matrilineal narratives in shaping feminist consciousness they deconstruct dominant ideologies of patriarchal motherhood and womanhood and they challenge the notion that there is a formulaic way to raise feminist daughters and sons or a singular correct way to engage in feminist maternal practice
