Kalila wa Dimna or The Fables of Bidpai is one of the gems of world culture having been translated through the centuries everywhere from China to Spain Kalila wa Dimna are subtle and suggestive moral tales a kind of repository of wisdom and understanding about the human condition It was the most commonly illustrated medieval Islamic texts This book focuses on the group of seven Persian manuscripts from the second half of the 14th century which contain several of the finest masterpieces of

Persian painting It is fully illustrated throughout with the paintings that accompany the fables Illustrated Poetry and Epic Images Marie Lukens Swietochowski,Stefano Carboni,1994 Two 14th century manuscripts are the focus of this catalog published in conjunction with a Museum exhibit February May 1994 Essays and illustrations 93 total 39 in color present the Mu nis al ahrar an anthology of poetic devices and the Shahnama a copy of the Persian national epic in which events are depicted in 41 extant miniatures Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Perspectives on Persian Painting

Dr Barbara Brend,2013-11-05 This is a detailed study of the illustrations to Amir Khusrau s Khamsah in which twenty discourses are followed by a brief parable and four romances Amir Khusrau 1253 1325 lived the greater part of adventurous life in Delhi he composed in Persian and also in Hindi From the point of view of manuscript illustration his most important work is his Khamsah Quintet Khusrau s position as a link between cultures of Persia and India means that the early illustrated copies of the Khamsah have a particular interest The first extant exemplar is from the Persian area in the late 14th century but a case can be made that work was probably illustrated earlier in India Fifteenth-Century Persian Painting

B. W. Robinson,1993-03 In this book B W Robinson traces the development of the different styles of Persian painting during the fifteenth century and considers a number of the problems and issues involved in establishing a methodology and system of classification for Persian painting of that period Robinson begins by way of background with a review of the schools of Herat and Shiraz up to the middle of the century and then proceeds to tackle in order the three main fields of controversy painting under the Turkmans Timurid paintings in Transoxiana and Timurid painting in India The uneasy fusion of contrasting characteristics of Herat and Shiraz that resulted in the emergence of Turkman court painting is traced through the origins development and branching of the Turkman style into a definitive form Then the author reviews a branch of the art almost entirely neglected up to now which he identifies as originating in Transoxiana Finally he provides a new approach to the study of pre Mughal Indian painting in Persian style by dividing the material into five stylistic groups Jalayirids

Patrick Wing, 2016-01-18 This book traces the origins history and memory of the Jalayirid dynasty a family that succeeded the Mongol Ilkhans in Iran and Iraq in the 14th and early 15th centuries The story of how the Jalayirids came to power is illustrative of the political dynamics that shaped much of the Mongol and post Mongol period in the Middle East The Jalayirid sultans sought to preserve the social and political order of the Ilkhanate while claiming that they were the rightful heirs to the rulership of that order Central to the Jalayirids claims to the legacy of the Ilkhanate was their attempt to control the Ilkhanid heartland of Azarbayjan and its major city Tabriz Control of Azarbayjan meant control of a network of long distance trade between China and the Latin West which continued to be a source of economic prosperity through the 8th 14th century Azarbayjan also represented the center of Ilkhanid court life whether in the migration of the mobile court camp of the ruler or in the complexes of palatial religious and civic buildings constructed around the city of Tabriz by members of the Ilkhanid royal family as well as by members of the military and administrative elite The Art and Architecture of Islam 1250-1800

Sheila S. Blair, Jonathan M. Bloom, 1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and motifs played a dominant role in the artistic life of most of the Muslim world the one exception was the Maghrib an area protected from the full brunt of the Mongol invasions where traditional models continued to inspire artists and patrons By the sixteenth century say the authors the eastern Mediterranean under the Ottomans and the area of northern India under the Mughals had become more powerful and the Iranian models of early Ottoman and Mughal art gradually gave way to distinct regional and imperial styles The Persian Presence in the Islamic World

Richard G. Hovannisian, Georges Sabagh, 1998-11-19 The thirteenth volume based on the Giorgio Levi Della Vida conference reassesses the role of the Iranian peoples in the development and consolidation of Islamic civilization In his key essay Ehsan Yarshater casts fresh light on that role challenging the view that after reaching a climax in Baghdad in the ninth century Islamic culture entered a period of decline In fact he maintains a new and remarkably creative phase began in Khurasan and Transoxania symbolized by the adoption of Persian as a medium of literary expression By the mid sixteenth century Persian literary and intellectual paradigms had spread from Anatolia to India encompassing the greater part of the Islamic world Yarshater also challenges traditional assumptions about the Islamization of Persia In the essays which follow six distinguished scholars consider the historical cultural and religious aspects of the Persian presence in the Islamic world Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set)

Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006)

the Timurid ruler Shahrukh r 1405 1447 The first manuscript is kept in Topkap Palace and the second is widely dispersed Codicological analysis of these manuscripts not only allows a better understanding of Hafiz i Abru s contributions to rewriting earlier history but has served to identify the existence of a previously unrecognised copy of the Jami al tawarikh produced at Rashid al Din s scriptorium Through a meticulous close reading of both text and image Mohamad Reza Ghiasian convincingly proves that numerous paintings of the dispersed manuscript were painted over the text before its dispersal in the early twentieth century The Cambridge History of Iran William Bayne Fisher,P.
