Dirk Moses, 2023-06-27 This book charts and traces state mandated or state encouraged patriotic histories that have recently emerged in many places around the globe Such patriotic histories can revolve around both affirmative interpretations of the past and celebration of national achievements They can also entail explicitly denialist stances against acknowledging responsibility for past atrocities even to the extent of celebrating perpetrators Whereas in some cases patriotic history takes the shape of a coherent doctrine in others they remain limited to loosely connected narratives By combining nationalist and narcissist narratives and by disregarding or distorting historical evidence patriotic history promotes mythified monumental and moralistic interpretations of the past that posit partisan and authoritarian essentialisms and exceptionalisms Whereas the global debates in interdisciplinary memory studies revolve around concepts like cosmopolitan global multidirectional relational transcultural and transnational memory to mention but a few the actual socio political uses of history remain strikingly nation centred and one dimensional This volume collects fifteen case studies of such nationalizations of history ranging from China to the Baltic states They highlight three features of this phenomenon the ruthlessness of methods applied by many state authorities to impose certain interpretations of the past the increasing discrepancy between professional and political approaches to collective memory and the new post truth context This book will be of interest to students and researchers of international politics the radical right and global history It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research      The Journal of the Assembly During the ... The San Diego World's Fairs and Southwestern Memory, 1880-1940

Matthew F. Bokovoy, 2005-11-01 In the American Southwest no two events shaped modern Spanish heritage more profoundly than the San Diego Expositions of 1915 16 and 1935 36 Both San Diego fairs displayed a portrait of the Southwest and its peoples for the American public The Panama California Exposition of 1915 16 celebrated Southwestern pluralism and gave rise to future promotional events including the Long Beach Pacific Southwest Exposition of 1928 the Santa Fe Fiesta of the 1920s and John Steven McGroarty's The Mission Play The California Pacific International Exposition of 1935 36 promoted the Pacific Slope and the consumer oriented society in the making during the 1930s These San Diego fairs distributed national images of southern California and the Southwest unsurpassed in the early twentieth century By examining architecture and landscape American Indian shows civic pageants tourist imagery and the production of history for celebration and exhibition at each fair Matthew Bokovoy peels back the rhetoric of romance and reveals the legacies of the San Diego World's Fairs to reimagine the Indian and Hispanic Southwest In tracing how the two fairs reflected civic conflict over an invented San Diego culture Bokovoy explains the emergence of a myth in which the city embraced and incorporated native peoples Hispanics and Anglo settlers to benefit its modern development Memory in the Real World Gillian Cohen, Martin A. Conway, 2007-12-03 This fully revised and updated third edition of the highly acclaimed Memory in the Real World includes recent research in all areas of everyday memory Distinguished researchers have contributed new and updated material in their own areas of expertise The controversy about the value of naturalistic research as opposed to traditional laboratory methods is outlined and the two approaches are seen to have converged and become complementary rather than antagonistic The editors bring together studies on many different topics such as memory for plans and actions for names and faces for routes and maps life experiences and flashbulb memory and eyewitness memory Emphasis is also given to the role of memory in consciousness and metacognition New topics covered in this edition include life span development of memory collaborative remembering déjà vu and memory dysfunction in the real world Memory in the Real World will be of continuing appeal to students and researchers in the area Measuring Sleep, An Issue of Sleep Medicine Clinics, E-Book Erna Sif Arnardottir, 2021-11-01 In this issue of Sleep Medicine Clinics Guest Editor Erna Sif Arnardottir brings considerable expertise to the topic of Measuring Sleep Top experts in the field cover key topics such as home sleep recordings improving machine learning technology new classification for sleep severity the role of questionnaires and more Provides in depth clinical reviews on Measuring Sleep providing actionable insights for clinical practice Presents the latest information on this timely focused topic under the leadership of experienced editors in the field Authors synthesize and distill the latest research and practice guidelines to create these timely topic based reviews Contains 10 relevant practice oriented topics including getting more sleep from the recording sleep measurement in women and children consumer devices free living sleep measurements and more A Souvenir of the Anchor Line Agents
