Philosophical Letters The Last Revival:

Philosophical Letters Richard O'Donnell, 2002-09 The Journal of Philosophy, 1927 Covers topics in philosophy psychology and scientific methods Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933 Schelling, Freedom, and the Immanent Made Transcendent Daniele Fulvi, 2023-09-28 This book offers a cutting edge interpretation of the philosophy of F W J Schelling by critically reconsidering the interpretations of some of his successors It argues that Schelling's philosophy should be read as an ontology of immanence highlighting its relevance for ongoing debates on ethics and freedom The book builds on a key notion from Schelling's Philosophy of Revelation where he outlines the process through which transcendence must return to immanence in order to be grasped and understood The author identifies Jaspers Heidegger and Deleuze as the main interpreters of Schelling's philosophical activity highlighting their relevance for subsequent Schelling scholarship Heidegger and Jaspers refer to Schelling's philosophy in negative terms namely as an incomplete and unviable philosophical system whereas Deleuze holds the immanent core of Schelling's ontological discourse in high regard The author's analysis demonstrates that reading Schelling's philosophy as an ontology of immanence not only avoids Heidegger's and Jaspers' criticisms but is also more fitting to Schelling's original meaning Accordingly his reading allows us to fully grasp Schelling's thought in all its strength and consistency as a philosophy that avoids metaphysical abstractions and maintains the concreteness of concepts like God nature freedom by binding them to a solid and material account of Being Finally the author uses Schelling to propose an innovative reading of freedom as a matter of resistance and of philosophy as an activity whose main purpose is that of seeking the actual extent and place of human life and freedom within nature The author originally emphasises the relevance of these conclusions on contemporary debates in Postcolonial Critical Theory and Environmental Ethics Schelling Freedom and the Immanent Made Transcendent From Philosophy of Nature to Environmental Ethics will appeal to scholars and advanced students working in 19th century Continental philosophy German idealism and Postcolonial Critical Theory and Environmental Ethics The Letter on Apologetics, and History and Dogma Maurice Blondel, 1964 The work of French philosopher Maurice Blondel lies behind most of the controversies in twentieth century French Catholic thought and bore its fruit in the Second Vatican Council Recognized in Europe as one of the outstanding figures in the Catholic revival that began at the turn of the century Blondel was described by Pope John Paul II as one of the first to discern what was at stake in the Modernist crisis Published together here are two of Blondel's most significant texts The Letter on Apologetics 1896 is a key statement on the possibility and meaning of Christian philosophy History and Dogma 1904 written in response to the Modernist crisis is an important contribution to the notion of tradition seeing it neither in terms of historicism nor as something mechanical but as a living synthesis Introductory essays by Alexander Dru and Illyd Trethowan provide essential historical and biographical background as well as an account of the philosophical and theological principles of Blondel's thought Back cover A History of Modern Jewish Religious Philosophy Eliezer Schweid, 2019-02-19 The culmination of Eliezer Schweid's life work as a Jewish intellectual historian this five volume work provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary account of the major thinkers and movements in modern Jewish thought in the context of general philosophy and Jewish social political historical developments with extensive primary source excerpts Volume Three The Crisis of Humanism commences with an important essay on the challenge to the humanist tradition posed in the late 19th century by historical materialism existentialism and positivism This is background for the constructive philosophies which sought at the same time to address the general crisis of moral value and provide a positive basis for Jewish existence Among the thinkers presented in this volume are Moses Hess Moritz Lazarus Hermann Cohen in impressive depth with a thorough exposition of the Ethics and Religion of Reason Ahad Ha Am I J Reines Simon Dubnow M Y Berdyczewski the theorists of the Bund Chaim Zhitlovsky Nachman Syrkin and Ber Borochov History of the Philosophy of Mind: Embracing the Opinions of All Writers on Mental Sciences from the Earliest Period to the Present Time Robert Blakey, 1850 Proceedings of the American Philosophical Society Held at Philadelphia for Promoting Useful Knowledge American Philosophical Society, 1947

Proceedings, American Philosophical Society (vol. 91, no. 2) , Jonathan Edwards's Philosophy of History Avihu Zakai, 2009-07-26 Avihu Zakai analyzes Jonathan Edwards's redemptive mode of historical thought in the context of the Enlightenment As theologian and philosopher Edwards has long been a towering figure in American intellectual history Nevertheless and despite Edwards's intense engagement with the nature of time and the meaning of history there has been no serious attempt to explore his philosophy of history Offering the first such exploration Zakai considers Edwards's historical thought as a reaction in part to the varieties of Enlightenment historical narratives and their growing disregard for theistic considerations Zakai analyzes the ideological origins of Edwards's insistence that the process of history depends solely on God's redemptive activity in time as manifested in a series of revivals throughout history reading this doctrine as an answer to the threat posed to the Christian theological teleology of history by the early modern emergence of a secular conception of history and the modern legitimation of historical time In response to the Enlightenment refashioning of secular historical time and its growing emphasis on human agency Edwards strove to re-establish God's preeminence within the order of time Against the de-Christianization of history and removal of divine power from the historical process he sought to re-enthrone God as the author and lord of history and thus to re-enchant the historical world Placing Edwards's historical thought in its broadest context this book will be welcomed by those who study early modern history American history or religious culture and experience in America Heidegger and French Philosophy Tom Rockmore, 2002-09-11 Martin Heidegger's impact on contemporary thought is important and controversial However in France the influence of this German philosopher is such that contemporary French thought cannot be properly understood without reference to Heidegger and his extraordinary influence Tom Rockmore examines the reception of Heidegger's thought in France He argues that in the period after the Second World War due to the peculiar nature of the humanist French Philosophical tradition Heidegger became the master thinker of French philosophy Perhaps most importantly he contends that this reception first as philosophical anthropology and later as postmetaphysical humanism is systematically mistaken The Philosophy of the Plays of Shakespeare Unfolded Delia Salter Bacon,1857 The Philosophy of the Plays of Shakspeare Unfolded Delia Salter Bacon,1857 The Letters of Ralph Waldo Emerson Ralph Waldo.
