Novemberland Günter Grass, 1996 A bilingual poetry collection In Nursery Rhyme he writes Who laughs here who has laughed Here we have ceased to laugh To laugh here is now treason The laugher has a reason Novemberland Günter Grass, 1996 A bilingual poetry collection In Nursery Rhyme he writes Who laughs here who has laughed Here we have ceased to laugh To laugh here is now treason The laugher has a reason Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches, Michael Cox, 2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer s nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication The Communicative Event in the Works of Günter Grass Nicole A. Thesz, 2018 A major contribution to Grass scholarship that looks at his career as a whole and identifies four phases or stages of his writing in terms of communicative strategy and style Günter Grass and His Critics Siegfried Mews, 2008 A comprehensive narrative overview and analysis of the criticism of the controversial German author's works When the Swedish Academy announced that G nter Grass had been awarded the 1999 Nobel Prize for Literature it singled out his first novel The Tin Drum 1959 English translation 1963 as a seminal work that had signaled the postwar rebirth of German letters auguring a new beginning after decades of linguistic and moral destruction Nearly fifty years after its publication the novel s significance has been generally acknowledged it is the uncontested favorite among Grass s works of fiction on the part of reading public and critics alike yet its canonical status tends to obscure the decidedly mixed and even hostile reactions it initially elicited Along with The Tin Drum Grass s impressive body of literary work since the 1950s has spawned a cottage industry of Grass criticism making a reliable guide through the thicket of sometimes contradictory readings a definite desideratum SiegfriedMews fills this lacuna in Grass scholarship by way of a detailed but succinct descriptive as well as analytical and evaluative overview of the scholarship from 1959 to 2005 Grass s politically motivated interventions in public discourse have kept him highly visible blurring the boundaries between politics and aesthetics Mews therefore examines not only academic criticism but also the daily and weekly press and other news media providing additionalin sight into the reception of Grass s works Siegfried Mews is Professor of German at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
