Centenarians' Autobiographies Mita Banerjee, 2023-12-18 Situated at the intersection between medical humanities aging studies autobiographical studies disability studies and ethnic studies this book explores the fascination of centenarians autobiographies for humanities research It can be argued that the growing presence of centenarians autobiographies on book markets across the globe may be rooted in the public's desire for positive images of aging in contrast to the image of inevitable decay Literary Autobiography and Arab National Struggles Tahia Abdel Nasser, 2020-05-28 In memoirs Arab writers have invoked solitude in moments of deep public involvement Focusing on Taha Hussein Sonallah Ibrahim Assia Djebar Latifa al Zayyat Mahmoud Darwish Mourid Barghouti Edward Said Haifa Zangana and Radwa Ashour this book reads a range of autobiographical forms sources and affinities with other literatures Taking a comparative approach Nasser shows the local sources of contemporary Arab autobiography adaptations of a global genre and cultural exchange She also examines different aspects of the contemporary autobiography as it has evolved in the Arab world during the past half century focusing on the particularity of the genre written in different languages but pertaining to one overarching Arab culture Drawing on memoirs testimonies autobiographical novels poetic autobiography journals and diaries she examines solitude and national struggles in contemporary Arab autobiography Artists and Their Autobiographies from Today to the Renaissance and Back Charles Reeve, 2022-11-25 Reading life writing that runs from Tracey Emin Faith Ringgold and Judy Chicago to Marie Bashkirtseff Benvenuto Cellini and beyond Artists and Their Autobiographies from Today to the Renaissance and Back investigates the intriguing doubled truths of artists autobiographies truth in life and truth in art authorial truths and the truth of their art as they saw it However this book focuses specifically on the truth of sincerity which here following classic discussions by Reindert Dhondt Philippe Lejeune and Lionel Trilling appears as a truth to self that floats free from facts to link avowal and feeling From there this volume merges autobiography studies with a history of ideas approach to art to trace sincerity's constancy and variability across times and cultures Through this pre-disciplinary dialogue this book shows that recent and historical artists autobiographies differ in how not if they intertwine sincerity in life and art Along the way this volume leverages the foregrounding of sincerity caused by this doubling to explore such key issues of autobiography studies as autobiography's relation to fiction serial autobiography as told to narrative and what happens when liars claim to tell all University Library of Autobiography, 1918 William H. Seward, an Autobiography from 1801 to 1834 William Henry Seward, Frederick William Seward, 1891 The Complete Autobiographical Works of Mark Twain Mark Twain, 2017-11-15 This carefully edited collection has been designed and formatted to the highest digital standards and adjusted for readability on all devices Contents Travel Books The Innocents Abroad Roughing It Old Times on the Mississippi A Tramp Abroad Life on the Mississippi Following the Equator A Journey Around the World Some Rambling Notes of an Idle Excursion Essays Satires Articles How to Tell a Story and Other Essays What Is Man And Other

 Larson,2007 The memoir is the most popular and expressive literary form of our time Writers embrace the memoir and readers devour it propelling many memoirs by relative unknowns to the top of the best seller list Writing programs challenge authors to disclose themselves in personal narrative Memoir and personal narrative urge writers to face the intimacies of the self and ask what is true In The Memoir and the Memoirist critic and memoirist Thomas Larson explores the craft and purpose of writing this new form Larson guides the reader from the autobiography and the personal essay to the memoir a genre focused on a particularly emotional relationship in the author s past an intimate story concerned more with who is remembering and why than with what is remembered The Memoir and the Memoirist touches on the nuances of memory of finding and telling the truth and of disclosing one s deepest self It explores the craft and purpose of personal narrative by looking in detail at more than a dozen examples by writers such as Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Eggers Elizabeth Wurtzel Mark Doty Nuala O Faolain Rick Bragg and Joseph Lelyveld to show what they reveal about themselves Larson also opens up his own writing and that of his students to demonstrate the hidden mechanics of the writing process For both the interested
