back to the first days of European discovery Cape Breton is littered with remnants of old settlements But that day Chiasson found a road that was unique Well made and consistently wide and at one time clearly bordered with stone walls the road had been a major undertaking But he could find no record of it In the two years of detective work that followed Chiasson systematically surveyed the history of Europeans in North America and came to a stunning conclusion the ruins he had stumbled upon an entire townsite on a mountaintop did not belong to the Portuguese the French the English or the Scots And they predated John Cabot s 1497 discovery of the island Using aerial and site photographs maps and drawings and his own expertise as an architect Chiasson re creates how he pieced together the clues to one of the world s great mysteries a large Chinese colony existed and thrived on Canadian shores well before the European Age of Discovery He addresses how the ruins had been previously overlooked or misunderstood and how the colony was abandoned and forgotten in China and in the New World And he discovers the traces the colony left in the storytelling and culture of the Mi kmaq whose written language clothing technical knowledge religious beliefs and legends he argues expose deep cultural ties to China A gripping account of an earth shaking discovery The Island of Seven Cities will change the way we think about our world

Le province de Quebec André Beaulieu, W.F.E. Morley, Benôit Bernier, Agathe Garon, 1971-12-15 There is no doubt that local and regional history considered by many as a kind of minor historical study has a pressing need for a systematic inventory of its resources This collection shows the durability the vividness and the astonishing productivity of a sector of history which is the stronghold of the history lover rather than the professional historian The nature and content of each book determines its selection For each book included the compilers have weighed its contribution to local history and regional history rather than the style in which it is written narrative memoir descriptive study or novel It is this criterion of selection that has permitted the retention of several general histories of a varied nature Bouchette Charlevoix Nicholas Denys La Potherie Lescarbot Hanotiaux Sulte etc where local and regional life takes on a major importance for reasons of order in history method or quite simply because local life is the principal object of the study itself The editors have also retained certain works those of George W Brown Arthur Buies George M Grant Blodwen Davies etc because they are primarily descriptive and contain numerous elements in which local history blends with the manners and customs of the inhabitants of certain regions This bibliography is designed primarily for historiographers who have until now paid little attention to local regional or parochial history It will also be invaluable for librarians who suffer from the numerous difficulties involved in the classification of such works Since 1950 all works published in Canada are by virtue of the book deposit law provided to the National Library of Canada and recorded in Canadiana Travels in Asia and Africa, 1325-1354 Ibn Baṭṭūṭa, 1929
