Nuclear Policies In Northeast Asia:

Nuclear Policies in Northeast Asia United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research,1995 The twenty articles in this report emanated from a conference in May 1994 Topics include security and disarmament prospects for improving non proliferation mechanisms dealing with clandestine nuclear activities the roles responsibilities and management of nuclear weapons states the technical potential for proliferation in Northeast Asian states regional perspectives Japan the Korean peninsula the USA and Russia and inter relations between regional and global approaches The final chapter includes the October 1994 US DPRK agreement No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Nuclear Policies in Northeast Asia United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research,2011 The twenty articles in this report emanated from a conference in May 1994 Topics include security and disarmament prospects for improving non proliferation mechanisms dealing with clandestine nuclear activities the roles responsibilities and management of nuclear weapons states the technical potential for proliferation in Northeast Asian states regional perspectives Japan the Korean peninsula the USA and Russia and inter relations between regional and global approaches The final chapter includes the October 1994 US DPRK agreement No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Foreign Policies and Diplomacies in Asia Matthias Maass,2025-10-01 The observation of a rising Asia and its rapidly growing economic powerhouses has become a truism These impressive economic development stories provide the backbone for the growing political assertiveness in the region Asia s economic prowess is rapidly being transferred onto the diplomatic stage In the light of these larger developments the authors of this timely volume investigate the regional and international implications of a rising Asia and problematise critical developments The first section focuses on the lack of a proper regional security community in Asia The second part analyses the usefulness of Asia as a catch all for very distinct sub regions While not denying the utility of the concept of Asia as one region the authors support the need to maintain in parallel a clear focus on issues approaches and characteristics that are unique to sub regions within the continent A third group of authors probe the regional foreign policies of key players in the region exploring the security strategies and diplomacies of major regional actors Regional Pathways to Nuclear Nonproliferation Wilfred Wan,2018-06-15 The contemporary nuclear landscape is rife with challenges Stagnated progress in disarmament widespread modernization plans and emergent proliferation pathways are contributing to the risk of catastrophe Meanwhile global nuclear order appears more precarious than ever This book makes a case for a regional reorientation of the nuclear nonproliferation regime arguing that a more specialized decentralized and localized arrangement could more effectively address post Cold War challenges In the process it develops a framework to analyze the conditions that would allow for more robust regional nuclear cooperation Regional Pathways to Nuclear Nonproliferation includes a series of case studies centering on Northeast Asia Southeast Asia and the Middle East It provides a comprehensive overview of existing nuclear cooperation at the regional level including in the context of nuclear weapon free zones For each case the book both analyzes the viability of a stronger regional nuclear order and considers the form such an order would likely take What is the magnitude and character of the nuclear proliferation threat across different regions What does the presence of institutions in economic environmental and human security domains suggest about the likelihood of addressing that threat A better understanding of broader regional patterns may be the key to explaining the possibility of regional nuclear cooperation It may also help identify means to effectuate the timing and scale of that cooperation bolstering regional nuclear orders and in turn ensuring the viability of global nuclear order

Energy Security Cooperation in Northeast Asia Bo Kong, Jae Ku, 2015-04-24 Drawing on cutting edge research from leading scholars this book investigates state preferences for regime creation and assesses state capacity for executing these preferences in Northeast Asia's energy domain defined as the geographical area comprising the following countries Russia Mongolia China Japan South Korea and North Korea It examines questions pertaining to how states perceive the need and necessity for establishing a regime when it comes to the issue of energy and how much commitment they make to the effort in Northeast Asia The book analyses the factors that shape each country's fundamental energy interests in the region how these interests impact their attitudes toward engaging the region on energy security and the way they carry out their regional engagement Based on countries' interests in promoting institutionalized regional energy cooperation and their capacity for forging that cooperation the collection assesses each state's role in contributing to an energy regime in Northeast Asia It then concludes with a critique on the decade plus quest for energy security cooperation in Northeast Asia and suggests ways forward for facilitating regional energy security cooperation This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of environmental policy energy policy security studies Asian studies and international relations

The Politics of Positive Incentives in Arms Control Thomas Bernauer, Dieter Ruloff, 1999 They define positive incentives as transfers of positively valued resources such as money technology or know how from one actor to another with the aim of driving the behavior of the recipient in a direction that is desirable from the viewpoint of the provider

BOOK JACKET Russian Nonproliferation Policy and the Korean Peninsula Yong-ch'ul Ha, 2006 Law and Policy on Korean Unification Jong-Chul Park and Jeong-Ho Roh, Korea Institute for National Unification (South Korea), 2014-12-31 The aim of this project is to research the necessity of international cooperation on Korean unification in legal terms as South Korea's Unification Policy and how issues of the Korean Peninsula have been dealt with in the international framework Since this is the second year of a five year project the conceptual aspect requires clarification in the overall aspect and this requires a multidisciplinary approach But the main focus remains the legal aspect international law in particular This study assumes that unification will be a gradual process generally in three stages 1 inter Korean cooperation 2 negotiation for inter Korean unification be it North Korea's collapse or actual inter Korean negotiation for unification this stage includes any inter Korean negotiation for unification and international negotiation formula such as Six Party Talks etc and 3 post unification integration The study begins with the understanding that South Korea needs to be prepared for legal matters potentially arising in these processes. The project this year in particular deals with the legal issues that should be dealt with in the first and second stages. The scope of the papers in this project covers four main areas. The first is time span. The research for this project covers the 19th century to the present and draws future oriented implications but the main focus is on current issues. The second is in regard to approaches. The study deals with three main approaches: historical, political, and legal but for purposes of this project the main focus is on the legal aspect. The third concerns the issues addressed. These are the nuclear issue, the military issue, inter-Korean cooperation issues, and the human rights issue. Finally, the scope of actors considered includes South and North Korea, neighboring countries, the U.S., China, Japan, and Russia, and international organizations e.g. UN, WFP, WHO, etc. The papers included here are organized into three main sections. The first concerns the meaning of Korean unification and the context of international cooperation. Park Jong Chul provides a general overview of the Park Geun Hye administration's North Korea and unification policy referred to as Trustpolitik and the trust building process on the Korean Peninsula as well as the need for international cooperation. Sue Mi Terry examines the U.S. and China's perspective on the issues laid out above. She explores areas where U.S./China interests converge and diverge and whether strategic cooperation and coordination between the two nations are possible in the case of Korean unification. The second section presents historical and legal perspectives related to the situation on the Korean peninsula. Charles K. Armstrong's work on the historical perspective is divided into three sections: chronologically 1. the struggle of 19th Century Korea to become a modern sovereign state and its failure with the advent of colonial rule, 2. war leading to the division of the Korean Peninsula, and 3. the inter-Korean situation based on de facto recognition as opposed to de jure as a political entity arising out of the 1972 Joint Communiqué and the special relationship from then on. Next, Roh Jeong Ho provides a legal approach to the question of inter-Korean relations and the debate on unification by dividing the period from 1876 to the present day into five distinct periods and examining the limitations to the legal order and the evolution of world order as they pertain to Korea. Finally, Leon V. Sigal discusses how international law and institutions might improve South Korean security and facilitate inter-Korean reconciliation with special attention to confidence building in the West Sea. The third section examines in greater detail the legal aspects of Inter-Korean Cooperation and human rights. Regarding human rights, it is important to consider the link between inter-Korean cooperation and human rights. The improvement of human rights and people's livelihood in North Korea, which is part of the ultimate goal of unification, can be achieved by inter-Korean cooperation. Inter-Korean cooperation leads to inducing change in North Korea, which then logically leads to the improvement of human rights in North Korea. Lee Hyo Won focuses on the legal matters regarding the establishment of a DMZ/World Peace Park. Soung Jea Hyen looks at the legal matters regarding the internationalization of the Gaeseong Industrial Complex. Cho Jung Hyun provides an analysis of the contents and legal implications of the recent outcome of the UN Commission of Inquiry (COI) on Human Rights in the DPRK such as the meaning of stating crimes against humanity the notion of Responsibility to Protect R2P in respect to North Korea and transitional justice in the possible post unification stage Finally David Hawk tracks North Korean human rights developments in the post COI period Preface Jong Chul Park and Jeong Ho Roh I The Meaning of Korean Unification in the Context of International Cooperation South Korea's Trustpolitik and International Cooperation 1 South Korea's Trustpolitik and International Cooperation Jong Chul Park 3 U S China Rivalry and the Unification of the Korean Peninsula Sue Mi Terry 31 II The Situation on the Korean Peninsula Historical and Legal Perspectives 59 An Unfinished Project Challenges and Struggles of Korea to Become a Modern Sovereign Nation State Charles K Armstrong 61 The Limits of Legal Order in an Evolving World Order on the Korean Peninsula Jeong Ho Roh 89 Legal Approaches to Korean Security in the Early Stages of Unification The Armistice Agreement and the NLL Leon V Sigal 119 III Legal Aspects of Inter Korean Cooperation and Human Rights 145 Legal Perspective and International Cooperation on World Peace Park in DMZ between South and North Korea Hyo Won Lee 147 Plan for the Internationalization of the Kaesong Industrial Region and the Resolution of Its Commercial Disputes Jea Hyen Soung 169 The Report of the UN Commission of Inquiry COI on North Korean Human Rights Some International Legal Analyses Jung Hyun Cho 195 North Korea's Response to the UN Commission of Inquiry COI Report on the Situation of Human Rights in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea David Hawk 213 Contributors 251

O'Neil,2007-10-01 To what extent does the failing strategy of nonproliferation pose serious challenges for Northeast Asia's security environment Are there alternative strategies for managing nuclear weapons in the region Should the presence of nuclear weapons in Northeast Asia necessarily be seen in exclusively negative terms as many experts believe Challenges to Chinese Foreign Policy Yufan Hao,C.X. George Wei,Lowell Dittmer,2021-12-15 When Beijing hosted the 2008 Summer Olympics China symbolically asserted its role as an emerging world power a position it is not likely to relinquish anytime soon China's growing economy military reforms and staggering productivity have contributed to its ascendancy as a major player in international affairs Western scholars have attempted to explain Chinese foreign policy using historical or theoretical evidence but until this volume few studies from a Chinese perspective have been published in English In Challenges to Chinese Foreign Policy Diplomacy Globalization and the Next World Power editors Yufan Hao C X George Wei and Lowell Dittmer reveal how Chinese scholars view their nation's rise to global dominance Drawing from a wealth of foreign relations experts including scholars native to the region this volume examines the unique challenges China faces as it adapts in its role as a world leader and it analyzes how China's evolving international relationships are shaping the global landscape of the twenty first century Getting to Nuclear Zero in Northeast Asia Gregory Kulacki,Keiko Nakamura,Jae-Jung Suh,Tatsujiro Suzuki,2025-06-27 This book presents realistic alternatives to security policies based on nuclear weapons for the Northeast Asian region Northeast Asian governments and populations feel less secure than ever and the governments of the USA Russia China and North Korea are all expending considerable resources on increasing their nuclear arsenals This book presents realistic alternatives to security policies dependent on threats to use nuclear weapons and demonstrations of the resolve to use them in a war Those alternatives are grounded in the well established concept of common security The long term goal of these alternatives is the establishment of a nuclear weapon free zone in Northeast Asia This book demonstrates that lessons learned during the creation of existing nuclear weapon free zones can be successfully adapted using the proposed alternatives to nuclear threats to the considerably more challenging circumstances that exist in contemporary Northeast Asia More importantly it makes the case that the mere process of pursuing this objective even if the goal is not realized for many decades would help facilitate regional risk reduction measures and global nuclear arms control measures that could lead in the long term to the general and complete disarmament promised by the Nuclear Nonproliferation Treaty NPT and the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons TPNW of 2021 This book will be of interest to students of nuclear proliferation Asian security foreign policy and International Relations Routledge Handbook of Nuclear Proliferation and Policy Joseph Pilat,Nathan Busch,2015-05-15 This new Handbook is a comprehensive examination of the rich and complex issues of nuclear proliferation in the early 21st century The future of the decades long effort to prevent the further spread of weapons of mass destruction is at a crossroads today If international nonproliferation efforts are to be successful an integrated multi tiered response will almost certainly be necessary A serious thorough and clear eyed examination of the range of threats challenges and opportunities facing the international community is a necessary first step This Handbook which presents the most up to date analysis and policy recommendations on these critical issues by recognized leading scholars in the field intends to provide such an examination The volume is divided into three major parts Part I presents detailed threat assessments of proliferation risks across the globe including specific regions and countries Part II explains the various tools developed by the international community to address these proliferation threats Part III addresses the proliferation risks and political challenges arising from nuclear energy production including potential proliferation by aspiring states and nonstate groups This Handbook will be of great interest to students and practitioners of nuclear proliferation arms control global governance diplomacy and global security and IR general America's Challenge Michael D. Swaine, 2012-05-01 The emergence of the People's Republic of China on the world scene constitutes the most significant event in world politics since the end of World War II As the world's predominant political economic and military power the United States faces a particularly significant challenge in responding to China's rising power and influence especially in Asia Offering a fresh perspective on current and future U.S. policy toward China Michael Swaine examines the basic interests and beliefs behind U.S. China relations recent U.S. and Chinese policy practices in seven key areas and future trends most likely to affect U.S. policy American leaders he concludes must reexamine certain basic assumptions and approaches regarding America's position in the Western Pacific integrate China policy more effectively into a broader Asian strategy and recalibrate the U.S. balance between cooperative engagement and deterrence toward Beijing Guide to Specialists, 2008 United States Institute of Peace, 2008 U.S. Foreign Policy And Asian-Pacific Security William T. Tow, 2019-06-04 The Reagan administration has indicated clearly that the United States will reassert its strategic presence in Asia and the Pacific at levels not equalled since the close of the Vietnam conflict The implications of this policy bear careful examination in light of the growing divergence between U.S. security perceptions and those of our European and Asian partners Energy Security in Asia and Eurasia Mike M. Mochizuki, Deepa M. Ollapally, 2016-12-01 Many states appear to have strong sentiment on energy security and energy transit vulnerability Some analysts see the rapidly increasing demand for energy and competition for energy resources leading to nationalistic energy policies Others argue that global trends with efficient energy markets and growing options on renewables suggest more relaxed energy outlooks This book focuses on Asia where global demand for energy is now concentrated in the aspiring and rising powers of the region China India Japan and South Korea and also recognises the importance of Russia as a growing energy supplier Contributions by experts in the field provide detailed and parallel case studies Shedding light on the ongoing debate in the literature regarding energy outlooks of major Asian states they analyse whether energy policies are expected to evolve along market oriented cooperative lines or more competitive and even destructive mercantile nationalist lines The book argues that states are not unitary actors even in the key energy security arena and there are competing and contrasting viewpoints in Asian states on energy security It suggests that domestic debates structure thinking on energy security making energy policy more contingent than assumed by purely market or geopolitical logics Providing a strong contribution to comparative energy security studies the book fills an important gap in the literature on energy and national security and offers a basis for conducting further inter state interactive analysis It will be of interest to researchers on Asian Studies energy politics and international relations Guide to Specialists, 2009 United States Institute of Peace,2009
