Matson, 2013-03-07 The treatment of psychopathology in children has been a centerpiece of the overall field of problem behaviors in children Therefore a considerable number of data have been accumulated particularly in recent years These efforts have expanded at such a rate as to result in the publication of several new journals such as the Journal of Clinical Child Psychology and Education and Treatment of Children Similarly many standard general clinical journals have begun to devote more attention to children Despite these efforts few books have emerged that are devoted directly and specifically to treatment in childhood psychopathology This volume's scope is broad in that it reviews not only behavior therapy but also the rapidly expanding efforts in psychopathology and traditional psychotherapy and at an advanced level It is designed to provide an in depth scholarly review of the empirical evidence including an overview and analysis of the available techniques their effectiveness and the limitations and complications arising from the use of these treatment methods with the full range of psychopathology displayed by children Many nationally and internationally recognized experts have agreed to contribute chapters to this book and we hope that what has emerged is an up to date and authoritative volume An Interpersonal Approach to Child Therapy Stanley Spiegel, 1989 This book explores the puzzling phenomenon of new veiling practices among lower middle class women in Cairo Egypt Although these women are part of a modernizing middle class they also voluntarily adopt a traditional symbol of female subordination How can this paradox be explained An explanation emerges which reconceptualizes what appears to be reactionary behavior as a new style of political struggle as accommodating protest These women most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy are ambivalent about working outside the home considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits At the same time they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity The new veiling expresses women's protest against this MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence
