Indomania to Indophobia when the attempt foundered The philosophers Hegel Schopenhauer and later Nietzsche provided alternate views of the role of India in world history that would be disastrously misappropriated in the twentieth century Reconstructing Hellenistic and humanist views of the ancient Brahmins and Goths French Enlightenment debates over the postdiluvian origins of the arts and sciences and the Indophilia and proto nationalism of Herder Robert Cowan focuses on turning points in the development of an Indo German ideal an ideal less focused on intellectual imperialism than many studies of the Aryan Myth and Orientalism would have us believe Cowan argues that the study of this ideal continues to offer lessons about cultural difference in the post national twenty first century Of great interest to historians philosophers and literary scholars this cross cultural study offers a new understanding of the Indo German story by showing that attempts to establish identity necessarily involve a reconciliation of origins and destinies of self and other of individual and collective Robert Cowan is Assistant Professor of English at Kingsborough Community College of the City University of New York
