Now Is Too Late Survival In An Era Of Instant News:

Now is Too Late Gerald R. Baron, 2003 Baron shows executives and PR professionals precisely how the rules have changed and why public discourse has turned so ugly Next he offers a roadmap for defending oneself Discover how to build reputation equity in today's environment how to survive the maelstrom through clear thinking and strategy and how to recover a reputation in the aftermath of a PR crisis

Case Studies in Crisis Communication Amiso M. George, Cornelius B. Pratt, 1997-08-13 Case Studies in Crisis Communication International Perspectives on Hits and Misses was created to fill the gap for a much needed textbook in case studies in crisis communication from international perspectives The events of September 11 2001 other major world crises and the ongoing macroeconomic challenges of financial institutions justify the need for this book While existing textbooks on the subject focus on U S corporate cases they may not appeal equally to students and practitioners in other countries hence the need to analyze cases from the United States and from other world regions The variety and the international focus of the cases be they environmental health or management successes or failures makes this book more appealing to a wider audience These cases examine socio cultural issues associated with responding to a variety of crises

New Media and Public Relations Sandra C. Duhé, 2007 From Web sites to wikis from podcasts to blogs Internet based communication technologies are changing the way today's public relations campaigns are conceived and carried out New Media and Public Relations charts this exciting new territory with real life case studies that explore some of the ways new media practices challenge and expand conventional thinking in public relations This comprehensive new volume charts the leading edge of public relations research drawing on insights from both scholars and practitioners to question outdated models discuss emerging trends and provide numerous examples of how organizations navigate the uncertainties of building mediated relationships Global in scope and exploratory in nature New Media and Public Relations is an indispensable reference for contemporary research and practice in the field and essential reading for undergraduate and graduate students in public relations and mediated communication

SPORT LEADERSHIP IN THE 21ST CENTURY. JOHN F.; BURTON BORLAND (LAURA J.; KANE, GREGORY.), 2014

Public Relations and the Press Karla Gower, 2007-08-10 Governments and corporations nonprofits and special interest groups all have spin doctors trying to turn the news to their advantage This book examines how this shift came to be and explores the questions it raises about the role of media in a democratic society and the future of journalism

Making Media Content John A. Fortunato, 2005 Making Media Content addresses the development of media content and the various factors and constituencies that influence content such as advertisers corporate interests owners and advocacy groups It examines the strategic decision making of mass media organizations as they determine what content they present to their audiences through broadcast publication or electronic access The work focuses on the internal and external influences on media content laying out the various processes and opening up the topic for further consideration This book will appeal to academics in

Journal of New Communications

Research, Vol II Jennifer McClure, 2008-02-28 The Society is focused on the mastery of new communications tools and technologies and is dedicated to creating a bridge between the academic and theoretical pursuit of these topics and the pragmatic implementation of new media and communications tools and methodologies with an emphasis on the establishment and promotion of best practices This issue of the JNCR features several contributions that support this underlying ideal including an analysis of Internet dependency relations and Internet news exposure a report on government in the Web 2.0 era and the public sector's use of social media an exploration of the social media release and its implications for the PR journalist relationship and a case study that focuses on the ethics of journalism and public relations in the new media environment In addition SNCR Founding Fellow Elizabeth Albrycht witnesses the Venice Biennale online and proposes the notion of the noosphere And we are pleased to feature the executive summary authored by SNCR Senior Fellow Paul Gillin of an upcoming SNCR research study New Media New Influencers and Implications for the Public Relations Profession This research made possible by a grant from the Institute for Public Relations and Wieck Media examines the criteria communications professionals use to define new influencers explores how social media is being used to communicate with these influentials and how organizations are measuring the effects of such efforts Soft Targets and Crisis Management Michael J. Fagel, Jennifer Hesterman, 2016-09-19 Uniting the best of Michael Fagel and Jennifer Hesterman's books in the fields of homeland security and emergency management the editors of this volume present the prevailing issues affecting the homeland security community today Many natural and man-made threats can impact our communities but these well-known and highly respected authors create order from fear guiding the reader through risk assessment mitigation strategies community EOC planning and hardening measures based upon real-life examples case studies and current research in the practice As terrorist attacks and natural disasters continue to rock the world Soft Targets and Crisis Management emphasizes the vulnerability of soft targets like schools churches and hospitals and presents the methodology necessary to respond and recover in the event of a crisis in those arenas Features Based on ASIS award-winning texts Provides a multi-faceted look at crisis management principles Offers community-specific examples for diverse locales and threat centers Includes up-to-date case studies on soft target attacks from around the world A must-read for security emergency management and criminal justice professionals Soft Targets and Crisis Management What Emergency Planners and Security Professionals Need to Know is a crucial text for practitioners seeking to make the world a safer place for others What's Your Life Worth? David Dranove, 2003 One of the world's leading healthcare economists offers a hard-nosed analysis of the frightening reality of soaring healthcare costs and shows how it will feel to be at the mercy of a system that can't afford to cure anyone The 60-Second Commute Erica Orloff, Kathy Levinson, 2003 The authors present realistic advice on balancing worklife with family life and making time for oneself when the office is always right down the hall This is a start-to-finish sourcebook for overcoming every challenge associated with working at home The New PR Toolkit Deirdre

Breakenridge, Thomas J. DeLoughry, 2003 The New PR Toolkit is a compelling preview of the present and the future of public relations and a practical roadmap for becoming a strategic communicator
