Wicomb, 2018-01-01 The first collection of nonfiction critical writings by one of the leading literary figures of post apartheid South Africa The most significant nonfiction writings of Zo Wicomb one of South Africa s leading authors and intellectuals are collected here for the first time in a single volume This compilation features essays on the works of such prominent South African writers as Bessie Head Nadine Gordimer Njabulo Ndebele and J M Coetzee as well as on a wide range of cultural and political topics including gender politics sexuality race identity nationalism and visual art Also presented here are a reflection on Nelson Mandela and a revealing interview with Wicomb In these essays written between 1990 and 2013 Wicomb offers insights into her nation s history politics and people In a world in which nationalist rhetoric is on the rise and right wing populist movements are the declared enemies of diversity and pluralism her essays speak powerfully to a host of current international issues Women Writing Race, Nation, and History Sonita Sarker, 2022-04-07 This book presents how Nation and Narrative are bound together through the figure of the N native as it appears in the non fictional writings of Cornelia

Sorabji Grazia Deledda Zitk la %S Virginia Woolf Victoria Ocampo and Gwendolyn Bennett It addresses two questions How did women writers in the early twentieth century tackle the entangled roots of political and cultural citizenship from which crises of belonging arise How do their narrative negotiations of those crises inform modernist practice and modernity then and now The N native moves between born in and first in in the context of the modern nation state In the dominant discourses of post imperial as well as de colonizing nations Native is relegated to Time static or fetishized through nostalgia and romance History is envisioned as active and contoured associated with motion and progress which the native inhabits and for whom citizenship is a political as well as a temporal attribute The six authors identities as Native settler indigenous immigrant or native citizen are formed from their gendered racialized and classed locations in their respective nations Each author negotiates the intertwined strands of Time and History by mobilizing the N native to reclaim citizenship cultural political belonging This study reveals how their lineage connections to land experiences in learning education and their labor generate their narratives The juxtaposition of the six writers keeps in focus the asymmetries in their responses to their times and illustrates how relevant women s feminist production were and are in today s versions of the same urgent debates about heightened nativisms and nationalisms The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in History of Education Gary McCulloch, 2005

Provides the reader with an impressive selection of articles on the history of education from a broad base including a new introduction from the editor The Chautauquan , 1904 Reading Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A.

Quayum, 2021-11-18 This book brings together fourteen articles by prominent critics of Malaysian Anglophone literature from five different countries Australia Italy Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the thematic and stylistic trends in the literary products of selected writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on the postcolonial themes of ethnicity gender diaspora and nationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers The book explores the works of not just the established writers of the tradition but also those who have received little critical attention to date but who are equally gifted such as Adibah Amin Edward Dorall Rehaman Rashid and Huzir Suleiman The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English is widely used in daily life and yet marginalised in the creative domain to elevate the status of writings in the national language i e Bahasa Malaysia The book will demonstrate that in spite of such recurrent neglect of the medium Malaysia has produced a number of outstanding writers in the language who are comparable in creativity and craftsmanship to writers of other Anglophone traditions The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature postcolonial literatures minority literatures gender studies and Southeast Asian studies

A Womanist Reading of Hebrew Bible Narratives as the Politics of Belonging from an Outsider Within Vanessa Lovelace, 2024-05-29 The U S Declaration of Independence of 1776 decreed that all men were created equal and were endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights Yet U S born free and enslaved Black people were not recognized as citizens with equal protections under the law until the passage of the Fourteenth Amendment Even then White supremacists impeded the equal rights of Black people as citizens due to their beliefs in the inferiority of Black people and that America was a nation for White people White supremacists turned to biblical passages to lend divine justification for their views A Womanist Reading of Hebrew Bible Narratives as the Politics of Belonging from an Outsider Within analyzes select biblical narratives including Noah s curse in Genesis 9 Sarah and Hagar in Genesis 16 and 21 Mother in Israel in Judges 5 and Jezebel Phoenician Princess and Queen of Israel in 1 and 2 Kings This analysis demonstrates how these narratives were first used by ancient biblical writers to include some and exclude others as members of the nation of Israel and then appropriated by White supremacists in the antebellum era and the early twentieth century to do the same in America The book analyzes the simultaneously intersecting and interconnecting dynamics among race gender class and sexuality and biblical narratives to construct boundaries between us versus them particularly the politicization of motherhood to deny certain groups inclusion

Race, nation and empire Catherine Hall, Keith McClelland, 2024-06-04 The essays in this collection show how histories written in the past in different political times dealt with considered or avoided and disavowed Britain s imperial role and issues of difference Ranging from enlightenment historians to the present these essays consider both individual historians including such key figures as E A Freeman G M Trevelyan and Keith Hancock and also broader themes such as the relationship between liberalism race and historiography and how we might re think British history in the light of trans national trans imperial and cross cultural analysis Britishness and what British history is have outputs and biases such as purported associations between race and criminality of facial biometrics systems have been determined by the historical nature of the underlying datasets they analyze Reading Faces approaches these issues within the sweep of Western History how it has shaped conceptual categories about the application and ethics of AI and tried to foist those ideas and values on the Global South This book is essential reading for postgraduates scholars as well as non specialist readers such as booksellers and librarians interested in modern AI technology Representing the Other in Modern Japanese Literature Rachael Hutchinson, Mark Williams, 2006-09-27 Representing the Other in Modern Japanese Literature looks at the ways in which authors writing in Japanese in the twentieth century constructed a division between the Self and the Other in their work Drawing on methodology from Foucault and Lacan the clearly presented essays seek to show how Japanese writers have responded to the central question of what it means to be Japanese and of how best to define their identity Taking geographical racial and ethnic identity as a starting point to explore Japan's vision of non Japan representations of the Other are examined in terms of the experiences of Japanese authors abroad and in the imaginary lands envisioned by authors in Japan Using a diverse cross section of writers and texts as case studies this edited volume brings together contributions from a number of leading international experts in the field and is written at an accessible level making it essential reading for those working in Japanese studies colonialism identity studies and nationalism The Nation ,1900 The International Socialist Review Algie Martin Simons, Charles H.
