New Directions for Research in L2 Writing S. Ransdell, M.-L. Barbier, 2012-12-06 GERT RIJLAARSDAM University of Amsterdam Utrecht University the Netherlands Multilingualism is becoming the default in our global world The present day global citizens use different languages in different situations Apart from their mother tongue they learn languages that give them access to other regions nations and worlds In all countries of the European Union for instance at least one foreign language is mandatory in secondary schools Most students are taught English as a foreign language the lingua franca in Europe In large parts of the USA students move from Spanish to English schooling In parts of Canada bilingual education is standard In Catalonia Spain children learn Catalan and Spanish in Hong Kong English and Chinese The smaller the world becomes the more languages are used and learned For writing process research this development into multilingualism entails at least two challenges First of all studying the relation between writing in L1 and L2 provides an opportunity for collaborative studies in different language settings Second the issue of generalization of findings comes to the fore It becomes evident now that we have unjustly neglected this issue in writing process research We forgot to ask whether it is feasible to talk about writing processes in general without referring to the language of the written texts and without taking into account the educational and linguistic culture in which these texts originate

Catholic Women Writers Mary Reichardt, 2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now The first reference of its kind Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author a critical discussion of her works especially her Catholic and women s themes an overview of her critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources Authors writing in all genres including fiction autobiography poetry children s literature and essays are represented The entries give special attention to the authors use of Catholic themes structures traditions culture and spirituality The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in historical and cultural contexts to those who critique the tradition An introductory essay places the writers within the historical and literary contexts of women s writing in the Catholic tradition and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Writing the Radical Center John Beck,2001-10-05 Explores the cultural work of two important early twentieth century writers the poet William Carlos Williams and the educator philosopher John Dewey both key figures in American democracy

Teaching Writing in Chinese Speaking Areas Mark Shiu-Kee Shum,2005-07-27 One of the most civilized nations in history China has a long standing writing tradition and many Chinese texts have become world treasures However the way the Chinese teach writing in various countries in contemporary times is little known to the outside world especially in Western countries Undoubtedly the Chinese have had an established traditional method of writing instruction However recent social and political developments have created the perception amongst both practitioners and researchers of a need for change Whilst certain socio political changes both in Mainland China and in the territories acted as agents for reform of the teaching of composition the shape these reforms are taking has been due to many different influences coming both from inside the countries themselves and from foreign sources Mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan and Singapore have each developed their own approach to the teaching of composition Teaching Writing in Chinese Speaking Areas aims to provide an accurate picture of the diverse composition teaching contexts and approaches in these four regions and countries This is the first book that systematically introduces recent developments in teaching composition in Chinese speaking areas It outlines current theories and paradigms originating both in the West and in China and Chinese speaking territories and the way in which these have been adapted to suit the various cultural contexts and learning environments The overview is of relevance not only to the East but throughout the world Keywords for Travel Writing Studies Charles Forsdick,Zoë

Kinsley,Kathryn Walchester,2019-04-22 Keywords for Travel Writing Studies draws on the notion of the keyword as initially elaborated by Raymond Williams in his seminal 1976 text Keywords A Vocabulary of Culture and Society to present 100 concepts central to the study of travel writing as a literary form Each entry in the volume is around 1 000 words the style more essayistic than encyclopaedic with contributors reflecting on their chosen keyword from a variety of disciplinary perspectives The emphasis on travelogues and other cultural representations of mobility drawn from a range of national and linguistic traditions ensures that the volume has a comparative dimension the aim is to give an overview of each term in its historical and theoretical complexity providing readers with a clear sense of how the selected words are essential to a critical understanding of travel writing Each entry is complemented by an annotated bibliography of five essential items suggesting further reading

Landmark Essays on Writing Across the Curriculum Charles Bazerman, David R. Russell, 2020-11-25 Rhetoric as a general teaching while preaching locality of action and guidelines for handling that locality has tended from the beginning to serve as a universality It has offered a generalized techne with only limited categories appropriate for all discursive situations at least for those that were not excluded from the realm of rhetoric Nonetheless from its beginnings rhetoric limited its interests to certain activity fields such as law government religion and most important the educators of leaders in these activity fields This collection presents landmarks showing where the Writing Across the Curriculum WAC and Writing in the Disciplines WID movements have gone They have opened up a number of prospects that were impossible to see when rhetoric and composition confined their gaze to relatively few discursive activities This suggests that the rhetorical landscape is becoming more complex and interesting as well as more responsive to life in the complex differentiated societies that have emerged in the last few centuries This volume will reveal to scholars and researchers a range of possibilities for the study of disciplinary discourse and its teaching and suggest to them new prospects for the future and for the better

Rethinking academic writing pedagogy for the European university Ruth Breeze, 2012-01-01 All over Europe universities are moving over to English as the language of instruction This development has been accelerated by global forces and its pedagogical consequences have yet to be fully explored This book examines this situation from the point of view of students and teachers focusing particularly on the acquisition of English language writing skills in European university contexts It takes an academic approach and is firmly grounded in the bibliography on teaching academic writing to second language users in English speaking countries as well as in the bibliography on teaching English in Europe in higher education In addition to providing sound pedagogical guidelines it also brings together the most recent critiques of current practice and an overview of the innovative approaches devised in the last ten years This is a book for all those who are involved in the changing European university scenario English teachers and writing instructors lecturers faced with the challenge of teaching their courses in English university administrators and decision makers Writing Center Research Paula Gillespie,Alice Gillam,Lady Falls Brown,Byron Stay,2001-12 Original essays by writing center researchers directly address current concerns about writing ctr research through detailed accounts of research and use of diversity of research methodologies available to both veteran novice writing ctr professionals Writing Instruction to Support Literacy Success Evan Ortlieb,Earl H. The Creative Writer's Mind Nigel Krauth,2022-05-10 What goes on in creative writers heads when they write What can cognitive psychology neuroscience literary studies and previous research in creative writing studies tell creative writers about the processes of their writing mind Creative writers have for centuries undertaken cognitive research Some described cognition in vivid exegetical essays but most investigated the mind in creative writing itself in descriptions of the thinking of characters in fiction poetry and plays The inner voicings and inner visualising revealed in Greek choruses in soliloquies in stream of consciousness narratives are creative writers research results from studying their own cognition and the thinking of others The Creative Writer s Mind is a book for creative writers it sets out to cross the gap between creative writing and science between the creative arts and cognitive research Writing the Woman Artist Suzanne W. Jones,2016-11-11 I mean what is a woman I assure you I do not know I do not believe that you know I do not believe that anybody can know until she has expressed herself in all the arts and professions open to human skill Virginia Woolf Professions for Women Writing The Woman Artist is a collection of essays that explores the ways in which women writers portray women painters sculptors writers and performers Surveying the works of a variety of women writers from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from different ethnic national racial and economic backgrounds this book treats their revisions of the K nstlerroman and their perceptions of the relationships between muse artist and audience in other genres Suzanne W ones and her collaborators seek to understand how representations of women artists and their poetics and politics are mediated by social and historical factors including literary movements and theories of language In doing so they make an important contribution to the field of feminist scholarship and generate new ways of understanding how the dynamics of creativity intersect with the dynamics of gender Contributors to the volume are Ann Ardis Alison Booth Kathleen Brogan Lynda Bundtzen Pamela Caughie Mary DeShazer Linda Dittmar Josephine Donovan Susan Stanford Friedman Gayle Greene Linda Hunt Katherine Kearns Holly Laird Estella Lauter Z Nelly Martinez Jane Atteridge Rose Margaret Diane Stetz Renate Voris and Mara Witzling Writing The Woman Artist is a valuable new resource for scholars and students working in the fields of European and American literature and women s studies

Writing in Dante's Cult of Truth Maria Rosa Menocal,1991 Using the works of Dante as its critical focus Mar a Rosa Menocal s original and imaginative study examines questions of truth ideology and reality in poetry as they occur in a series of texts and in the relationship between those texts across time In each case Menocal raises theoretical issues of critical importance to contemporary debates regarding the structure of literary relations Beginning with a reading of La vita nuova and the Commedia this literary history of poetic literary histories explores the Dantean poetic experience as it has been limited and rewritten by later poets particularly Petrarch Boccaccio Borges Pound Eliot and the all but forgotten Silvio Pellico author of Le mie prigioni By blending discussions of Dante s own marriage of literature and literary history with those investigations into the imitative qualities of later works Writing in Dante s Cult of Truth presents an intertextual literary history one which seeks to maintain the uncanniness of literature while imagining history to be neither linear nor clearly distinguishable from literature itself

Publishing Modernist Fiction and Poetry Lise Jaillant,2019-02-06 Publishing houses are nearly invisible in modernist studies Looking beyond little magazines and other periodicals this collection highlights the importance of book publishers in the diffusion of modernism It also participates in the transnational turn in modernist studies demonstrating that book publishers created new markets for modernist texts in the United States Europe and the rest of the world
