

A dramatic painting of a man, likely a prophet or hero, standing amidst a stormy sea and dark, jagged rocks. He is shirtless, muscular, and has a determined expression, looking upwards. He holds a large, flaming torch aloft in his right hand, with bright orange and yellow flames reaching towards the top of the frame. His left arm is outstretched, touching the dark, craggy rock face. The background is a turbulent sea with white-capped waves crashing against the rocks under a dark, stormy sky. The overall mood is one of heroic defiance and divine inspiration.

Watson, 1974-01-01 Each Macmillan Casebook concerns a classic of English literature or significant modern work Occasional volumes in the series will deal with closely related works Each casebook brings together the best of modern criticism along with a generous selection of earlier reviews and comment and any useful information that readers might need The introduction discusses the critical reputation of the work from the time of its publication to the present day Each volume aims to give its readers a heightened sense of the interest and vitality of the work under discussion and of the value of a critical response Robert Browning: Selected Poems John Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2013-11-19 Robert Browning 1812-1889 was one of the defining figures of the Victorian age Famous in his lifetime for his elopement and marriage to Elizabeth Barratt his critical reputation grew steadily in the years following her early death Browning's mastery of dramatic verse was evident throughout his career from such chillingly unforgettable monologues as My Last Duchess and Porphyria to the mature work included in his collection Dramatis Personae This selection chosen by leading scholars reveals the innovation complexity and profound psychological insight that have ensured Browning's enduring reputation and his continuing appeal to readers today Browning Selected Poems results from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of the writer's work The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published giving a unique insight into the development of Browning's art An introduction and chronology offer useful background material whilst annotations and headnotes provide details of composition publication sources and contemporary reception This authoritative yet accessible selection should become the first point of reference for scholar student and general reader alike
