Nothing Much Happened Today:

Sheepwrecked Jackie Ellis, 2008-09-25 This journey through the changing seasons at Rowfoot Farm tugging time in the autumn winters as wet bleak and cold here in Cumbria as elsewhere lambing and the glories of spring a bucolic bee filled Eden Valley summer with its many shows and fairs will reveal much that you need to know about the countryside its quirky customs and ways and most likely a great deal that you don't They no longer burn witches not because they're lily livered it's just that getting the necessary timber from sustainable forests is a real chore You'll find nothing here about welly wanging either Jackie doesn't wang her wellies she just gets them muddy You won't need to of course as this book will ensure you experience rural life vicariously and very cleanly Along the way Jackie bumps into friends old and new peeps back over her shoulder every now and then to recall times past oh and it wouldn't be her if she didn't have the occasional impassioned rant or take the odd pop at the establishment but rest assured she's quite gentle with them So join Jackie and Katie the Lurcher Blossom the Cob and Rowfoot's many other residents four and two legged as she recounts the occasional pitfall and many pleasures of running a small farm in one of the most beautiful parts of England The Diary of Mrs. Noah Robin

Buckallew, 2011-09 For centuries Mrs Noah has remained a mystery one of the least known characters in historical lore A key part of the adventures of Noah Mrs Noah has remained even without a name to call her by and how much she contributed to her husband's amazing feat has been merely a matter of speculation Finally the thoughts of the bravest woman known to history can be examined thanks to the publication of this transcript of her amazing diary Transcribed by freethought writer Robin Buckallew with illustrations by Mat Jones share in this most important journey as Mrs Noah finally speaks

Middleburg: Going to School in Apartheid South Africa M. J. Poynter, 2007-07-16 Middleburg is a coming of age memoir recollecting the author's childhood experiences of growing up in a small town in apartheid South Africa M J Poynter provides a scathing attack of the apartheid regime as seen from the perspective of an English immigrant who finds himself growing up in a culture of conflicting values The novel breaks new ground in terms of providing an examination of oppression from the perspective of a white minority Here the instruments of apartheid are viewed from the experiences of someone who is not segregated in terms of race but who is excluded by nationality and culture Told through a series of amusing anecdotes the novel documents many of the events taking place in South Africa during the 1980s and provides an insightful observation of the popular culture relating to that period His recollection of events captures a sense of morbid nostalgia in which themes of horror are contrasted with images of the comic and the bizarre Set against a backdrop of brutal oppression this rights of passage demonstrates how the human spirit can at least find the resolve to laugh in the face of adversity Now All Roads Lead to France: A Life of Edward Thomas Matthew Hollis, 2012-10-22 Winner of the Costa Biography Award a fascinating exploration of one of the twentieth century's most influential poets Edward Thomas was perhaps the most beguiling and influential of the war poets This haunting account of his final five years follows him from his beloved English countryside to the battlefield in France where he lost his life When he met the American poet Robert Frost in 1913 Thomas was tormented by feelings of failure in his work and in his marriage With Frost s encouragement he began writing poem after poem as he finally found the expression for which he had spent his life searching But the First World War put an ocean between them Frost returned to New England while Thomas enlisted and went to fight in France It is these roads taken and not taken that are at the heart of this unforgettable book which culminates in Thomas s tragic death on Easter Monday 1917 Now All Roads Lead to France encompasses an astonishingly creative moment in English literature when London was a battleground for new ambitious writing A generation that included W B Yeats Ezra Pound Robert Frost and Rupert Brooke was making it new vehemently and pugnaciously and this dazzling biography places Thomas firmly in their midst 104-1 Hearings: S.1376, The Corporate Subsidy Review, Reform and Termination Act Of 1995, S.HRG. 104-652, March 5, 1996, 1996

Lee Hope Laura Lee Hope, Oh Bunny Here comes Bunker Blue Where is he I don t see him Bunny Brown and his Sister Sue were playing on the shady side porch of their house one morning when the little girl looking up from a cracker box which had been made into a bed where she was putting her doll to sleep saw a tall boy walking up the path There s Bunker went on Sue to her brother Bunny at the same time pointing Maybe he s come to take us for a ride in one of daddy s fishing boats Have you Bunker asked Bunny standing up and brushing some shavings from his little jacket for he had been using a dull kitchen knife trying to whittle out a wooden boat from a piece of curtain stick Oh Bunker have you Have I what asked the tall boy who worked on the dock where Mr Brown the father of Bunny and Sue carried on a boat and fish business Have I what Bunker asked again and he stood still and gazed at the two small children who were anxiously looking at him Have you come to take us for a ride asked Bunny In one of daddy s boats added Sue who generally waited for her brother to speak first since he was a year older than she Not this time messmates answered Bunker Blue with a laugh calling the children the name one sailor sometimes gives to another Not this time messmates I ve come up to get the ark Oh the ark cried Bunny Did you hear that Sue Bunker has come up to get the ark Oh Oh and Sue fairly squealed in delight Then we ll have a nice ride in that Wait Bunker till I put my doll away and I ll come with you Wait for me And I ll come too added Bunny I can bring my boat with me Tisn t all done yet he added but I can whittle on it when we ride along and then I can sail it when we get to the dock Now avast there and belay messmates cried Bunker Blue with a laugh using some more of the kind of talk he heard among the sailors that came to Mr Brown s dock with boats of fish Wait a minute I didn t say I had come to give you a ride in the ark I just came to get it But you will let us ride won t you Bunker asked Bunny smiling at the tall boy Cause we ll sit just as still as anything added Sue And I won t touch the steering wheel not once promised Bunny I guess you d better not not after you once got almost run away with in the big ark said Bunker I should say not Oh please let us come with you begged Sue We want awful much to ride in the ark Bunker While the two children were talking to the tall boy another little girl had crawled under the fence from the street and was now standing near Bunny and his sister She was Sadie West one of Sue s chums and when she heard Bunny's sister begging for a ride in the ark Sadie said Oh Sue is he going to take your Noah's ark away I wouldn't let him if I were you It isn't Noah's ark at all Sue explained We call the big automobile that we had such a long ride in the ark It looks a little like a Noah's ark but it's bigger and we can all get in it she added Oh exclaimed Sadie I thought Bunker meant he was going to take your little ark and all the wooden animals away she added Not this time said Bunker Blue Your father sent me up Bunny to get the big auto the ark as you call it It's got to be fixed and I'm to drive it to the shop over at East Milford That's why I came up Where's your mother I want to tell her I'm taking away the ark so she won't think some tramps or some gypsies have run off with it I'll call her Sue said while Bunny kept on brushing the tiny whittlings from his jacket and short trousers And there was a queer look on the face of Bunny Brown

Two-Timed: an Adolescent Cancer

Memoir Danielle DuChateau, 2021-01-20 The journals are those of a girl I once knew who had cancer and wrote about her experiences She wanted to share her story in a way that would have helped her in a book about having cancer as a teen written by a teen who experienced it She wasn t lost in battle but she s been gone a long time and I haven t been able to forget her or let her go The story seems unfamiliar and yet I know it by heart It feels like yesterday but seems like a lifetime ago It s the story I never wrote because it was already written and at the heart of it is my journey with cancer a muse a curse and a blessing I ve read the book before but I never closed the first chapter a book of journals written by a girl who had cancer Cancer is a part of my story and being a survivor is part of my identity but it is not my entire identity as I felt it was when I was younger At the end of my second treatment I decided I was going to write my story and publish it I even thought of the perfect title for my book Two Timed An Adolescent Cancer Memoir I thought of it because I felt two timed by my own body whose very defense system had attacked itself and it had happened to me twice But I didn t write the story The years went by and I decided I could not very well write an adolescent memoir when I was well into my twenties but I still had my journals all the journals Several more years elapsed until now twenty three years after the journey began I am finally writing the story
