Networks and the British Empire James Beattie, Edward Melillo, Emily O'Gorman, 2014-12-18 19th century British imperial expansion dramatically shaped today's globalised world Imperialism encouraged mass migrations of people shifting flora fauna and commodities around the world and led to a series of radical environmental changes never before experienced in history Eco Cultural Networks and the British Empire explores how these networks shaped ecosystems cultures and societies throughout the British Empire and how they were themselves transformed by local and regional conditions This multi authored volume begins with a rigorous theoretical analysis of the categories of empire and imperialism Its chapters written by leading scholars in the field draw methodologically from recent studies in environmental history post colonial theory and the history of science Together these perspectives provide a comprehensive historical understanding of how the British Empire reshaped the globe during the 19th and 20th centuries This book will be an important addition to the literature on British imperialism and global ecological change Birders of Africa Nancy J. Jacobs,2016-04-26 In this unique and unprecedented study of birding in Africa historian Nancy Jacobs reconstructs the collaborations between well known ornithologists and the largely forgotten guides hunters and taxidermists who worked with them Drawing on ethnography scientific publications private archives and interviews Jacobs asks How did white ornithologists both depend on and operate distinctively from African birders What investment did African birders have in collaborating with ornithologists By distilling the interactions between European science and African vernacular knowledge this stunningly illustrated work offers a fascinating examination of the colonial and postcolonial politics of expertise about nature Notes on Some Birds of Dar Es Salaam Cecily Jane Gurney Ruggles-Brise,1927 Normann Carr Alistair Tough,2024-09-16 Norman Carr 1912 1997 devoted his life to the conservation of wildlife and their habitat He saw that this could only be achieved with the involvement and support of the local people who should benefit from it He was the founder of game viewing safaris in Zambia In the 1950s he enabled the establishment of a game reserve which became the Nsefu Sector of South Luangwa National Park and with Chief Nsefu he established the first camp for tourists within it He was also influential in the development of the Kafue National Park Carr skilfully manipulated central and local bureaucracies before and after Zambia s Independence established a safari company which outlived him and now runs five lodges in the Luangwa Valley pioneered walking safaris wrote several books and raised two lion cubs which were successfully returned to the wild The Auk ,1928
