My Autobiography: A Fragment F. Max Müller, 2022-09-16 F Max Müller's My Autobiography A Fragment offers a poignant glimpse into the life and thoughts of one of the most important figures in the study of comparative religion and philology during the 19th century. Written in a reflective style, the autobiography showcases Müller's intellectual journey alongside his personal and professional struggles. Delving into his formative years, his scholarship on the sacred texts of various religions, and his pioneering contributions to linguistics, this fragment reveals the intricate tapestry of Victorian inquiry that shaped his worldview and methodologies. Through a combination of eloquent prose and insightful commentary, Müller not only entertains but deeply engages readers with the transformative power of language and belief systems. Born in 1823 in Dessau, Germany, F. Max Müller was a prodigious scholar whose passion for languages emerged early in his life. His experiences in the intellectual circles of Europe, coupled with his immersion in Eastern texts, led him to advocate for the understanding of the world's religions through a comparative lens. Müller's extensive work on the Vedas and his influential place in the Oriental Renaissance reflect the cultural vignettes of a man committed to bridging Eastern and Western philosophies. Readers drawn to rich historical contexts and those seeking a profound understanding of religious studies will find Müller's autobiography an enlightening read. It is not only a window into the life of a scholar but also a testament to the enduring quest for knowledge and the complexities of cultural exchange in an era of profound intellectual exploration.

My Autobiography Friedrich Max Müller, 2017-12-26 Excerpt from My Autobiography A Fragment. During the last weeks of his life, when we all knew that the end could not be far off, the autobiography was constantly in his thoughts, and his great desire was to leave as much as possible ready for publication. Even when he was lying in bed, far too weak to sit up in a chair, he continued to work at the manuscript with me. I would read portions aloud to him, and he would suggest alterations and dictate additions. I see that we were actually at work on this up to the 19th of October, and on the 28th he was taken to his well-earned rest. One of the last letters that I read to him was a letter from Messrs Longmans, his life-long publishers, urging the publication of the fragments of the Autobiography that he had then written My father s object in writing his Autobiography was twofold firstly to show what he considered to have been his mission in life to lay bare the thread that connected all his labours and secondly to encourage young struggling scholars by letting them see how it had been possible for one of themselves without fortune a stranger in a strange land to arrive at the position to which he attained without ever sacrificing his independence or abandoning the unprofitable and not very popular subjects to which he had determined to devote his life About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
