work unique the disturbingly familiar dialogue subtle characterization and abrupt mood and power shifts among characters which can be by turns terrifying moving and wildly funny

The Lover Harold Pinter, 1992 THE STORY A husband goes to his office politely asking if his wife's lover will be coming today She murmurs Mmmm and suggests he not return before six In order not to return before six he will no doubt visit a prostitute A competition is glossily established When the lover does come he is the husband which is not surprising The kind of sex play follows that suggests this is the necessary titillation and the necessary release of hostility between a man who means to be master of the house and a wife who means to be both wife and mistress whatever the house may be But there is a flaw in the accommodation The lover is weary of his mistress she is no longer particularly appetizing By the time he returns as husband in the evening his wife is still disturbed by the news The performance of the afternoon has begun to carry over into the reality or pretense of the evening Suddenly the husband is not quite husband diffident over his drink He is blurring into the lover at the wrong hour and angrily The wife must seduce him now as wife not as mistress She does NY Herald Tribune

Cahn, 2011-12-20 During the past century artists have been preoccupied with the search for meaning in a fragmented world In this book Victor L Cahn suggests that the plays of Harold Pinter dramatize how such a search leads characters to try to establish security through control of territory and people The resulting conflict often manifests itself in a gender battle in which men dominate the physical arena and women the emotional The innate tension between the sexes is both comic and unnerving but also reflects humanity's eternal quest for meaning and identity Mac Harold Pinter, 1979
