Rabbinic Judaism The Theological System Hardcover:

Rabbinic Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2021-10-01 Rabbinic Judaism in its classical writings produced from the first through the seventh century of the Common Era sets forth a theological system that is orderly and reliable Responding to the generative dialectics of monotheism Rabbinic Judaism systematically reveals the justice of the one and only God of all creation Appealing to the truths of Scripture the Rabbinic sages constructed a coherent theology cogent structure and logical system to reveal the justice of God These writings identify what Judaism knows as the logos of God the theology fully manifest in the Torah This work make its contribution in seeing in the principal conceptions of Rabbinic Judaism a logos a sustained rigorous coherent argument A narrative story of the Rabbinic sages theological system sounds remarkably familiar the age old story of God s justice to which his mercy is integral of humanity s relationship with god as a possessor of the power of will and of humanity s sin and God s response This title is also available in paperback ISBN 0 391 04179 7

Roots of Theological Anti-Semitism (paperback) Anders Gerdmar, 2008-12-31 As Adolf Hitler strategised his way to power he knew that it was necessary to gain the support of theology and the Church This study begins two hundred years earlier however looking at roots of theological anti Semitism and how Jews and Judaism were constructed positively and negatively in the biblical interpretation of German Protestant theology Following the two main streams of German theology the salvation historical and the Enlightenment oriented traditions it examines leading exegetes from the 1750s to the 1950s and explores how theology legitimises or delegitimises oppression of Jews in part through still prevailing paradigms This is the first comprehensive analysis of its kind and the result of the analysis of the interplay between biblical exegesis and attitudes to Jews and Judaism is a fascinating and often frightening portrait of theology as a servant of power A

Theological Commentary to the Midrash: Song of Songs Rabbah Jacob Neusner, 2001 This theological commentary to the Rabbinic Midrash explores a simple proposition in three parts I The reading of Scripture by principal parts of the Rabbinic Midrash is formed by compositions and composites that are animated by a cogent theological system II These primary components of the Midrash compilations further are in part aimed at systematic demonstrations of theorems of a theological character III While forming a principal part of a large theological structure and system each document is unique This commentary in its concluding chapter presents what is common to the animating theology of Rabbinic Judaism in all its documentary components and what is unique to Song of Songs Rabbah Handbook of Rabbinic Theology Jacob Neusner, 2021-12-28 From his extensive and intensive study of the rabbinic literature Jacob Neusner shows how the rabbinic documents give expression to a very real if implicit theological system While the rabbinic literature is often seen as a collection of miscellaneous responses to questions arising from study of the Hebrew Bible and its application to contemporary life Neusner sees a system behind and embodied in the various writings He discusses the ways in which the divine thought and the human thinking that sought faithfully to interpret it actually came to expression and treats what he calls the grammar of the divine self expression in order to help us see the theological structure that it implies Then he shows how this implicit system is expressed in the rules for the life of the people that God has chosen as his own Citing passages from almost all of the mishnaic tractates Neusner shows how they fit into and give expression to the system This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner,2021-10-01 The academic study of Judaism requires a systematic inquiry into the history literature and religion and eventually the theology as revealed in the historical documents themselves Under this premise Three Questions of Formative Judaism encounters the canonical writings of Judaism in the context of their creation at a certain time and place How something is said thus becomes as important as what is said Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult often unasked or neglected questions about the nature background and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

Rabbinic Discourse as a System of Knowledge Hannah Hashkes,2015-03-10 In Rabbinic Discourse as a System of Knowledge Hannah Hashkes employs contemporary philosophy in describing rabbinic reasoning as a rational response to experience Hashkes combines insights from the philosophy of Quine and Davidson with the semiotics of Peirce to construe knowledge as systematic reasoning occurring within a community of inquiry Her reading of the works of Emmanuel Levinas and Jean Luc Marion allows her to create a philosophical bridge between a discourse of God and a discourse of reason This synthesis of pragmatism hermeneutics and theology provides Hashkes with a sophisticated tool to understand Rabbinic Judaism It also makes this study both unique and pathbreaking in contemporary Jewish philosophy and Rabbinic thought

Rabbinic Categories Jacob Neusner,2005-09-01 A systematic study of the canonical construction of Rabbinic categories Halakhic then Aggadic followed by a comparison of the theological category formations in Rabbinic Judaism generative vs inert primary vs subordinate The book provides a systematic and thorough account of the rules of making connections and drawing conclusions that govern in classes of documents for the Halakhah from the Mishnah through the Bavli for the Aggadah from Scripture through the Midrash compilations Genesis Rabbah Leviticus Rabbah and Pesiqta deRab Kahana for both the Mishnah and Scripture through the Bavli The book then compares and contrasts theological category formations of the Rabbinic Aggadic writings by the criteria indicated in the title generative vs inert primary vs subordinate

How Not to Study Judaism: Parables, rabbinic narratives, rabbis' biographies, rabbis' disputes Jacob Neusner,2004 In How Not to Study Judaism Examples and Counter Examples Jacob Neusner presents a collection of essays and book reviews that identify the wrong way of conducting the academic study of Judaism Pointing readers toward the right way to pursue the academic study of Judaism Neusner's focus is on the study of the literature of Judaism and the culture of the Jewish community Neusner on Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2017-11-28 Jacob Neusner has published more than 1000 books and articles scholarly and academic popular and journalistic and is one of the most published humanities scholars in the world Over a period of fifty years he has made significant insightful and challenging contributions to the study of Rabbinic Judaism particularly in the disciplines covered in the three volumes which make up Neusner on Judaism the study of history volume 1 literature volume 2 and religion and theology volume 3 These unique volumes of selective writings by Jacob Neusner with new introductions by the author offer scholars an invaluable resource in the field of Judaic Studies Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2000 Examines the history philosophy and hermeneutics and law and literature of formative Judaism Making God's Word Work Jacob Neusner, 2004-01-22 The central theme of Making God's Word Work is that throughout the rules and norms of the Mishnah and beneath their surface is a governing theological pattern which defines the detail relating to social conduct and brings to the fore a coherent system of analysis thought and argument The Hermeneutics of the Rabbinic Category-formations Jacob Neusner, 2001 This work sets forth a theory of how Rabbinic Halakhic category formations are articulated One can now reconstruct the processes of thought that yield for the Halakhic category formations the hermeneutics that govern the selection of data for a given category formation and determines how those data are to be interpreted Not only so but that theory encompasses three quite distinct sources for the definition and articulation of a given category formation Scripture a hermeneutics generic to all Halakhic category formations and a hermeneutics particular to the category formation at hand Presented in the shank of this book are sample studies that show how the distinction between generic and particular hermeneutics for a Halakhic category formation accounts for the character of the Halakhah as spelled out by the Mishnah Tosefta Yerushalmi Bavli which is to say the Halakhah in its initial and normative statement Shofar, 1987 Contours of Coherence in Rabbinic Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2023-01-30 This book shows that the disputes that characterize Rabbinic writings in the formative age underscore the coherence of Rabbinic Judaism It is in three separate monographs The first shows that disagreements concern secondary and tertiary issues They therefore reinforce the primary norm by identifying as moot only trivial details The second demonstrates alternatively that Halakhic disputes articulate unresolved conflict over generative principles Sometimes in the presentation of topics of the law disputes not only indicate the range of consensus but bring to expression conflicting alternatives theories that claim equal validity but contradict one another Third in some presentations of the law and in all presentations of theology where disputes occur disputes simply gloss details in the application of accepted principles They form a part of the exercise of legal or theological exegesis filling in gaps with alternative facts The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004142312 Doing Jewish Theology Neil Gillman, 2010-08 An Intellectually Rich and

Challenging Exploration of Modern Jewish Theology How we deal with revelation determines how we handle the issue of authority in belief and practice How we understand authority determines how we deal with the claims of the tradition on us how we deal with those claims determines how we shape our own Judaism That conclusion opens the gate to a reconsideration of all of Judaism's theology in particular how we understand God for God is at the heart of Torah from the Introduction With clarity and passion award winning teacher author and theologian Neil Gillman captures the power of Jewish theological claims and reveals extraordinary insights into Jewish identity the purpose of religion and our relationship with God Drawing from Judaism's sacred texts as well as great thinkers such as Mordecai Kaplan Abraham Joshua Heschel and Paul Tillich Gillman traces his theological journey over four decades of study beginning with his own understanding of revelation He explores the role of symbol and myth in our understanding of the nature of God and covenant He examines the importance of community in both determining authority and sanctifying sacred space By charting the development of his own personal theology Gillman explores the evolution of Jewish thought and its implications for modern Jewish religious identity today and in the future

Rabbinic Judaism Jacob Neusner, 1995 Neusner U of South Florida introduces and critiques four approaches to describing the structure system and Western context of formative rabbinic Judaism casting his lot with the last nominalist harmonistic theological and historical Indexed by biblical and Talmudic reference as well as subject Originally published by Augsburg Fortress Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Transformation of Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2011-03-31 Jacob Neusner describes analyzes and interprets the transformation of one system of the Israelite social order by a connected but autonomous successor system He characterizes the successive systems classifying the one as philosophical and the other as religious He explains the categorical account of each and sets forth the outcome of a number of topical studies on the category formations of Rabbinic Judaism with special attention to the social order politics philosophy and economics These systems emerged as 1 autonomous when viewed synchronically 2 connected when seen diachronically and 3 as a continuous construction when seen at the end of their formative age In their successive stages of categorical autonomy connection and finally continuity the three distinct systems may be classified respectively as philosophical religious and theological each one taking over and revising the definitive categories of the former and framing its own fresh generative categories as well The formative history of Judaism is the story of the presentations and re presentations of categorical structures In method it is the exegesis of taxonomy and taxic systems Now after more than two decades Neusner has decided to review the initial statement Since the book summarizes ten years of work from 1980 to 1990 on the Rabbinic category formations of social science politics philosophy and economics in the setting of the law and theology of Rabbinic Judaism from the Mishnah through the Bavli 200 600 C E it seemed well worth the effort to recapitulate the original work The revised introduction explains the omission of theology in his category formation philosophy religion theology Neusner's account of the Bavli produced the decade after this title was completed did not make possible the continuous description of the unfolding of the Rabbinic system The pattern that appealed to Neusner from philosophy to religion to theology has not yet come to a satisfactory account In the twenty years Beyond the Yellow Badge Mitchell Merback, 2007-11-30 In thirteen essays by leading art historians and a critical introduction by the editor Beyond the Yellow Badge seeks to reframe the relationship between European visual culture and the changing aspect of the Christian majority's negative conceptions of Jews and Judaism during the Middle Ages and early modern periods By situating their subjects within a broad continuum of historical and critical issues the authors inquire into such questions as the shifting politics of toleration and intolerance the role played by anti-Judaic legends in the formation of Christian cults the role of positive evaluations of Hebrew Jewish learning and Christian hopes for Jewish conversion and the transformation of religious anti-Judaism into its modern racial and nationalistic counterparts The book will be of special interest to art historians cultural historians students of Christian theology and Jewish history and to educated general readers
