Race Religion Racism:

Race, Religion & Racism: Jesus, Christianity & Islam Frederick K. C. Price, 1999 A full two years before the September 11 2001 plane crashes pulverized New York's World Trade Center before Osama Bin Laden's name became a household word and before the country ever strained to sort out the issue of muslim aggression this book was on its way Race, Religion, and the Continuing American Dilemma C. Eric Lincoln, 1999-05-17 A classic work on religion and the racial problems of modern America now brought up to date Since the early days of the Republic Americans exuberant unchastened idealism their commitment to the notion of a perfect society in the New World has clashed with the reality of ugly American society and religious groups have all too often accommodated themselves to these injustices In Race Religion and the Continuing American Dilemma C Eric Lincoln reevaluates what Gunnar Myrdal called the American dilemma and studies particularly the influence of the black church This revised edition takes into account the weakening of welfare and affirmative action and argues that the black church must serve today as a vital moral authority to lead us in to the twenty first century Race, Religion, and the Continuing American Dilemma Charles Eric Lincoln, 1990 Race, Religion & Racism: A bold encounter with division in the church Frederick K. C. Price, 1999 Divided by Faith Michael O. Emerson, Christian Smith, 2001 Through a nationwide survey the authors of this study conclude that US Evangelicals may actually be preserving the racial chasm not through active racism but because their theology hinders their ability to recognise systematic injustice

Race, Religion and Racism Frederick K. Price, 1999 This no holds barred volume presents a broad picture of how racism has become so firmly entrenched in America via the church It accurately addresses such issues as the church's role in slavery the truth about interracial marriage and biblical facts about the Curse of Ham How to Fight Racism Jemar Tisby, 2021-01-05 Winner of the 2022 ECPA Christian Book Award for Faith Culture How do we effectively confront racial injustice We need to move beyond talking about racism and start equipping ourselves to fight against it In this follow up to the New York Times Bestseller The Color of Compromise Jemar Tisby offers an array of actionable items to confront racism How to Fight Racism introduces a simple framework the A R C Of Racial Justice that teaches readers to consistently interrogate their own actions and maintain a consistent posture of anti racist behavior The A R C Of Racial Justice is a clear model for how to think about race in productive ways Awareness educate yourself by studying history exploring your personal narrative and grasping what God says about the dignity of the human person Relationships understand the spiritual dimension of race relations and how authentic connections make reconciliation real and motivate you to act Commitment consistently fight systemic racism and work for racial justice by orienting your life to it Tisby offers practical tools for following this model and suggests that by applying these principles we can help dismantle a social hierarchy long stratified by skin color He encourages rejection passivity and active participation in the struggle for human dignity There is hope for transforming our nation and the world and you can be part of the solution Race, Religion & Racism: Jesus, Christianity

Russell Hawkins,Philip Luke Sinitiere,2014 The essays in Christians and the Color Line complicate the research findings of Emerson and Smith s Divided by Faith 2000 and explore new areas of research that have opened in the years since its publication Ethnicity, Race, Religion Katherine M. Hockey,David G. Horrell,2018-06-28 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Religion ethnicity and race are facets of human identity that have become increasingly contested in the study of the Bible largely due to the modern discipline of biblical studies having developed in the context of Western Europe concurrent with the emergence of various racial and imperial ideologies The essays in this volume address Western domination by focusing on historical facets of ethnicity and race in antiquity the identities of Jews and Christians and the critique of scholarly ideologies and racial assumptions which have shaped this branch of study The contributors critique various Western European and North American contexts and bring fresh perspectives from other global contexts providing insights into how biblical studies can escape its enmeshment in often racist notions of ethnicity race empire nationhood and religion Covering issues ranging from translation and racial stereotyping to analysing the significance of race in Genesis and the problems of an imperialist perspective this volume is vital not only for biblical scholars but those invested in Christian Jewish and Muslim identity

The Specter of Genocide Robert Gellately,Ben Kiernan,2003-07-07 Genocide mass murder and human rights abuses are arguably the most perplexing and deeply troubling aspects of recent world history This collection of essays by leading international experts offers an up to date comprehensive history and analyses of multiple cases of genocide and genocidal acts with a focus on the twentieth century The book contains studies of the Armenian genocide the victims of Stalinist terror

the Holocaust and Imperial Japan Several authors explore colonialism and address the fate of the indigenous peoples in Africa North America and Australia As well there is extensive coverage of the post 1945 period including the atrocities in the former Yugoslavia Bali Cambodia Ethiopia Rwanda East Timor and Guatemala The book emphasizes the importance of comparative analysis and theoretical discussion and it raises new questions about the difficult challenges for modernity constituted by genocide and other mass crimes

Race and Theology Elaine A. Robinson,2012 Even in the Church justice for some is justice for none

The Death of Race Brian Bantum,2016-01-01 Brian Bantum says that race is not merely an intellectual category or a biological fact Much like the incarnation it is a word made flesh the confluence of various powers that allow some to organize and dominate the lives of others In this way racism is a deeply theological problem one that is central to the Christian story and one that plays out daily in the United States and throughout the world In The Death of Race Bantum argues that our attempts to heal racism will not succeed until we address what gives rise to racism in the first place a fallen understanding of our bodies that sees difference as something to resist defeat or subdue Therefore he examines the question of race but through the lens of our bodies and what our bodies mean in the midst of a complicated racialized world one that perpetually dehumanizes dark bodies thereby rendering all of us less than God s intention

Bounds of Their Habitation Paul Harvey,2017 There is an American Way to religion and race unlike anyplace else in the world and the rise of religious pluralism in contemporary American together with the continuing legacy of the racism of the past and misapprehensions in the present render its understanding crucial Paul Harvey s Bounds of Their Habitation the latest installment in the acclaimed American Ways Series concisely surveys the evolution and interconnection of race and religion throughout American history Harvey pierces through the often overly academic treatments afforded these essential topics to accessibly delineate a narrative between our nation s revolutionary racial and religious beginnings and our increasingly contested and pluralistic future Anyone interested in the paths America s racial and religious histories have traveled where they ve most profoundly intersected and where they will go from here will thoroughly enjoy this book and find its perspectives and purpose essential for any deeper understanding of the soul of the American nation

Ten Steps in Dealing with Racism and Tribalism Victor Olasoji Obi,2021-01-29

The Somatechnics of Whiteness and Race Elaine Marie Carbonell Laforteza,2016-03-09 Investigating the emergence of a specific mestiza mestizo whiteness that facilitates relations between the Philippines and Western nations this book examines the ways in which the construction of a particular form of Philippine whiteness serves to deploy positions of exclusion privilege and solidarity Through Filipino Filipino Australian and Filipino American experiences the author explores the operation of whiteness showing how a mixed race identity becomes the means through which racialised privileges authority and power are embodied in the Philippine context and examines the ways in which colonial and imperial technologies of the past frame contemporary practices such as skin bleaching the use of different languages discourses of bilateral relations secularism development and the movement of

Filipino Australian and American bodies between and within nations Drawing on key ideas expressed in critical race and whiteness studies together with the theoretical concepts of somatechnics biopolitics and governmentality The Somatechnics of Whiteness and Race sheds light on the impact of colonial and imperial histories on contemporary international relations and calls for a queering or resignification of whiteness which acknowledges permutations of whiteness fostered within national boundaries as well as through various nation state alliances and fractures As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural studies sociology and politics with interests in whiteness postcolonialism and race The Color of Compromise

Jemar Tisby, 2019 The Color of Compromise reveals the chilling connection between the church and racism throughout American history A survey of the ways Christians of the past have reinforced theories of racial superiority and inferiority provides motivation for a series of bold actions believers must take to forge a future of equity and justice Racism and the Weakness of Christian Identity David Kline, 2020-01-22 Despite the command from Christ to love your neighbour Western Christianity has continued to be afflicted by the evil of racism and the acts of violence that accompany it Through a systems theoretical and deconstructive account of religion and the political theology of St Paul this book traces how the racism and violence of modern Western Christianity is a symptom of its failure to secure its own myth of sovereignty within a complex world of plurality Divided into three sections the book begins with a philosophical and critical account of what it calls the immune system of Christian identity Focusing on Pauline political theology as reflective of an inherent religious autoimmunity built into Christian community a theory of theological political violence is located within Western Christianity The second section traces major theoretical aspects of the historical apparatus of Christian Identity It demonstrates that it is ultimately around the figure of the black slave that racialized Christian identity becomes a system of anti blackness and white supremacy The book concludes by offering strategies for thinking resistance against such racialised Christian identity It does this by constructing a pragmatics of faith by engaging Deleuze's and Guattari's use of the term pragmatics Moten's theory of black fugitivity and Long's account of African American religious production This wide ranging and interdisciplinary view of Christianity's relationship to racism will be of keen interest to scholars of Religious Studies Theological Studies Cultural Studies Critical Race Studies American Studies and Critical Theory The Color of Christ Edward J. Blum, Paul Harvey, 2012-09-21 How is it that in America the image of Jesus Christ has been used both to justify the atrocities of white supremacy and to inspire the righteousness of civil rights crusades In The Color of Christ Edward J. Blum and Paul Harvey weave a tapestry of American dreams and visions from witch hunts to web pages Harlem to Hollywood slave cabins to South Park Mormon revelations to Indian reservations to show how Americans remade the Son of God visually time and again into a sacred symbol of their greatest aspirations deepest terrors and mightiest strivings for racial power and justice The Color of Christ uncovers how in a country founded by Puritans who destroyed depictions of Jesus Americans came to believe in the whiteness of Christ Some envisioned a white Christ who would sanctify the exploitation of Native Americans and African Americans and bless imperial expansion Many others gazed at a messiah not necessarily white who was willing and able to confront white supremacy The color of Christ still symbolizes America s most combustible divisions revealing the power and malleability of race and religion from colonial times to the presidency of Barack Obama
