The History of Springer Publishing Company Ursula Springer, 2008-02-04  class="imagelist" align="left"/> This is a unique and intimate insider's account of the founding and growth of a small New York science and medical publishing company over the first 57 years. Bernhard Springer, the Berlin-born great grandson of the founder of Springer Verlag, started his own publishing company in 1950. For the next 20 years, he slowly but surely grew his company from the ground up, demonstrating a preternatural ability to foresee areas where quality publishing was needed and answering that need. Beginning modestly with books like the Livestock Health Encyclopedia, he published his first nursing title, Handbook of Cardiology for Nurses, in 1952. The company would soon branch into other fields, but nursing remained as it remains today. Springer Publishing's signature subject, the quality and depth of which list having cemented Springer's reputation as one of the major publishers in the field. In the 1960s, Springer again recognized a nascent field in need of quality research: gerontology, and became one of the first publishers to commission books extensively on the topic, again establishing an international reputation as a industry leader in that field. The company continued to build its programs in other areas, including psychology, where its publication of the controversial psychologist Silvan Tomkins's The Picture Arrangement Test established a reputation for risk taking.  class="imagelist" align="right"/> Bernhard Springer's untimely death in 1970 left the company in the hands of his wife Ursula, a teacher by trade who went on to run the company for 34 years. Dr. Springer oversaw in that long turbulent period many changes in the publishing industry but continued to build on her husband's innovations while establishing an identity of her own as a book and journals publisher to reckon with. This book is Dr. Springer's story of the Springer Publishing Company from its inception to its sale to Mannheim Holdings LLC in 2004 and beyond. Dr. Springer tells a fascinating first-hand tale of the joys and travails of starting and maintaining a small publishing business, the delicate art of courting and signing good authors and books, and other tricks of the trade. She is particularly vivid in conveying the spirit, special character, and accomplishments of the company, which has had its share of successes and disappointments as well as colorful personalities among both its authors and its employees. Today Springer Publishing Company remains a thriving concern, and this book is not only enlightening reading to anyone interested in publishing business history or Springer Publishing but also serves as a fitting tribute to two people of unusual vision and intrepidity National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1971 Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 American Nursing Vern L. Handbook comprises contributions from international researchers of diverse educational and research backgrounds. Chapters present methodological issues within marketing research, sharing the researchers' experiences of what does and does not work as well as discussing challenges and avenues for innovation. Maternal Child Health Nursing Research Digest Joyce J. Fitzpatrick, 1999. Familiarize yourself with key research terms, concepts, and projects in maternal child nursing. This concise volume distills information of interest to MCH nurses from the Encyclopedia of Nursing Research with added material on issues such as breast feeding, adolescent pregnancy, and even battered women. Designed for students of maternal child health nursing to assist them in identifying significant research issues and questions, this digest will also guide practicing MCH nurses to apply the available research to practice. The Association of Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Nurses endorses this book. Essentials of Nursing Research Lucille Elizabeth Notter, 1978. Breast Cancer Carol Noll Hoskins, PhD, RN, FAAN, Judith Haber, PhD, APRN, CS, Wendy Budin, PhD, RN, C, 2001-03-15. This book portrays the personal experience of breast cancer through the stories of three women and their partners. The combination of emotional and factual information on the disease, treatment options, and health promotion strategies makes this important reading for health professionals and their patients. It is derived from a major NYU nursing study of 121 couples. Each chapter is followed by study questions and a knowledge review which can be used in patient education. An overview of the NYU study is given as well as a list of relevant Internet sites. A companion video series is also available. Nursing Research in a Service Setting Cheryl B. Stetler, 1984. Nursing Research Mildred O. Hogstel, Nancy Carol Sayner, 1986.
