Nothing Less Than Love:

Soundings in the Christian Mystical Tradition Harvey D. Egan, 2010-10-01 Called in a special way to listen to God's whispers the mystics amplify not only what it means to be baptized into the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and to having the Trinity living in them but also what is deepest in the human spirit Mystics experience themselves as an infinite question to which only God is the answer as an immense longing that only Love can quench as a nothing in the face of the No Thing They are God's fools troubadours the great artists and poets of the interior life whose learned ignorance articulates the art of loving God neighbor self the Church and the world In Soundings in the Christian Mystical Tradition Harvey Egan draws on fifty years of reading and teaching the mystics to sketch the varieties and passion of the mystical life across more than two millennia Through their stories and words Egan reveals that all were conscious of the paradox of human identity supremely and unsurpassably manifested in the God Man that the genuinely human is disclosed only through surrender to God and that the search for God cannot bypass the genuinely human Harvey D Egan SJ is the author of numerous works on Christian mysticism and the thought of Karl Rahner He is currently professor of systematic and mystical theology at Boston College Compelling Engagements Wendy Larcombe, 2005 After decades of rape law reform it is still being argued that the criminal justice system fails rape victims that too few cases are prosecuted and too few prosecutions result in conviction Compelling Engagements is a ground breaking work which investigates the narratives of rape law and of romance fiction and explores the outmoded and strikingly similar depictions of their normative female subjects These are women who are not only vulnerable but also evidently worthy of the protections or rewards promised punishment of the rapist or the hero's love Larcombe's analysis explores the definitions of rape in the criminal law and romance in Harlequin Mills and Boon fiction the feminine subjects represented in the texts of rape law and romance fiction the feminised subject positions the texts produce the rape complainant and the romance reader particular fictionalisations of the rape complainant and the romance reader the false rape complainant and the ideal romance consumer and how these fictionalisations serve the interests of the criminal justice system and the romance publishing industry Larcombe shows how the legal construction of gender and subjectivity in rape law is still working to disempower victims She suggests feminism s failure to accommodate women s investment in heroines of romance fiction has limited their effectiveness in transforming rape law Compelling Engagements is an original and engaging analysis and fascinating reading for anyone who deals with rape as part of the criminal justice system The Book of The Last Days - The Revelation of Jesus Christ Horatius

Khodaskar,2018-05-30 How I wish marriage could offer insurance for love We marry for companionship to spend our life with another person in the best possible manner As time progresses marriage like any other relationship passes through different phases of life Relatives friends finance and children have a significant impact on marriage and test the bond between a husband and wife Situations threaten to derail the heart and mind that has forgotten to love the essence of any marriage and the strength that holds two hearts together to overcome any challenge But once love is lost from a relationship the strength to live life is lost The heart and mind start sailing in a stormy sea of emotions looking for something or someone to hold the heart steady and calm the turbulence in the mind The Love Baby is a story of a loving heart that has lost the love in its life and so it struggles to survive It is the story of a woman who puts her everything at stake to find happiness again and undertakes a journey from a loveless married life to a blissful love life Campus ,1977 Imaging God Douglas John Hall,2004-03-14 The deterioration of our natural environment under the impact of a rampant technological society is one of the major crises of our time For many analysts a primary cause of this crisis is the influence on Western culture of the Judaeo Christian concept of the human being as having dominion over the rest of creation In this book Douglas John Hall does not attempt to exonerate historical Christianity from that charge But he argues confession alone is not enough The crisis of nature forces us to rethink our whole understanding of the relation between humanity and nature an understanding that is based on the concept that human beings are created in the image of God imago Dei Hall carefully examines the biblical historical and theological meanings of this term which more than any other biblical expression became Christianity s symbolic way of designating the essence of the human Hall argues that the image of God is not an endowment it is not something that human beings have rather it is a quality that pertains to our relationship with God We should think of imago as a verb not a noun he says The human vocation within the created order is to image the Creator When this is applied in a consistent and serious way the idea of human dominion over all of nature must be radically reinterpreted Taking the Lordship of Jesus as an authentic model for understanding our human relation to the natural order means that dominion is expressed not as mastery but as service sacrificial service of the others with and for whom one is responsible Thus the concept of dominion as stewardship eschews any idea of ownership or superiority in relation to nature yet assumes a special accountability for its welfare A provocative and original work Hall s book retains the biblical centrality of homo sapiens while at the same time raising both nature and God to a new kind of prominence in the dialogue that is life Posthumous Works John Harris (D.D., Principal of New College, London.),1857
