Notunol A Study Of Christism:

Notunol Mac R. Cabanilla,2022-11-25 The world s many religions have articles of faith that must be observed these articles include the belief in a superior being a faith in the afterlife and a philosophy toward the value of life and existence But is there more to faith than the simple belief in a god Is there more than simply living a good life Is there more than faith In Notunol A Study of Christism Mac R Cabanilla sets forth that religious faith must encompass more than just a set of beliefs Christism is a unified concept that ties together mankind the Holy Spirit and the nature of the universe This concept is the Nature of the Universe Nature of Life Notunol and Cabanilla presents this as a study of the very nature of life god and faith In this view of the universe existence is shown to be the combination of physical reality and the immaterial forces both nature of Gods It is this combination presents the true nature and object of faith Cabanilla even shows that study of mathematics cannot reveal the universal truth and faith This exhaustive study of Christism reveals that there is much more to faith than simply believing in a religious doctrine In Christism man must come to understand the interrelationships between the material the immaterial and the spiritual only then can man truly understand the nature of the universe and the nature of life

A Guide to the Study of the Christian Religion Gerald Birney Smith,1916 Studies of Christianity James Martineau,1875 Studies in Christianity (Classic Reprint) A. Clutton-Brock,2015-07-06 Excerpt from Studies in Christianity I am often told by my friends that Christianity is nothing but a set of statements about supernatural history which no one now can honestly believe When I deny this they ask me what Christianity is and if I try to tell them they reply That is not Christianity at all but certain beliefs which were held by men before Christ was born and may be held by them after his name has been forgotten But all the while I am convinced that there is a body of belief not concerned with supernatural history which is Christian that it began with the teaching of Christ as Platonism began with the teaching of Plato that it has been enlarged and enriched with the experience of nineteen centuries and yet has remained itself I am not anxious to prove the originality of Christ in detail It may be that he said no single thing which had not been said before him The originality of a great teacher consists not in particular sayings or doings but in his power of giving life to an idea so that it continues to live in other men s minds and is enriched with other men s thought The greatest ideas are not those which remain peculiar to their authors About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books
