Rabbi Jacob Danglow The Uncrowned Monarch Of Australias Jews:

Rabbi Jacob Danglow John S. Levi,1995 The Bibliography of Australasian Judaica 1788-2008 Serge Liberman,2018-11-01 This bibliography includes all traceable self contained books monographs pamphlets and chapters from books which in some way pertain to Jews in Australia and New Zealand between 1788 and 2008 Born in Russia in 1942 Serge Liberman came to Australia in 1951 where he now works as a medical practitioner As author of several short story collections including On Firmer Shores A Universe of Clowns The Life That I Have Led and The Battered and the Redeemed he has three times received the Alan Marshall Award and has also been a recipient of the NSW Premier s Literary Award In addition he is compiler of two previous editions of A Bibliography of Australian Judaica Several of his titles have been set as study texts in Australian and British high schools and universities His literary work has been widely published he has been Editor and Literary Editor of several respected journals and has contributed to many other publications American Jewish Year Book 1997 David Singer,Ruth R. Seldin,1997 The Library owns the volumes of the American Jewish Yearbook from 1899 current Humanity in Medicine Kerry Breen,2022-04-29 In 1940 soon after graduating Dr Stanley Goulston joined the Australian Army As the sole doctor to 1500 soldiers he was sent to the Middle East where the Allied forces were fighting the Germans and Italians His battalion was part of the iconic Rats of Tobruk during the famous siege At Tobruk he was awarded a Military Cross In 1947 he was appointed honorary physician to the Royal Prince Alfred Hospital in Sydney He became one of Australia s first gastroenterologists and advanced this speciality at his hospital and beyond In senior roles with the Royal Australasian College of Physicians he headed a long lasting redesign of physician training Stanley Goulston was universally admired for his humility empathy and commitment to teaching and research For most of his life he wrote poetry At 79 he completed a Master of Philosophy degree at Sydney University and then taught narrative and poetry to doctors and medical students with the aim of fostering a more humane and compassionate version of modern scientific medicine H V Evatt and the Establishment of Israel Daniel Mandel,2004-08-02 This book provides a valuable study of Evatt the Zionist as well as illuminating a fascinating political figure In Their Merit Rodney Goultman,2015-03-06 Australia entered the Great War of 191418 on the coattails of her imperial mother Great Britain Some 420 000 of her citizens fought in the islands off New Guinea Gallipoli the Western Front and the Middle East Among them was a relatively large chunk of the countrys small Jewish population The precise number remains unknown since many enlisted as Christians The Jewish story of World War I is far more complex than the current communal narrative monopolised as it is by the superb military leadership of General Sir John Monash and the avowals of passionate loyalty of Australian Jewry to king country and empire It is claimed that this was manifest in its relatively large enlistment and war effort on the home front At all times an edgy Anglo Australian Jewish leadership was looking over its shoulder worried by possible accusations of disloyalty The sketchy account of the Australian Jewish involvement in World War I is due to a lack of evidence from that era and little enthusiasm for collecting whatever was available subsequently Much of what does exist lacks a grassroots Jewish voice except for a few diaries and letters Nonetheless it is most likely that the capacity of Jewish communal leaders to influence the average Australian Jews attitude to enlistment or home front activities was minimal One matter is certain and that is that a strong belief in social integration helped prevent the formation of any communal organisation to care for ill and wounded Jewish veterans International Bibliography of Sociology 1995 ,1996 The IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences Networked Community Sue Silberberg,2020-04-28 In 1835 a renegade group of Tasmanians wishing to expand their landholdings disembarked in what was to become Melbourne This colonising expedition was funded by a group of investors including the Jewish emancipist Joseph Solomon Thus in Melbourne as in the settlement of the continent itself Jews were at the foundation of colonisation Unlike many other settlers these Jews predominantly came from urban backgrounds Although principally from London some of them had experienced other forms of Jewish urbanism in central and eastern Europe the Ottoman Empire and the Caribbean and applied their experience to the formation of a new emancipated conceptualisation of urban Judaism In Victoria as in the other new Australian colonies there were no civil or political restrictions on the Jewish community With the establishment of Melbourne Jewish settlers were required to create new communal frameworks and the religious bodies of an active Jewish life The community s structure and the institutions they founded were a pragmatic response to the necessities of communal formation and the realities of maintaining Judaism within this colonial outpost As with other Jewish communities in the large centres of the world they responded to the freedoms of an emancipated society while the political and social environment of a new city such as Melbourne provided a unique set of opportunities Unlike in other cities where Jewish property ownership was restricted here Jews could live and work where they chose becoming from the first land sales investors in property Subsequently as the city expanded as developers and builders they influenced the formation of the urban fabric while their intellectual and economic connections brought new political and intellectual ideas and networks to the colonial experience A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society Royal Australian Historical Society,2003 Includes the Society s Annual report and statement of accounts Who's who in Australia ,2006 Who's who in Australia 2008 ,2007 A biographic reference to notable people in Australia Entrants are drawn from all areas of Australian life including the arts politics education medicine defence business diplomatic service and recipients of honours and awards The Forgotten Fifties John Murphy,Judith Smart,1997 Some of Australia s leading historians present new perspectives on social and cultural life in the 1950s The 1950s is usually treated in the popular media as a metaphor for an Australia that was complacent monocultural banal and domesticated On the other hand historical writing about the decade has long been dominated by accounts of political and foreign policy conflict the Labor Split the Cold

War and the seemingly endless long summer of Robert Menzies This collection assembles some of Australia's leading historians to present new perspectives on the 1950s Focusing on social and cultural themes they reveal a decade full of contradictions which belie the common simplistic accounts of the time Ranging from the education of the young Barry Humphries to the idea of an Australian identity in the lead up to the 1956 Olympics these essays also include the personal recollections of three leading historians providing a lively and critical insight into the Australia of the period Drawing out themes such as style sexuality modernism the suburbs travel writing and immigrant assimilation the authors excavate the experience of everyday life and the attitudes that characterised the 1950s They present a past that despite having shaped our lives continues to be disputed in contemporary Australia Quadrant, 1996 A Distant Grief Bart Ziino, 2007 Sixty thousand Australians died during the First World War This book is the first major study to examine the roles of war graves and cemeteries in private grief and mourning through archival research of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission the organization responsible for commemorating the million soldiers of the British Empire who died in the war A Distant Grief reorients and enriches international discussion of reactions to death and commemoration during and after the First World War The author Bart Ziino has written on war memorials Gallipoli and the Australian memory of war The thesis on which this book is based won the 2005 Australian Historical Association's Serle Award for the best thesis in Australian History

APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service, 1996 Vol for 1963 includes section Current Australian serials a subject list Australian National Bibliography, 1995-09 Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia), 1997 Who's who in Australia 2009, 2007 A biographic reference to notable people in Australia Entrants are drawn from all areas of Australian life including the arts politics education medicine defence business diplomatic service and recipients of honours and awards International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 1996
