Berkeley, 1972 The United States Catalog Eleanor E. Hawkins, 1921 The Collected Prose of Robert Frost Robert Frost, 2009-01-01 Robert Frost is one of the most widely read well loved and misunderstood of modern writers In his day he was also an inveterate note taker penning thousands of intense aphoristic thoughts observations and meditations in small pocket pads and school theme books throughout his life These notebooks transcribed and presented here in their entirety for the first time offer unprecedented insight into Frost s complex and often highly contradictory thinking about poetics politics education psychology science and religion his attitude toward Marxism the New Deal World War as well as Yeats Pound Santayana and William James Covering a period from the late 1890s to early 1960s the notebooks reveal the full range of the mind of one of America s greatest poets Their depth and complexity convey the restless and probing quality of his thought and show how the unruliness of chaotic modernity was always just beneath his appearance of supreme poetic control Edited and annotated by Robert Faggen the notebooks are cross referenced to mark thematic connections within these and Frost s other writings including his poetry letters and other prose This is a major new addition to the canon of Robert Frost s writings Song Beyond the Nation Philip Ross Bullock, Laura Tunbridge, 2021-05-20 This book challenges that assumption by exploring the ways in which song crosses national borders Whether by incorporating foreign canons of poetry alongside native ones or conveying literature across linguistic borders through acts of performance song functions as a means of translation The Chameleon Poet Robert Fraser, 2014-09-30 The poet George Barker was convinced that his biography could never be written I ve stirred the facts around too much he told Robert Fraser It simply can t be done Eliot wrote of his genius Yeats thought him the most interesting poet of his generation Dylan Thomas envied his power over women War trapped him in Japan In America he conducted one of the most celebrated love affairs of the century He fathered fifteen children in several countries three during one battle torn summer By the 1950s he was the toast of Soho Barker was Catholic and bohemian frank and elusive tender and boisterous In Eliot s phrase he was a most peculiar fellow Robert Fraser s biography offers both a portrait of a talented tormented and irresistibly entertaining man and a broad cultural landscape Around the central figure cluster painters like Francis Bacon Lucian Freud Johnny Minton and the Roberts Colquhoun and MacBryde writers such as Dylan Thomas Walter de la Mare and Elizabeth Smart whose By Grand Central Station I Sat Down and Wept hymns their liaison the lugubrious humorist Jeffrey Bernard After closing time at the Colony Room Minton declared they had to sweep up the jokes Hope That Heals Betty Jane Clem, 2020-11-03 Hope That Heals Reflections on a Life Journey is the author s first published work After six decades of writing in diaries and journals Ms Clem has selected a group of poems that she extracted from those records The collection includes observations from eight aspects of life which together focus on the place of hope in human health and healing Vacations spent near the oceans bird watching in various landscapes and waterscapes living with two beagles probing for answers to personal questions and challenges learning to relate to people studying and making music and wrestling with a lifelong call to serve God in word and deed are among the circumstances from which the author's poems arise This wide range of thought covers years when Ms Clem found verbal expression more difficult than writing After developing verbal communication skills the later work evolved into writing at a new level The development of freedom in maturing thought and speech gave rise to deeper and more complex writing She has long dreamed of sharing her observations and discoveries in the hope that they will be helpful to others perhaps even encouraging them to share their own Library Bulletin Mechanics' Institute (San Francisco, Calif.),1898
