

How to write a book and get it published

1.

Find a strong idea that uses the 5 elements of story ('who, what, why, where and when') to create intrigue.

3.

Create a plot outline that gives you an overview of what will happen in your novel and when.

5.

Revise your novel, clarifying elements such as sentence structure and ambiguous pronouns.

7.

Rewrite the first page to hook readers and the last to leave a lingering impression. Make your title stand out by evoking curiosity.

9.

Submit and make sure your query is personalized for the recipient and has a strong hook, 100-200 words outlining the meat of your story.

2.

Create a research document containing information such as facts about characters' professions.

4.

Set a deadline for finishing your novel – one that gives you time to do your story justice.

6.

Hire a skilled editor who fully understands the publishing industry and can help polish your book.

8.

Read through submission guidelines and make sure you craft a confident, to-the-point query letter.

10.

Keep submitting: don't give up if your manuscript is turned down. Learn from patterns in 'no' responses so you can tweak and improve.
