events as social issues One true life example for a skit is the scene in the sample play written from first person point of view about a 1964 five minute train interlude when a male passenger commands the protagonist not to cross between cars while the train is in motion The passenger stands between the cars next to his wife who says timorously Let her go dear after the wife notices the young protagonist wears a wedding ring The protagonist tells him she s pregnant returning from the john and needs to get back to her family Instead he squeezes her head in a vise like grip crushing her between his knee and the wall of the train He kicks at the base of her spine yelling stereotypical ethnic epithets while passengers ignore events After the sample play and three monologues for performance you will have learned how to write ethnographic dialogue and select appropriate scene settings Also included are e interviews with popular fiction writers Library Journal ,2002 How to Open Dna-Driven Genealogy Reporting & Interpreting Businesses Anne Hart,2007-04-02 Here s how to open your own online DNA driven genealogy reporting interpreting service business You wouldn t do the actual DNA testing The laboratory you contract with does the testing and sends you reports that you interpret for your clients As a DNA driven genealogist you would prepare illustrated and text driven reports colorful CDs brochures press kits covers Web sites and guides to interpreting the DNA for ancestry based information You would interpret tests for deep ancestry to your clients What verbal skills and any other preparation would you need to empower consumers with knowledge from reports you receive from your partnering DNA testing laboratory Would you also interpret reports from genetics counselors testing for predisposition to diseases Or emphasize only deep ancestry Would you need a self taught science background a genealogy hobby or only marketing and communications experience Who does the actual interpreting How would you contract with DNA laboratories to send reports and other information related to ancestry You may be a genealogist a personal historian or a life story videographer thinking of partnering with a DNA testing laboratory Your business would be to make complex information easy to understand and interpret in plain language DNA reports from scientists to genealogy clients and surname groups The DNA tests could be for ancestry and or nutritional genomics issues Bridging the Testaments George Athas,2023-11-14 An accessible introduction to the historical and theological developments between the Old and New Testament Bridging the end of the Old Testament period and the beginning of the New Testament period this book surveys the history and theological developments of four significant eras in Israel s post exilic history the Persian Era 539 331 BC the Hellenistic Era 332 167 BC the Hasmonean Era 167 63 BC and the Roman Era 63 4 BC In doing so it does away with the notion that there were four hundred years of prophetic silence before Jesus Bridging the Testaments outlines the political and social developments of these four periods with particular focus on their impact upon Judeans and Samaritans Using a wide range of biblical and extra biblical sources George Athas reconstructs what can be known about the history of Judah and Samaria in these eras providing the framework for understanding the history of God s covenant people and the theological developments that occurred at the end of the Old Testament period leading into the New Testament In doing so Athas shows that the notion of a supposed period of four hundred years of prophetic silence is not supported by the biblical or historical evidence Finally an epilogue sketches the historical and theological situation prevailing at the death of Herod in 4 BC providing important context for the New Testament writings In this way the book bridges the Old and New Testaments by providing a historical and theological understanding of the five centuries leading up to the birth of Jesus tracking a biblical theology through them and abolishing the notion of a four century prophetic silence

The Cinematic Representation of the Chinese

American Family Qijun Han, 2016-03-08 There has been an increasing recognition of the fluidity and ambiguity of ethnic identities within the context of global mobility With that in mind how have films constructed the identity of ethnic Chinese in the United States This book addresses this issue through three sub questions First why is the family narrative so characteristic of films about Chinese Americans in transnational Chinese cinema In other words how and why are images of Chinese or Chinese Americans in transnational Chinese cinema different from those in Hollywood movies Second how does transnational Chinese cinema define and negotiate the aesthetic conventions of melodrama commonly used to depict Chinese American families In terms of establishing melodrama as an evolving mode of how does Chinese American cinema historically connect with both Hollywood and Chinese cinema Third what have the narrative treatments of Chinese American families in transnational Chinese cinema contributed to the ongoing representation of Chinese culture and construction of ethnic Chinese identities in Western societies This book traverses fields such as cultural studies Chinese studies media studies American studies and film studies and engages with a select corpus of films from the 1990s to the 2000s directed by Chinese American Taiwanese and Hong Kong filmmakers and produced in the USA Taiwan Hong Kong and mainland China to analyze the role the American Chinese family plays in their work With sensitivity towards transnational bonds and historical processes a negotiation process of three sets of conflicting forces has subsequently emerged the traditional and the modern the national and the transnational and Chinese American identity crisis in favor of a Chinese identity or a true American identity Contrasting cultural beliefs undoubtedly create cross cultural and generational conflicts within the family yet also open the way to negotiation and compromise This research on the cinematic depiction of Chinese Americans reveals the historically significant transnational connection among Chinese American Chinese and American cultures On the one hand ethnic Chinese are represented by boundaries that establish and define the Chinese American community against other communities and yet on the other hand the representation of family life and structure of Chinese immigrants is multiple and fluid as culture itself is unstable and uncertain Therefore a process of fixation and a process of fluidity seem to take place at the same time
